

TRAY OPENING.

Current Was Turned on the Main Artery of Manhattan's Great System.

EXERCISES WERE HELD.

Estimated that Nearly 150,000 People Made on the Electric Trains During the Evening.

AT TIMES AT THE RATE OF ONE MINUTE IN THE HALF DARKNESS OF THE HUGE TUNNEL.

At 7 o'clock "City Hall to city hall" became a reality...

HE PUSHED RESCUER FROM THE HOUSE AND LOCKED HIMSELF IN.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—George Brown, a Negro, while in a drunken stupor, knocked over a lamp Sunday night...

MEN AND BEASTS SUFFER.

Long Drought Results in a Water Famine.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The general committee on the national reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in this city next year met at the residence of Maj. John H. Leathers...

TWO DEATHS AT PADUCAH.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—W. B. Peal, 64, county coroner, died of a complication of diseases.

NO TIDING FROM KOEGL.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 31.—No tidings has been received as to the whereabouts of Herman H. Koegel, the missing druggist of Third and Mosmouth streets, who went to French Lick Springs October 12 and disappeared from there October 14.

BOTH WERE BADLY BURNED.

ML. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 31.—On Wilson creek, near Seney, Carter county, Ky., the residence of Riley Carraway was burned.

A SCARCITY OF WATER.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The effects of an almost unparalleled drought in this state are just beginning to be felt by the railroads and the manufacturing concerns that exist along their right of way.

ENGINEER KILLED, FIREMAN HURT.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 31.—In a freight wreck on the Indian Creek extension of the Kentucky & Virginia railroad Engineer Lem Wilkins was killed.

HILDRETH AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Sam C. Hildreth, the Chicago turfman, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Sunday night.

POURED OIL ON A FIRE.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 31.—H. A. Perkins, of Crittenden, poured oil on a fire and burned to death.

THE MOTHER IS DEAD.

Strange Coincidence in the Death of Chairman Hager's Parents.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 29.—Mrs. William R. Hager, the widowed mother of State Auditor S. W. Hager, died at her home in Salyersville Friday morning after an illness of 12 days from pneumonia.

ATTORNEY ASSAULTED.

His Assailant Will Be Indicted For Contempt of Court.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 28.—County Attorney Otto H. Anderson was assaulted at the post office Thursday morning by George Merrill, a saloonkeeper and powerful athlete, who claimed the lawyer humiliated him during a cross-examination in a trial in the circuit court.

WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

He Pushed Rescuer From the House and Locked Himself In.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—George Brown, a Negro, while in a drunken stupor, knocked over a lamp Sunday night, which set fire to the house and burned him to a crisp.

MEN AND BEASTS SUFFER.

Long Drought Results in a Water Famine.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The general committee on the national reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in this city next year met at the residence of Maj. John H. Leathers...

TWO DEATHS AT PADUCAH.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—W. B. Peal, 64, county coroner, died of a complication of diseases.

NO TIDING FROM KOEGL.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 31.—No tidings has been received as to the whereabouts of Herman H. Koegel, the missing druggist of Third and Mosmouth streets, who went to French Lick Springs October 12 and disappeared from there October 14.

BOTH WERE BADLY BURNED.

ML. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 31.—On Wilson creek, near Seney, Carter county, Ky., the residence of Riley Carraway was burned.

A SCARCITY OF WATER.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The effects of an almost unparalleled drought in this state are just beginning to be felt by the railroads and the manufacturing concerns that exist along their right of way.

ENGINEER KILLED, FIREMAN HURT.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 31.—In a freight wreck on the Indian Creek extension of the Kentucky & Virginia railroad Engineer Lem Wilkins was killed.

HILDRETH AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Sam C. Hildreth, the Chicago turfman, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Sunday night.

POURED OIL ON A FIRE.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 31.—H. A. Perkins, of Crittenden, poured oil on a fire and burned to death.

A GENERAL ATTACK.

The Third One Began on Port Arthur by the Japanese on October 24.

SHELLS FIRED POWDER MAGAZINE.

Portions of the Town Caught Fire, the Conflagration Continuing the Whole Day Before Extinguished.

A SUCCESSFUL ATTACK ON THE RUSSIAN OUTPOSTS AT WUMINGTUN AND TWO UNSUCCESSFUL COUNTER ATTACKS MADE BY MUSCOVITES.

The Foo, Oct. 31.—The third general attack on Port Arthur began October 24, according to unimpeachable authority, and on October 26 Japanese shells set fire to the only smokeless powder magazine in Port Arthur.

WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

He Pushed Rescuer From the House and Locked Himself In.

MEN AND BEASTS SUFFER.

Long Drought Results in a Water Famine.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The general committee on the national reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in this city next year met at the residence of Maj. John H. Leathers...

TWO DEATHS AT PADUCAH.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—W. B. Peal, 64, county coroner, died of a complication of diseases.

