

WINDOW GLASS. NEW ALBANY GLASS WORKS! We are Agents for the NEW ALBANY GLASS WORKS! And are prepared to offer WINDOW GLASS! at MANUFACTURERS' PRICES. Full Stock of White Lead, Linseed Oil and Ready Mixed Paints at Prices that Defy Competition. Try us. OWEN & MOORE.

DRUGS! DRUGS! S. B. STEWART, Lockert & Reynolds, DRUGGISTS, Franklin Street, Opposite Fox & Smith's. To our Friends: Having succeeded Mr. J. F. Warfield in the drug business, we ask of you a share of your patronage. S. B. STEWART.

GRANGE Warehouse Association, CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Commission Merchants. For the Inspection and Sale of LEAF TOBACCO. T. HERNDON Supt. and Salesman. W. H. TURNLEY, Soliciting Agent.

Blue Front Shoe Store. All Tobacco in our warehouse in Clarksville, on which advances have been made, will be returned to the owner of the tobacco, and all tobacco received by us at our warehouse in Clarksville, upon which there is no advance, will be insured at our warehouse at the risk of the buyer.

AT COST To Make Room for New Goods. A Nice Line of Men's Stiff Hats, Boys' and Men's Straw Hats, Men's Low Shoes, Youths' High Button and Low Shoes, Ladies', Misses and Children's Newport Ties, Cloth Shoes, Kid Shoes & Slippers. Call and examine Goods on our BARGAIN COUNTER. We will positively sell the Goods at Cost or Less. JUST RECEIVED! 25 Dozen of the celebrated "Rambler," the Patent Shirt that never tears down the back. The best thing on the market for One Dollar.

BOWLING & WILSON, 17 FRANKLIN STREET. Sewanee Planing Mill G. B. WILSON & CO., Manufacturers of SASH, DOORS, BLINDS, Builders' Material of Every Description. PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST. Cor. Spring and Commerce Sts., - - Clarksville, Tenn. Jan. 1, 1882.

Magistrates' Blinds for Sale at this office

V. L. WILLIAMS, THE SHOEMAN, Is now offering great BARGAINS in Children's, Misses' and Ladies' Slippers, Summer Hats, etc. His stock is now complete in all appointments. When you visit Clarksville call on him and buy Good Goods at Low Down Prices. Shoes and Boots made to order. Repairing neatly done on short notice. V. L. Williams, 25 Franklin St., Clarksville.

LOCKERT & REYNOLDS, DRUGGISTS, Franklin Street, Opposite Fox & Smith's. To our Friends: Having succeeded Mr. J. F. Warfield in the drug business, we ask of you a share of your patronage. S. B. STEWART.

ANCHOR MILLS, CLARKSVILLE TENN. Having recently built, on the old Court House Lot in the City of Clarksville, Strawberry Street, one of the most complete Mills in the country, I am now prepared to do first-class grinding, both in Wheat and Corn. My Mill is the New Process, and was built by one of the best mill-wrights in the South; and with all of the best and latest improved machinery. Will grind the Middlings or shorts, and make a greater yield and higher grade of Flour.

Kendrick, Pettus & Co., Tobacco Salesmen, General Commission Merchants, CENTRAL WAREHOUSE, Cor. Main and Front Streets, - Clarksville, Tenn. Just Below the New Tobacco Exchange.

G. N. BYERS, AGENT, Represents the Following Reliable Companies. FOR FIRE INSURANCE: FIRE ASSOCIATION, of Phila., Assets, $4,219,046. GERMAN-AMERICAN, of N. Y., 3,452,572. QUEEN, of Liverpool & Lond. Assets in U. S. 1,674,935. NORTH BRITISH and MERCANTILE, of London and Edinburgh, 2,040,823. PHOENIX, of London, 782,617. WESTERN, of Toronto, Canada, 903,950. IN LIFE INSURANCE: MUTUAL LIFE, of New York. Assets, $94,702,957. Surplus over all liabilities, 12,000,000. Rates 10 per cent. cheaper than any other regular life insurance company. Office: Franklin street, over Singer Sewing Machine Agency.

WARRANTERS' IRON TONIC. A combination of Ferrous Chloride, Iron Phosphate, and Phosphoric Acid, in a palatable form, and the only preparation of iron that will not blacken the teeth. (Advertisement for Iron Tonic)

LANDRETH'S PEDIGREE SEEDS. SEEDS FOR THE MERCHANT on our New Plan. SEEDS FOR THE MARKET GARDENER. SEEDS FOR THE PRIVATE FAMILY. Grown by ourselves on our own Farms. DAVID LANDRETH & SONS, SEED GROWERS, PHILADELPHIA

DR. J. C. BROWN'S TABLETS BUCKEYE. BURGE BLEND FOR BLIND CHILDREN. TABLETS BUCKEYE. DR. J. C. BROWN'S TABLETS BUCKEYE. (Advertisement for Dr. J. C. Brown's Tablets Buckeye)

THE STATE DEBT. Who are the Bondholders? In order to understand what sort of people invested their savings in Tennessee bonds, it is necessary to refer to the facts and circumstances which led to their becoming bondholders. The gentleman was asked how many bonds had been presented, and he answered that he had seen a half, which he said, would make about five millions and a half of new bonds funded. They were made up of $20,000, $10,000 and $5,000 bonds per day when he left. One day while he was there he saw them take in $225,000 in bonds, but that was an extra day. The last day he was there, which was Monday, Mr. Peter Geddis brought in $50,000 in bonds, and Mr. Eugene Geddis brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds.

Education in Telegraphy. There are quite a number of telegraph colleges in the country and many of them are doing a good business. It is not surprising that they are doing so, for the telegraph is a profession that is becoming more and more important every day. The telegraph is a profession that is becoming more and more important every day. The telegraph is a profession that is becoming more and more important every day.

Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds.

Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds.

Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds.

Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds.

Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds.

Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds. Mr. Lucas said that he learned before leaving New York that a man named Terry was expected to arrive from England with a large number of bonds to be funded into new bonds. He brought in about $20,000, which they received new bonds.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith. It is, indeed, a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.

SENIOR MORGAN. A former resident of Alabama has a word to say about his recent speech. A former resident of the debating State of Alabama, and now Tennessee State Credit or sky-blue Democrat, begs to suggest to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, Gen. John T. Morgan, the impropriety of making speeches in Nashville advocating the election of Gen. Bate for Governor. It is, indeed, passing strange that one who was so thoroughly conversant with the progressive spirit of national Democracy, when, two years ago, in convention assembled, he pledged his vote for the election of public faith, State and national, should at this early day raise his voice for the election of a Readjuster Governor. The State debt question—really the only persistent issue in the present gubernatorial contest—is a question of the most vital importance to the people of Alabama, and it is a question which it is the duty of every citizen to study, and continued application for its thorough unfolding and comprehension, and that a United States Senator from the Commonwealth of Alabama, which has renounced every pledge made her candidate, should appear in Tennessee to advocate the election of a candidate pledged to the readjustment of a debt settlement proposed by the best of Tennessee bondholders, who, thereupon, would receive 40 per cent. of the debt, and accepted by the last Legislature in its sovereign capacity, is, in fact, a violation of the public faith.