REMEMBER "Esmeralda" at the Opera House, Monday night.

CORN meal has come down to the reasonable figures of 50 to 60 cents per bushel.

PROPOSALS will be received at the Post-office for carrying the mail to and from the Depot.

In the language of another, "We have met the enemy, and we are theirs."

The election, as a general thing, passed off remarkably quiet throughout the State.

Go to Elder's Opera House Monday night and see the great play of "Esmeralda."

The New York Times says that the majority for Cleveland, for governor, is over 100,000.

CRIMINAL Court convenes on Monday. A large number of cases are on the docket for trial.

THE residence of Mrs. McClure, near Greenwood Avenue, is for rent. See advertisement in another column.

OUR book-binding is in full operation, and those who wish binding of any kind, would do well to give us a call.

THE Allegheny Gazette says: "Mr. Morgan Hughes will, on November 15, lead to the hymenal altar, Miss Gussie Sory, of Saddleville, Tenn."

THE fall rains have set in, and we may now look for winter soon, though the weather so far, has been remarkably mild for the season of the year.

THE Rev. J. D. Barbee, pastor of the Methodist church in conducting a series of meetings at his church. Prayer-meeting at 10.30 a. m., and preaching at 7 o'clock, p. m.

Now that the election is over, let everybody forget the bitterness of feeling engendered during the canvass, and live together as friends and neighbors.

WORK on the Franklin House is being pushed forward rapidly, and mine host Bringham will soon reside with his usual grace and dignity in his old quarters.

POSTUMS are now ripe, and the luscious vegetable can be bought at the market house any market day. They are used as a substitute for young pigs, which are scarce.

THOSE of our subscribers who have been complaining that we have been giving them an overdose of political matter, will now to some extent be relieved.

Mrs. A. L. VALLANT will sell at auction her household and kitchen furniture on Saturday, Nov. 18th, on the Public Square. She will also sell a horse and barouche.

MR. HIBT, a well-known market gardener of this county, had a lot of ripe strawberries in market one morning this week. Rare fruit this season of the year.

DR. A. M. TRAWICK has rented a portion of the Female Academy for a residence, and has moved his family, and they are now "At Home" to callers. The doctor has the telephone in his room and any one can call him day or night.

MR. JAS. E. BAILEY, JR., has bought the residence of Mr. V. L. Williams, corner of Sixth and Main. Mr. Williams, we understand, will move his family to the Academy, having rented a portion of that building.

THE telephone line is completed from Hopkinsville to Henderson, Ky., and from that place to Evansville, Ind., giving us telephonic communication with those places. Hello!

We have had good rains this week, which have been beneficial to our farmers; a few sharp stinging frosts now would do much good. The fall so far has been unprecedented, there having been no killing frost up to this date.

We call attention to the advertisement of Dr. C. W. Beaumont, who offers his private residence, on Lat Cross street, for sale. Not with a view, however, of removing from the city, but with the intention of purchasing a smaller place. This property is beautifully and centrally located and is a very desirable home.

Those who have been so fortunate as to witness the famous play of "Hazel Kirke," as produced by the Madison Square Theatre Company, must feel a natural curiosity to see the drama which is universally conceded to be the successor and rival of the former great play. The remarkable success which attended the production of "Esmeralda" in New York would indicate that popular favor has stamped the latter play as worthy to take the place of Hazel Kirke. The critical audiences of New York have united in highly commending Esmeralda as an original and intensely interesting dramatic work. Our citizens now have the opportunity of forming their own opinions since the play is to be produced here next Monday night, November 18th, with appropriate scenic appointments and the following:

Elbert Rogers, Mr. R. F. McClain, North Carolina Farmer, Lydia Ann, His Wife, Esmeralda, His Wife, Miss Bell Gilbert, Their Daughter, Dave Hardy, Edwin Arden, A Young North Carolinian, Jack Desmond, N. J. Barbeck, A Man of Letters, Jack Desmond, P. P. Peters, A Young American Painter residing in Paris, Nora Desmond, Miss Clara Spence, Kate Desmond, Miss Emily Leslie, Marquis De Montmorency, Perry Melton, An Adventurer, George Drew, Mr. Jas. M. Gilbert, A Mining Engineer.