NO TIDING FROM KOEGL.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 31.—No tidings has been received as to the whereabouts of Herman H. Koegel, the missing druggist of Third and Mosmouth streets, who went to French Lick Springs October 12 and disappeared from there October 14.

BOTH WERE BADLY BURNED.

ML. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 31.—On Wilson creek, near Seney, Carter county, Ky., the residence of Riley Carraway was burned.

A SCARCITY OF WATER.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The effects of an almost unparalleled drought in this state are just beginning to be felt by the railroads and the manufacturing concerns that exist along their right of way.

ENGINEER KILLED, FIREMAN HURT.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 31.—In a freight wreck on the Indian Creek extension of the Kentucky & Virginia railroad Engineer Lem Wilkins was killed.

HILDRETH AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Sam C. Hildreth, the Chicago turfman, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Sunday night.

POURED OIL ON A FIRE.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 31.—H. A. Perkins, of Crittenden, poured oil on a fire and burned to death.

PUPILS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The Annual Report Shows That They Number 16,009,361.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The report of the commissioner of education for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, made public Sunday by the secretary of the interior, shows that 16,009,361 pupils, or 20 per cent of the entire population of the country, attended the public schools during that year.

WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

He Pushed Rescuer From the House and Locked Himself In.

MEN AND BEASTS SUFFER.

Long Drought Results in a Water Famine.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The general committee on the national reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in this city next year met at the residence of Maj. John H. Leathers...

TWO DEATHS AT PADUCAH.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—W. B. Peal, 64, county coroner, died of a complication of diseases.

NO TIDING FROM KOEGL.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 31.—No tidings has been received as to the whereabouts of Herman H. Koegel, the missing druggist of Third and Mosmouth streets, who went to French Lick Springs October 12 and disappeared from there October 14.

BOTH WERE BADLY BURNED.

ML. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 31.—On Wilson creek, near Seney, Carter county, Ky., the residence of Riley Carraway was burned.

A SCARCITY OF WATER.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The effects of an almost unparalleled drought in this state are just beginning to be felt by the railroads and the manufacturing concerns that exist along their right of way.

ENGINEER KILLED, FIREMAN HURT.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 31.—In a freight wreck on the Indian Creek extension of the Kentucky & Virginia railroad Engineer Lem Wilkins was killed.

HILDRETH AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Sam C. Hildreth, the Chicago turfman, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Sunday night.

POURED OIL ON A FIRE.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 31.—H. A. Perkins, of Crittenden, poured oil on a fire and burned to death.

A CIRCULAR NOTE.

Secretary Hay Carried Out President's Instructions Relative to Second Peace Conference.

IT WAS SENT TO ALL THE POWERS.

The Rights and Duties of Neutrals in Time of War Demands Further Attention.

IT ENDORSES THE PROJECT OF A GENERAL SYSTEM OF ARBITRATION AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INTERNATIONAL PEACE CONGRESS.

Washington, Oct. 31.—In a circular note Secretary Hay has carried out the president's instructions relative to proposing a second Hague conference.

WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

He Pushed Rescuer From the House and Locked Himself In.

MEN AND BEASTS SUFFER.

Long Drought Results in a Water Famine.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The general committee on the national reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in this city next year met at the residence of Maj. John H. Leathers...

TWO DEATHS AT PADUCAH.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—W. B. Peal, 64, county coroner, died of a complication of diseases.

NO TIDING FROM KOEGL.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 31.—No tidings has been received as to the whereabouts of Herman H. Koegel, the missing druggist of Third and Mosmouth streets, who went to French Lick Springs October 12 and disappeared from there October 14.

BOTH WERE BADLY BURNED.

ML. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 31.—On Wilson creek, near Seney, Carter county, Ky., the residence of Riley Carraway was burned.

A SCARCITY OF WATER.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The effects of an almost unparalleled drought in this state are just beginning to be felt by the railroads and the manufacturing concerns that exist along their right of way.

ENGINEER KILLED, FIREMAN HURT.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 31.—In a freight wreck on the Indian Creek extension of the Kentucky & Virginia railroad Engineer Lem Wilkins was killed.

HILDRETH AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Sam C. Hildreth, the Chicago turfman, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Sunday night.

POURED OIL ON A FIRE.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 31.—H. A. Perkins, of Crittenden, poured oil on a fire and burned to death.

EX-GOV. NASH IS DEAD.

He Expired Suddenly in Bath Room of His Son-in-Law's Home.

Columbus, O., Oct. 29.—Ex-Gov. Geo. Kilbuck Nash was, shortly before noon, Friday, discovered dead in his bath room. Before he started to take his bath, he did not seem to be unusually weak and there was no intimation of the sudden end.

WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

He Pushed Rescuer From the House and Locked Himself In.

MEN AND BEASTS SUFFER.

Long Drought Results in a Water Famine.

THE CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 29.—The general committee on the national reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in this city next year met at the residence of Maj. John H. Leathers...

TWO DEATHS AT PADUCAH.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—W. B. Peal, 64, county coroner, died of a complication of diseases.

