

GILMER, M. D. W. A. BAKER, M. D.
Gilmer & Baker,
 Physicians and Surgeons.
 Offices in Polly Building,
 Big Stone Gap, Virginia.
 All calls answered promptly.

BRISTOL
WISCONSIN
COLLEGE
BRISTOL, TENN.-VA.

Bookkeeping
 Higher Accounting
 Shorthand
 Typewriting
 Telegraphy

COMMONWEALTH ATTORNEY
 The Voters of Wise County:
 I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for Wise county, to be voted for at the November election, 1911.

FOR COUNTY CLERK
 The Voters of Wise County:
 I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Court Clerk of Wise County at the election to be held November 7, 1911. If I am elected I shall perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, using the most modern and up-to-date system for keeping the records and indexing, and any that can be had. Anything that can be done for me in this election will be highly appreciated.

THE VOTERS OF THE RICHMOND MAGISTRAL DISTRICT:
 I hereby announce myself a candidate for Justice of the Peace, to be voted for at the coming November election, 1911, and earnestly solicit the support and good will of all the people in the district.

THE VOTERS OF THE RICHMOND MAGISTRAL DISTRICT:
 I hereby announce myself a candidate for Justice of the Peace, to be voted for at the coming November election, and earnestly solicit the support and good will of all the people in the district.

THE VOTERS OF RICHMOND MAGISTRAL DISTRICT:
 I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for Supervisor of the Richmond Magistral District at the coming November election. If elected I promise to faithfully perform the duties of said office to the best of my ability.

LOCAL ITEMS.
 Miss Eugenia Baumgardner left this week for her vacation with relatives in Staunton.
 Miss Lucy Hiner has returned to her work from her three weeks' vacation.
 Miss Janie Slemp entertained a dinner at the Monte Vista hotel on last Sunday evening. Miss Georgia Goodloe, Mr. E. Prescott and Mr. F. S. Wambwell.
 J. W. Gant spent Sunday in Bristol visiting homefolks.
 Shuler Gilly, who is engaged in the lumber business at Judson, N. C., visited relatives in the Gap the past week.

Messrs. J. F. Bullitt and H. E. Benedict spent a few days last week fishing near Middleboro.
 The roof is being put on the fine new residence of W. H. Polly on Shawnee avenue this week. Work on the building is progressing exceedingly rapidly.
 Mr. Pierson has rented the Slemp property, on Poplar Hill, for himself and family.
 C. F. Blanton has had his residence on Wyandoite avenue newly painted.
 G. M. Brashear, (Dad), of Middleboro, was a visitor in the Gap the past week.
 W. H. Gildersleeve and wife, of Johnson City, are spending several days in the Gap at the Monte Vista. Mr. Gildersleeve is division superintendent of the United States Leather Co., and is here looking after the interests of his company.
 G. E. Penn, of Abingdon, spent Sunday in town.
 W. P. McDowell, of Bristol, was among the traveling men in town the past week.
 Gen. R. A. Ayers spent Friday in Gate City on business.
 Mrs. J. L. Sandoe, of Big Stone Gap, was a back home visitor to the fair. She will remain here some time, the guest of Mrs. J. B. Seacatt.—Lebanon News.

Miss Gertrude Elliott, who has been spending the summer at the Monte Vista Hotel, returned last week from a three week's visit to Michigan.
 Rush A. Plowman, of Philadelphia, president of the company erecting the new Federal building at this place, spent a few days in the Gap the past week looking after his interests.
 H. A. Johnson, of Pennington Gap, was in town Saturday.
 Will Brahe has moved his family into the house recently vacated by Tom Reese, who moved into the house in the rear of the Taggart property, on Poplar Hill.

