

Remember to get your Wall Paper at Kelly & Evans. W. E. Harris returned from a business trip to Tennessee yesterday.

As enjoyable dance was given at the residence of Mrs. J. F. Bullitt Friday night last.

Knows & Buckley, the grocermen, have had a large and handsome awning put up in front of their store.

Do you know that while the Appalachian is standing idle that a seven dollar dollar pay roll per day is cut off?

Harry T. Ferguson is rising from the sick list this week. His friends hope to see him out again.

On Black Mountain Monday, 12th, a purse containing money, which the owner had been calling on J. P. Wolfe, and crying for this notice.

The proprietors to chronicle the illness of Mrs. W. C. Harrington, who has been confined to her room for several days, but is now reported as convalescing.

Mr. Wm. Finns and daughter, Miss Finns, accompanied by Miss Doninger, all of St. Paul, Va., were in town Friday, which means they came to see the circus.

George B. T. Irvine boarded the train and L. & N. train Monday with a basket of hand-made goods on his arm and a ticket for "Richmond, Ky." in his pocket. "Can anyone explain?"

Dr. S. L. Whitehead took in about $25.00 at his soda fountain on Saturday, while Harry Sullivan took in about $40.00 at Dr. J. W. Kelly's fountain, which was equal to 1,100 glasses being handled by the two during the day.

Over $1,000 was spent at the three fountains at Big Stone Gap by the crowd that came to see the electric show. Some of them possibly did not know the elephant, but can now give a full description of the den of snakes, the monkey wagon and "elephant."

As the public understands the situation, the change of the furnace was brought about by the demand of immediate payment of about $2,000 due the S. A. & O. railroad on back freights. The furnace was in position to pay the cash just as the fire had allowed to lay aside sufficient funds to cover the amount, the proceeds returned over to the railroad in full payment as the iron was sold, and in full payment of all freight bills promptly. It is said that the railroad people would not understand that the proceeds would be accepted, but afterwards brought suit and got judgement for the amount. This action naturally brought about trouble with other creditors and banks to protect their property the railroad owners and managers were forced to look for receivership.

Miss Handy's Manual of Useful Information. This has just been published in Chicago, a most valuable book with the title compiled by Prof. Wm. H. Blaine, of Lancaster University. It is 600 pages are full of information and we fully advise all our readers to send for a copy of it.

Children's Day. The Presbyterian and Episcopal Sunday schools of this town, were invited by the Looney Creek school to unite with the latter in celebrating Children's Day on the 4th inst., at the mines. The "dummy" gave a free excursion to the schools and there was quite a large number of the town's people who availed themselves of the opportunity to get out in the cooling shade for half a day, altogether about two hundred went.

It should be in every house. J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good.

Lee County's Oldest Citizen Dead. Mr. Joseph K. Olinger, who lived near Dryden, Lee county, died Sunday June 11th and was buried the 13th. Mr. Olinger was, no doubt, the oldest man in Lee county, being at the time of his death, 91 years, 9 months and 3 days old.

Are You Insured? If not, now is the time to provide your self and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy as an insurance against any serious result from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months.

Installation of Officers. The following officers were installed at a meeting of Stephenson Chapter, No. 19, Royal Arch Masons, Tuesday, 6th inst:

W. H. Suthers, High Priest. W. B. Kilbourne, King; C. E. Spaulding, Scribe; C. W. Evans, Treasurer; C. H. Spaulding, Secretary; Joshua Mullins, Captain of Host; I. N. Kelly, Principal Sojourner; J. O. Straley, Royal Arch Captain; W. T. Kennedy, Master 3rd Vail; A. S. Hoge, Tyler; W. S. Mathews, Steward; G. E. Dutton, Chaplain.

A Noted Minister. M. T. Skiff, formerly business manager for W. J. Scanlan, the Irish Comedian, suffered with rheumatism for years without relief until he bought a little bottle of Drummond's Lightning Remedy. Two bottles made a well man of him.

Into the City's Coffers They Dropped Their Hard-earned Cash. Jno. Robinson's big "showcase" attracted here last Friday, perhaps, the largest crowd that ever gathered at Big Stone Gap.

The show people was an orderly crowd, and carried with them no "sneakers" or wheel-of-fortune men. While the show was good, still it was not sufficiently large to come square up to the expectations of some, and others "boozed up" enough so as to be able to see two of every act that took place by shutting one eye, thus getting a dollar's worth of show for a fifty-cent ticket.

However, some of the boys, in doing honor to the "Sheen of Quebea" became just a little too enthusiastic, and had to be pulled by the police. The result of this enthusiasm is shown by the following record of cases brought before Mayor Hudgens on the morning of the 10th:

- F. A. Bailey, felonious assault, sent on to court. Ed Hall, disorderly conduct, fine $4.50. J. A. Fields, disorderly conduct, fined $3.50. A. R. Carter, disorderly conduct, fined $3.50. Grant Skidmore, disorderly conduct, fined $6.50. F. A. Bailey, disorderly conduct, fined $26.50. W. W. Wilson, disorderly conduct, fined $3.50. J. E. Thompson, disorderly conduct, fined 3.50. Sam Reed, disorderly conduct, fined $21.50. Jas. Pinkard, felonious assault, sent on to court.

Thus it will be seen that the boys dropped $64.00 of their hard-earned cash into the till of the city.

He Knew Its Worth. Dr. J. M. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years.

Children's Day. The Presbyterian and Episcopal Sunday schools of this town, were invited by the Looney Creek school to unite with the latter in celebrating Children's Day on the 4th inst., at the mines.

TO GO AT ONCE INTO SOUTHERN RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.

Richmond Terminal Reorganization Now an Assured Success and Enlargement and Improvements Next in Order. (Chattanooga Times.)

Just at this time it is cheerful to learn of great things that are in the store for the south, to promote its prosperity. The people of this section have not yet appeared to appreciate what the success of the Drexel, Morgan & Co., plan of reorganization of the Richmond and Danville and East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad systems and their branches means for the south.

The matter was cut short by Chief Justice Fuller coming back to the question of granting a writ of superseadea. He said it had been held by Justice Jackson that the circuit judges were compelled to grant such a writ. The chief justice added: "I see no reason why the ordinary course should not be taken, especially when an immediate hearing of the appeal can be had."

The pamphlet issued by Drexel, Morgan & Co., refers to the necessity of a new contract between the Memphis and Charleston and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis for the use of the line from Stevenson to Chattanooga or the building of the road as the existing contract expires June 4, 1894.

Certain it is that if the "Cross-the-River company build a railroad bridge near the Roane iron works the Memphis and Charleston will build at once to Chattanooga.

The indications are that Chattanooga will profit largely by the reorganization, which now is beyond the shadow of a doubt. Drexel, Morgan & Co., undertake the scheme of reorganization with a guarantee fund of $30,000,000.

Relieved from the burden of debt, with new rails and new equipment, means so much for the East Tennessee and Cincinnati Southern that the very best wishes of the properties find it hard to realize the good fortune in store for them.

Electric Bitters. This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.
