OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) The event in Washington to-day...

PERSONAL.

—Mr. C. H. Bailey was in Nashville Thursday.

—Mr. John W. Beck, of Oakwood, was in the city Wednesday.

—J. M. Rice, Esq., a prominent member of the Dover bar, was in the city Thursday.

—Miss Mollie O'Sullivan, of Louisville, visited at Mr. Hollin's, in this city, this week.

—Messrs. R. D. Ledbetter, H. H. Tharpe and A. E. Mandeville, who are candidates for Mayor at the ensuing municipal election.

—Miss Annie Pratt, of Pembroke, Ky., was in the city, this week, on a visit to the family of Mr. W. S. Mallory.

—Mr. Florence Abbott, who has been completing a room for some time with a sprained ankle, is able to get out again.

—Mr. S. E. Pryor and family, who have lived for some time on Greenwood avenue in this city, have moved to Henderson, Ky. Mr. Pryor has a position under Collector Wood in the internal revenue service.

—Owen Moriwether, who is accustomed to spend Christmas with friends in the vicinity of Clarksville, will not be able to do so this year. He writes us to this effect from Wayne, Case county, Texas, where he is engaged in surveying a railroad.

—Rev. Dr. Hendrick returned Tuesday night from Shelbyville, Ky., where he has been attending at a protracted meeting of great interest, which resulted in some fifty additions to the church. He went to Hopkinsville Friday morning to commence another meeting.

—Mr. T. B. Mueller and wife, from Indianapolis, have moved to Clarksville, and are at present boarding with Dr. W. A. Shelby. Mr. Mueller has charge of the work being done on Kentucky, Pettes & Co. Mill. He brought a considerable force of workmen with him.

—A Carriage letter to the American says: The Rev. J. B. Gresham, who began a series of meetings here last week, is creating considerable interest. He is possessed of much talent, and his deeply interesting and thoughtful sermons are attracting good audiences. His sermon Sunday, on the duties of parents to children, was especially interesting. His good looks and a son of Judge J. B. Goodpasture of Nashville.

—Mrs. ELLEN NORTHINGTON, wife of Mr. S. H. Northington, died at the family residence on the corner of Second and Commerce streets in this city at 4 o'clock a. m., Wednesday, the 9th inst., after an illness of several weeks with typho-pneumonia. Mrs. Northington was about 45 years old. Her maiden name was Smith, and she was born and brought up in Kearsburg, Ky. She was a devout Christian and greatly liked and respected by all who knew her. The funeral took place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the Baptist church, with services by Rev. A. D. Sears. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery.

—Smoke the "Shug" and "Bijou" cigars all the rage. For sale by G. W. Leigh.

—An Unknown Thief. A man unknown to any one in Clarksville, and going under several aliases, was arrested here Saturday for stealing a coat and vest from Mr. Dan Kelly. He was tolerably well dressed with nothing of the appearance of the tramp, but carried no baggage. He first appeared at the Franklin House, Friday evening, where he registered as "Chas. Brown, Henderson, Ky." The clerk informed him that there was another gentleman in the House from Henderson. He said he knew the gentleman, but shortly afterwards walked out of the hotel and never came back again. Later in the evening he procured lodging at Mrs. Tim Kelly's, whose residence is under the Clarksville National Bank. He behaved himself well, paid for his entertainment next morning and left. Shortly after he had gone it was discovered that the coat and vest belonging to Mr. Dan Kelly, a young man of the family, was missing. No suspicion attached to the thief, but during the night Mr. Dan Kelly came up on him on the street with the stolen articles in his possession, trying to sell them to Mr. Pat Sullivan. He ran when he found out he was detected, but was soon captured. He had carried the stolen goods out of the house unnoticed by wearing them under his own clothing.

—He was carried before Esq. C. D. Bailey, when he waived an examination and was put under bond of $500 to appear at the Criminal Court. He told officer Holleman, who arrested him, that his name was "Chas. Carson, and that he was from Texas." At Mr. Kelly's he said his name was Cook and hailed from Elizabethton, Ky. A telephone message came from Nashville Sunday saying he was wanted there, but on investigation he turned out not to be the man desired. He could be easily identified, as his nose has been badly disfigured by a blow, and a number of his teeth have been knocked out.

—Northern Bank of Tennessee. On Monday, 14th inst., we shall remove from the building we now occupy on the Square, to the New Banking House built for us at the intersection of Franklin and Second streets—one of the best in the State. No care or expense has been spared in the building of the house, especially in the building of the vault, to make safe property entrusted to our keeping. We shall be glad to meet at our new place of business our present customers, and as many new ones as may be pleased to favor us with their patronage.

—While no promise of profit can induce us to break loose from the conservatism which has carried us safely through the thirty-one years of our existence as a Bank, and which should be the chief characteristic of every institution that stands in a fiduciary capacity to the people, we shall keep the Northern Bank fully abreast of the spirit of the times, and shall endeavor to make it serve, as heretofore, the best interests of our friends and the public. We beg to return thanks and our gratitude for the confidence and patronage that have been given to us in the past, and to give assurance of unremitting effort on our part to merit a continuance thereof.

—D. N. KENNEDY, President. JAS. L. GLENN, Cashier.
