 which is cured by this remedy. If taken before the last stages of the disease are reached, from its marvelous power, over this terrible fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequalled, not only as a remedy for consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the

LAST Saturday the editor of this paper paid a visit to his old friends in Trenton, Ky. This town is on the St. Louis & Southwestern division the L. & L. railroad and is surrounded by the finest land in the State. The farmers devote their time chiefly to wheat and tobacco and they are generally prosperous.

While there, met many friends, among them Mr. James D. Rutherford, Dr. J. S. Dickinson, C. D. Runyon, L. A. Arnold, Esq., C. W. Ware, Sandridge Dickinson, Dr. F. J. Runyon, Dr. A. J. Wilson, Adair Taitley, J. H. Fox, Esq., McGuire, James Wakefield, J. Y. Cabiness and others.

The local option law had just taken effect and the saloons had closed Friday night. Saturday the board of trustees for the town was elected to serve the next ensuing twelve months. The new board consists of J. D. Rutherford, C. W. Ware, J. H. Fox, J. J. Basford and E. J. Luck. J. C. Mimms was elected police judge.

We were informed that business in Trenton is better than it has been during the last ten years, with good prospect of a continuance. Less credit business is being done and this is evidently best for both buyer and seller.

OUR Lafayette letter is unavoidably crowded out this week.
 THE tobacco sales this week foot up something near one thousand hogsheads.

A SMOLDERING fire was discovered by the firemen in the ruins of the Coulter building Friday morning at 7 o'clock, but was quickly extinguished.

MR. J. B. SMITH, of Dickson county, is dangerously ill at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Joslin in this city. He was brought from Tullahoma Tuesday.

A FREIGHT car jumped the track at 3 o'clock Friday morning near the freight depot. On this car was a new street car and it was tumbled into the ditch—and knocked into a total smash of streaked-painted lumber.

Cash! Cash! Cash!
 All parties indebted to us are requested to call at once and settle up. Our recent loss by fire forces us to ask this, as we are compelled to make our collections to meet our losses.

Thanks.
 We desire to publicly thank our friends, the firemen, the university students and all others who gave us such timely aid in saving our goods last Sunday morning. The service rendered was invaluable to us, in materially reducing the amount of our loss by the fire. We are under obligations to them which we will not forget. Respectfully,
LOCKERT & REYNOLDS.

REV. J. B. COTTELL delivered an interesting lecture in the Opera House Friday night of last week which was attended by a good audience. He generalized the opposition to Christianity under the name of Ingersollism. He took the broad position that all are for Christ who are under the inspiration of truth, and paid a high tribute to those fearless spirits who have struck out in new ranges of thought. He was thankful for the churches, as they were scaffolds around about the building being erected for the habitation of humanity, and he dwelt upon the self-attestative sufficiency of the Bible as a witness to an inspiration that is continuous and cumulative. (The crowded state of our columns prevents a more extended notice of the eloquent lecture.)

Greenwood Items.
 Constant suffering has prevented your humble correspondent from any attempt at itemizing for sometime.

The most important social event which has occurred in Greenwood circles for a long while was the marriage of Mr. John Clements, the well known traveling salesman for John Hurst & Co., and Miss Lucy, the second daughter of S. A. Caldwell, Esq., at the residence on Greenwood on the 7th instant, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. W. Hill. We have never been so fortunate as to make the acquaintance of the groom, but his numerous friends and acquaintances are pronounced in his favor, as being an intelligent, steady, rising business man of great moral worth. He certainly should be a man of this character to have wooed and won the heart and hand of such a young lady as Lucy Caldwell. We have known her from prattling childhood, and can bear willing testimony to her womanly worth. To her modest and intelligence she has added all the Christian graces, and will make his home one of sunshine and happiness. May the approving smiles of Heaven as well as those of their host of friends, ever rest upon this congenial couple. Various handsome presents were sent to them by friends here and elsewhere.

MR. WILL CROOKER, of Louisville, a former resident of Greenwood came down to attend the Clements-Caldwell nuptials. He was in fine health and spirits.

MR. HARRY CROCKETT, of Troy, Tenn., came up last Wednesday evening, and is mingling with the many friends he made whilst sojourning here last winter.

MR. DICK BROADUS is suffering with his periodical asthma very badly. He, in common with all the sufferers by the late disastrous fire, has the full sympathy of the Greenwood people.

DR. GEO. SWIFT, from the Southside, has been visiting Dr. Larkin very often lately; thereby showing his kind feelings for his old preceptor.

MR. ARTHUR LAMB and wife, of Paris, Mrs. Mag Crouch, of Red River neighborhood, and Miss Laura Edmondson of the Southside, have been the guests of S. A. Caldwell's family this week.
