

THE TIMES.

PUBLISHED SATURDAYS.

J. E. BURGHES, JR., Editor.

30 cents per annum.

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

Saturday, April 25, 1896.

Entered at the post-office at Spout Spring, Ky. as second-class mail matter.

LOCALS.

Dry weather

Use Mansfields flour.

Farmers are busy planting corn.

A fine shower late yesterday evening.

Geo. Branum has moved to Black creek.

15lbs. dry salt meat for $1.00 at Patrik's

To insure a good biscuit, use Mansfields flour.

A complete line of summer hats at Patrik's.

Go to W. R. Cassidy's, Clay City, for clothing.

There has been an advance in the price of sugar.

Oats and young grass have been damaged greatly by the drouth.

Died April 18, the infant daughter of Douglas Crow. The remains were buried on the place of Allen Osborne.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!

I have on hand a large and complete stock of

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, GROCERIES, HATS and SHOES

That will be sold at close prices for cash. We are determined to eclipse any thing of the past in good goods and low prices.

Respectfully yours,J. E. BURGHES, JR.

See the new advertisement of W. G. Patrik in this issue.

Rev. D. P. Ware filled his regular appointment at Jackson's Chapel Sunday.

For stoves, hardware and queensware, go to W. R. Cassidy's

Adam Forepaugh and Sells Bros. show will visit Mt. Sterling next Thursday.

Whole stock plow shoes $1.00 at Burgher's.

A full-line of harness and plow gear at Patrik's.

For bargains, go to J. E. Burgher, Jr.

J. P. Wright bought in Mt. Sterling Monday, seven head of cattle that would average about 500lbs. at $12.50 per head.

A man on Caloway's creek, traded his farm to one 11-year-old mule, one waggon, one wheelbarrow, $10. cash, one pocket knife and one butcher knife.

WANTED-50,000 staves to be delivered at Spout Spring. I will pay the highest market price for same.J. E. Burgher, Jr.
Advertise in The Times.