Reserved seats can be had at Owen & Moore's and should be secured at once.

THE residence of Mr. Robert D. Moseley on Madison street, was entered by thieves on last Thursday night, who robbed Mr. Moseley of his watch, pocket-book and money.

They also took the gold studs and sleeve buttons from his shirt, which was hanging in the room. The pocket-book contained some $50 in money and notes to the amount of about $1,500, besides some other valuable papers. The watch was a gold hunting case watch of medium size, made by T. S. Bartlett, Waltham, Mass., No. 106,241. The thieves entered the bed-room of Mr. Moseley, where he and his family were sleeping, and got in their work without arousing anyone. They gained admittance by raising the window and cutting a slit from the inside blinds. It is very evident that our city is infested by a gang of sharp sneak thieves, and our citizens should sleep with an eye open and a good shot gun handy and give these nocturnal visitors a warm reception.

A large crowd witnessed the marriage of Mr. Gary Lyne and Miss Cornelia LeMaster, at the Methodist Church, last Tuesday night. The groom is a popular clerk of Messrs. McComb, Hunt & Co., who by his energy and application to business, has established himself in the confidence of his employers and the community, although starting a poor boy with naught to recommend him save his own merits; he deserves all the good luck which he has met with. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. J. J. LeMaster, and is a charming young lady. Rev. J. D. Barbee led the nuptial knot and started our young friends out in life with his blessing. We add our hearty congratulations to those of their many friends.

THE news from the elections last Tuesday shows immense gains for Democracy; New York goes for Cleveland; Democratic candidate for governor by an overwhelming majority, Indiana and probably Pennsylvania also Democratic. There have been large gains of Congress men everywhere and there is no doubt the Democrats will have a handsome working majority in the next Congress. Even Massachusetts claims now to be Democratic, and Ben Bragg has at last succeeded in capturing the governorship after a long chase and many a turn and twist.

THE Board of Mayor and Aldermen met in regular monthly session on Tuesday last. Nothing out of the regular routine business occurred, except the report of the fire hook place in the hall where the Board was in session. It was soon over, however, and upon inquiry by a CHRONICLE reporter, it was learned that the conflagration was caused by the destruction of the above amount of city bonds, which had fallen due and were paid off and ordered burned in the presence of the full Board. The time of meeting was changed from Monday afternoon to Thursday night.

Col. A. G. Goodlett advertises his law library for sale. He has a fine law library, composed of the latest and most standard works, which he proposes to sell as a whole, on one and two years' time. The text books are all standard, most of them new and improved editions. He also has a full set of Cooper's edition of "Pocahontas" report, vol. Goodlett invites correspondence upon the subject. Address A. G. Goodlett, this city.

THE Woman's Christian Association will meet in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. at 4 p. m., the 31st inst.

We most earnestly desire the ladies to come out in full force to this meeting. There is some important work to be done, and we must have your co-operation in the cause we have in hand. The gentlemen have assisted us nobly, and we must do our part in the great cause. Ladies, come to the meeting next Monday, at 4 p. m.

Mrs. B. N. HERBING, Cor. Sec'y.

THE Str. Ella passed down Thursday en route for the "Mouth of Smithland," where she goes to clean out a bar which has formed there. She is in the government employ and in charge of Capt. Terrell, of the Marine Service.

Capt. T. G. Hyman, of the famous Ryman Line, was in the city this week arranging business for the coming season.

Capt. Tom Harmon, of the Italy Tyrope, is on the Police force at Nashville.

Mrs. John's new ferry boat has been put in at the city ferry, and she's a daisy.