Deaconess Williams, of Lynchburg, who has been with Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd since early spring engaged in Mission work, will go to Dante the 10th of October to take charge of the work there under Dr. Lloyd.
 Dr. J. Q. Jayne spent last week at Appalachia with the Dominion Drug Co., Dr. Roler having had to go home on account of the serious illness of his brother.
 Miss Mary Summers, of Bristol, has accepted a position in Irvine & Morrison's office to look after the Empire Coat Land Co.'s stenographic business.
 Hon. D. F. Bailey, of Bristol, was in town last Friday on professional business.
 R. G. Young, of Cucumcari, N. M., who is spending a few weeks visiting relatives and friends in Lee county, was a visitor to the Gap Friday.
 Dr. G. C. Gilmer, of Turkey Cove, was a visitor to the Gap Friday.
 J. M. Hodge returned last week from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Massachusetts. He was accompanied home by his niece, Miss E. H. Gibbs, who will spend some time here.

S. W. Wax and wife returned Friday night from a ten days stay at Knoxville, visiting relatives and friends and the Appalachian Exposition.
 A. D. Owen, chief clerk for the Virginia Wholesale Co., at Appalachia, has moved his family to the Gap, and occupy the Millard property, on Imboden Hill. We gladly welcome them to our midst.
 G. D. Jenkins returned Friday from Asheville, N. C., where he attended the annual convention of Virginia-Carolina photographers.
 No Candy like Whitman's. Now supply just received.—Mutual Drug Co.
 Mrs. G. F. Jones left Monday for a two week's visit with friends and relatives in Tazewell county.
 Squire Bettis has turned over his restaurant to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garrison, who will continue to run the same.
 A. G. Broyles was down from Appalachia Tuesday.
 Mrs. Harry Torbert and son, Dick, left Tuesday morning on a visit to homefolks in Philadelphia. They will be gone several weeks.
 A large assortment of Whitman's Candies just received.—Mutual Drug Co.
 The next attraction at the School Auditorium will be "The Thief," a popular New York production. Date of appearance will be given next week. The manager is using his best efforts to secure only first-class shows, and they will, no doubt, be well patronized by our people.
 Emmett Nickels returned last week from Los Tannos, N. M., where he spent several months. His father, who has been in the Gap during his absence, has returned to New Mexico.
 "You have tried the rest, Now try the best"—Whitman's Fancy Candy.—Mutual Drug Company.
 Miss Rosalie Jackson, of Lynchburg, is visiting Miss Lillian Lloyd, at the Rectory.
 Dr. C. B. Bowyer, of Stonega, spent Monday in town.

FOR SALE—Harvard Piano, in first-class condition, $150; Round Oak Dining Table, $15; 4 Oak Dining Chairs, $1 each. Inquire at this office.
 Carl Durham, of Duffield, spent Saturday and Sunday in the Gap.
 Mrs. Emma B. Thompson returned last week from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Parrott, at Deer Lodge, Mont.
 The greatest Candy of them all—Whitman's Fussy Package for fastidious folks. Fresh shipment just come in.—Mutual Drug Co.
 J. F. Bullitt, President-elect of the Virginia State Bar Association, left today for Richmond to attend a meeting of the Executive Committee to be held in Richmond tomorrow. The object of the meeting is to select some one for the next annual address and to transact other important business of the association.
 H. S. Shanklin spent last week visiting friends in Stonega.

Thomas Bondurant Hall, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Buckingham county and father of Dr. W. P. Hall, of Norton, will know in the Gap, dropped dead Sunday at Buckingham Court House. Apoplexy was the cause of his death.
 Miss Florence McCormick, of the University of Chicago, who has been visiting her brother, J. L. McCormick and family, at this place, left Thursday night for her home.
 Mrs. R. L. McLemore and Miss Donna Cecil came down from Wise Saturday afternoon to see "Beverly of Graustark" played at the School Auditorium Saturday night.
 Dr. L. B. Montague, an experienced pharmacist of Norfolk, Va., has accepted a position with the Mutual Drug Co., of this place. Dr. and Mrs. Montague are stopping for the present with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bunn, at the Touraine Hotel.