NO TIDING FROM KOEGL.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 31.—No tidings has been received as to the whereabouts of Herman H. Koegel, the missing druggist of Third and Mosmouth streets, who went to French Lick Springs October 12 and disappeared from there October 14.

BOTH WERE BADLY BURNED.

ML. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 31.—On Wilson creek, near Seney, Carter county, Ky., the residence of Riley Carraway was burned.

A SCARCITY OF WATER.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The effects of an almost unparalleled drought in this state are just beginning to be felt by the railroads and the manufacturing concerns that exist along their right of way.

ENGINEER KILLED, FIREMAN HURT.

Sergeant, Ky., Oct. 31.—In a freight wreck on the Indian Creek extension of the Kentucky & Virginia railroad Engineer Lem Wilkins was killed.

HILDRETH AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Sam C. Hildreth, the Chicago turfman, accompanied by his wife, arrived here Sunday night.

POURED OIL ON A FIRE.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 31.—H. A. Perkins, of Crittenden, poured oil on a fire and burned to death.

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

Current News Matter Reduced For the Busy Reader.

Three persons were killed and 23 injured in a wreck on the Missouri Pacific road at Tipton, Mo.

It is stated in financial circles in Paris that the Russian loan, for which arrangements were supposed to have been made in Berlin, has fallen through.

Former Gov. Benjamin Harrison Eaton died at his home in Greeley, Col., aged 71 years.

It is learned that the North Sea affair caused the deepest anxiety to King Christian of Denmark, who declared that should an Anglo-Russian war result it would be the cause of his death.

The general staff issued a statement that the number of Russians killed, wounded and missing in the fighting which began October 2 and ended October 18 totaled 800 officers and 45,000 men.

Pauline Astor, the daughter and heir of William Waldorf Astor, was married in London to Capt. H. Spencer-Clay, of the British army.

Secretary Hay is negotiating treaties with the leading European countries which, if put into effect, will go a great way toward insuring against war between the United States and any of the nations of the old world.

Isaac N. Perry, president of the National Bank of North America, Chicago, is held on a charge of arson and with intent to defraud insurance companies. He denies the charge and says it is a conspiracy to ruin him.

A question that will be brought through the courts of the United States was raised when J. E. Lagdonne, a Filipino, claiming to be an American citizen, was refused the right to register and vote in the presidential election at New Haven, Ct.

Naval officers in San Francisco are discussing a peculiar structural defect of the battleship Ohio, which has never been referred to in print. This defect consists of omitting armor around the after end of the superstructure, within which are mounted ten six-inch rapid fire guns.

At Masontown, Pa., Clifford Hawley shot and instantly killed Simon Doo-hue and wounded William Morrow in the arm. Hawley and Doo-hue, who had never met before, became engaged in a warm argument on politics and Morrow stepped between them and ordered them to desist.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, Pittsburgh, ordered D. Loet Lloyd, president, to secure a special train for the purpose of taking the leading manufacturers of Allegheny county on a visit to Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Dubuq, Omaha, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

Floating gracefully in the air at an average height of 30 feet above the heads of the several thousand spectators, the airship designed and built by T. C. Beshaw, of Columbus, Miss., made what the inventor declares was a successful trial flight in the aeronautic concours at the World's fair.

A lone woman held up three men near the town of Auburn, Wis. As they were approaching a secluded portion of the road a masked woman on horseback rushed from a thicket and commanded them, at the point of a rifle, to descend from the wagon and give up their valuables. She carefully searched the pockets of each man, but found no valuables.

MARKET REPORT.

Table with market prices for various commodities like Cattle, Hogs, Corn, etc.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

Man Thrown into a Coke Oven By Two Men and Cremated.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 29.—A memorial service for the late Consul Booth-Tucker, wife of Commander Booth-Tucker, of the Salvation Army, on the first anniversary of her death, was held here Friday night.

A FAREWELL MEETING.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 31.—The Lyceum theater was crowded Sunday night at a farewell meeting to hear Commander Booth-Tucker, of the Salvation Army, who leaves this country for England on the steamer Oceanic from New York November 16.

FELL DEAD WHILE PREACHING.

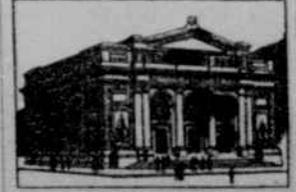

Newport News, Va., Oct. 31.—Rev. William H. Mitchell, of Portsmouth, Va., while preaching in the pulpit of the Holiness church here Sunday night fell dead. Apoplexy was the cause. He was 59 years old and leaves a wife and several children.

DIED WHILE PREACHING.

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 31.—Rev. S. H. Hess, a Dunkard preacher, dropped dead Sunday in the Dunkard church at Wrightsville while delivering a funeral sermon. He was 65 years of age.

WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

He Pushed Rescuer From the House and Locked Himself In.

Portrait of a man, likely related to the 'Horrible Murder' article.