Mr. Robert McRoy and his bride nee Fort, were in the city Thursday. Major M. H. Crump, of Bowling Green, was in the city the first of the week. Miss Mary Hampton, of Hampton Station, is visiting the family of Dr. C. W. Bailey. Mrs. J. W. Clapp, Jr., of Memphis, is on a visit to her father's family in this city. Mr. C. C. Plummer, of Nashville, a member of the press gang of that city, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. Jane Dorris, an estimable lady of Sumner county, is visiting the family of Mr. Jas. A. Grant, of this city. Mrs. Dr. Acre is looked for from Chattanooga this evening, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Whiteside. Miss Katie Griffey has returned from a sojourn of several weeks with friends in the Hendersonville neighborhood. Mr. John W. Faxon and family, are visiting Mr. Geo. B. Faxon, at Faxon's Station, Benton county, West Tennessee. Miss Janie Brooks left Friday morning for a visit to relatives at Birmingham, Ala. She was accompanied by her friend Miss Goodrich, of Nashville. Eugene Dibble, the clever lightning-jerk at the Telephone Exchange, went to Hopkinsville on Wednesday on business for the Telephone Company. We regret to learn that Col. Keese, of Columbia, was run over by a wild cow on the street in Nashville last Monday, and seriously injured. He was resting easy at last account. Capt. J. C. Wheeler, in the Internal Revenue employment of the Government, has moved his family from Dover to this city and now occupies the residence of Mrs. Johnson on Franklin street. Mr. Fred Schoebel, the young University student who accidentally shot himself in the leg some weeks ago, and returned home, has again returned to the University, having fully recovered from the accident. The Hopkinsville Kentuckian says, "Mr. C. G. Rosenplenter, of Clarksville, an experienced architect and civil engineer, has moved to this city, and can be found at his office in Holland's building on Main street. Mr. Thos. W. Brown, the active and gentlemanly business manager of the Madison Square Theatre Co., was in the city this week in the interests of his company, which will appear Monday night at Elder's Opera House. We received a pleasant call on yesterday from Mr. Walter Elliott, a brother of Gen. Elliott of this city and son of Mr. Thomas Elliott, of LaFayette. Mr. Elliott has been engaged with the Brooklyn Tobacco Inspection for the past year and is home on a visit to relatives. THE Christian County Hunting Club passed through here on Thursday evening last, en route for Arkansas, to engage in one of their annual hunts. They go to the mouth of Little River, which empties into the Arkansas. The squad was composed of seventeen hunters, a number of cooks and servants, three wagons, twenty-four horses and mules, several fine packs of hunting dogs and any quantity of ammunition, etc., etc. These comprising the party are: Capt. Sam White, Chief in command, and Messrs. James Parrish, Dudley Ware, Austin Peay, P. J. Glass, Lyman McComb, W. D. Garnett, John Bell, Ed Walker and J. C. Pettit, of Christian county, and Walker Williams, Dr. H. T. Drane, Ed. Drane, Mack Radford and John Parrish, of this county. F. P. Burke, of New York, and H. H. Bryant, of Trigg county. The party will be out about three or four weeks, and as game of all kinds is said to be plentiful in the region to which they go, their friends at home may expect a bountiful supply in a few days. REMEMBER that Armstrong's Minstrel will exhibit here on Tuesday evening. This troupe is said to be one of the very best organizations of the kind on the road. The Atlanta Constitution says of it: "This organization gave an excellent entertainment at the Opera House last night. The programme was a good one, and well rendered. Other minstrel troupes have visited our city with larger displays on our bill-boards and louder blowing of trumpets, and they failed in giving such a good entertainment as this company. On Thursday afternoon of last week, at Salem church, Christian county, Ky., Mr. G. Allen was happily united in marriage to Miss Lizzie Forgy, of the St. Elmo neighborhood. The father of the bride officiated. A reception was tendered them during the evening at the home of Mr. Abe Allen, where many friends gathered to extend sincere and hearty congratulations. Mr. CHARLES M. DAY, of Allensville, Ky., was united in marriage on Wednesday, Nov. 1st inst., to Miss Rowe Williams, a highly esteemed young lady of Graysville, Ky. The ceremony took place at the hospitable home of the bride's father, where a large number of intimate relatives and friends had gathered to witness the marriage. Elder Case performed the ceremony. The wedding is said to have been a very elegant affair. THE Charlotte, (S. C.) Observer, says of Armstrong's Minstrels, which will exhibit here on Tuesday evening next: "This company is a very excellent one indeed; in fact, it is superior in many respects to any of the kind that has ever visited Charlotte. Postmaster General Howe has made an order giving postmasters discretion in returning letters to writers upon the application and production of proof. However, this power was vested only in the Postmaster General.