Local "fans" were disappointed Saturday when it was learned that a ball game scheduled and advertised to be pulled off at Athletic Park between the Big Stone Gap and East Stone Gap High School teams, had to be called off because of the visiting team's inability, on account of lacking players, 'tis said, had decided not to play.
 James W. Fox, of New York, spent a few days the past week visiting homefolks in the Gap.
 Vote for your choice in the Piano Contest. Your support may enable her to win a prize.
 Rev. J. W. Rader, Presiding Elder of the Big Stone Gap District, M. E. Church, South, and Rev. J. W. W. Shuler, pastor of the church at this place, left Tuesday for Morristown to attend the annual meeting of the Holston Conference.
 The Nickels Grocery Co., under the management of Irby Nickels, who for several years was connected with the store department of the Stonega Coke & Coal Co., has opened up a grocery and fresh meat store in the Littrick building at this place.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS.
 Water rents are payable quarterly in advance at the office of the Town Treasurer. Five per cent. penalty will be added to all bills not paid within 10 days from the beginning of the quarter. If the bill and penalty is not paid within 20 days from beginning of quarter water will be shut off without further notice, and will not be turned on again until all bills (including expense of shutting off and turning on the water again) are paid.
 I will be in my office until October 10th for the purpose of collecting the last quarter for 1911, and you are requested to call and make prompt settlement.
 P. H. BARRON,
 Treasurer.

See Fullers' New Fall and Winter Merchandise

We are showing all the newest styles in ladies' and children's wearing apparel. Our stock of

Ladies' Tailored Suits, Coats and Millinery

far surpasses any line that has ever been shown in this section. Suits and coats range in price from $8.00 to $47.50.

We ask that we may have the pleasure of showing you through our stock before buying your fall merchandise.

FULLER BROTHERS,

BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA.

BABY OPERA.

This Opera will be given on Friday at 8 p. m., as a benefit for city schools. It contains fourteen scenes from all the late Opera's and all in fancy costumes. There are at least 125 children in the production—songs, drills, fancy dances and fancy drills.
 Mr. Tylor comes as a director of marked ability, having given this Opera all over the South. He uses children all ages—3 to 16 years.
 Come out and help us to have all the things in our school which we need to make our school one of interest in the State. Tickets on sale by children and at usual place. Children 25 cents; general admission 35 cents; reserved seats 50 cents.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS.

Water rents are payable quarterly in advance at the office of the Town Treasurer. Five per cent. penalty will be added to all bills not paid within 10 days from the beginning of the quarter. If the bill and penalty is not paid within 20 days from beginning of quarter water will be shut off without further notice, and will not be turned on again until all bills (including expense of shutting off and turning on the water again) are paid.
 I will be in my office until October 10th for the purpose of collecting the last quarter for 1911, and you are requested to call and make prompt settlement.
 P. H. BARRON,
 Treasurer.

Fall and Winter Opening

PARIS and NEW YORK PATTERN HATS

beginning Tuesday, September 26, 1911.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED.
J. M. Willis & Company

Meat Market

FRESH MEATS

Butter, Eggs, AND Chickens

All the time CHOICE BREAKFAST BACON, HAMS, Etc., at

Robinette & Dorton's
 In Front of Monte Vista Hotel
 BIG STONE GAP, VIRGINIA

WITH our complete line of drug store articles, especially with our stock of toilet articles, we are in a position to meet your every want, need or fancy. We are enjoying a splendid business in toilet goods. We give you the best goods. We give the utmost courtesy and attention to your wants.

TO MEET YOUR EVERY WANT

Toilet soaps, perfumes, face powders, talcum powders, tooth washes, tooth paste, toilet waters, face lotions, cold creams, tooth brushes, hair brushes, combs, manicure sets, sponges and bath goods.

CHINA, French, Austrian, Japanese, in hand paints and full dinner sets. Our Jewelry Department includes all first class articles. We carry the famous Henkel Razors—one lasts a life-time 500 Votes in Piano Contest With every dollar purchased in Cut Glass, Jewelry, China, Cutlery or Rexall Remedies.

KELLY DRUG COMPANY,
The Rexall Store