

Before you go away Better come to see us

Mosquitoes and flies are no longer a joke. They live in swamps and foul places and feed on poisoned decaying matter. When they do get a "whack" at a real healthy person they are apt to cause contagion. So the thing to do is to PREVENT contagion. Come to us and get the things to do this. We can help you.

Kelly Drug Company

The Rexall Store

We give you what you ASK for.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Miss Alice Bruce attended the League conference held at Abingdon.

Miss Eugenia Bumgardner is spending her vacation with homefolks at Staunton.

Attorney F. A. Groseclose, of Toms Creek, was in town this week on professional business.

Attorney H. G. Morrison, of Johnson City, spent Sunday in the Gap visiting relatives.

Dave Skinner came over from Keokee to spend Sunday with friends in the Gap.

J. T. King and J. B. Giltner, of Dante, spent Sunday in the city.

Mrs. C. Q. Counts and children, of Coeburn, visited Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bruce last week.

Miss Edith Ballard is spending several weeks with relatives in Bristol.

Misses Laura and Lucile Ashworth, of Coeburn, were guests of the Misses Bruce Friday and Saturday.

Miss Ethel Gravely, of Salem, spent a few hours in the Gap last Friday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker on Saturday, a nine pound boy.

Dr. W. G. Burke, of Stonega, was in town Saturday to see the ball game.

B. E. Polly and W. O. Gloster were down from Stonega Sunday.

D. D. Hull, Jr., general counsel for the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company, of Roanoke, was a business visitor to the Gap the past week.

John Ewing, of Keokee, spent Sunday in the Gap.

M. L. Slem, of Pennington Gap, and R. C. Duff, of Duffield, were business visitors to the city Monday.

W. D. Taylor was over from Dante one day last week.

A. H. Worm, of Richmond, was a business visitor to the Gap Monday.

Leland McConnell, of Gate City, came over Saturday to see the ball game, and while here was the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. B. Wampler.

Mrs. J. J. Warden, of Bluefield, spent part of last week in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Garrison, returning home Tuesday morning, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary, who had been visiting here for some time.

Miss Rose Ely, of Jonesville, is visiting Miss Madge Muncy, in the Gap.

Miss Madge Muncy returned last week from Williamsport, Penn., where she has been attending school the past year.

George Roebuck, of Norton, was in town Sunday.

The "Childrens' Day Service" was held at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday night and was appreciated by a large audience.

Miss Pearl Parsons spent Sunday in Pennington visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Marrs.

Miss Jule Bullitt has returned from Charlottesville, where she attended the finals at the University.

Mrs. J. W. Draper, of this place, and Miss Emma Duncan, of Jonesville, left last week for Radford, where they will attend the Summer Normal.

Mrs. John Carnes, of Norfolk, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carnes in the Gap.

Mrs. Tom Morris is visiting her sister, Mrs. Addison Morris, at this place.

Shaler Gilly, of Richlands, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gilly, at this place.

Mrs. I. T. Gilly and children, and Miss Besa Young left for Rogersville, Tenn., where they will visit for a few weeks.

Willie Nickles, of this place, who attended school at the University of Virginia was operated on last week for appendicitis. He is improving at the present writing.

Mrs. J. P. Hendricks and two little sons, Perry and Vernon, of Winchester, Ky., spent last Friday in town. They are moving to Covington, Va., where Mr. Hendricks has recently accepted a position with a printing concern at that place.

Fitz Stephens, former manager of the Wise base ball club and a great fan, was in town Saturday and helped umpire the game between Keokee and Big Stone Gap.

FOR SALE—One 3 room cottage on lot 84x150 feet, fronting on Second West Street, in Big Stone Gap. For particulars address J. F. Arington, Stonega, Va. 22-25

Dr. Hagy and family motored down from Imboden Sunday.

Quite a crowd from Wise attended the ball game here last Saturday afternoon.

Guy L. Pugh, of St. Paul, spent Sunday in the Gap.

J. Q. Jayne and Dr. O. H. Morris, of Coeburn, were in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Burnett, Miss Tansey, J. H. Meda, F. L. Heinz, and J. P. Hagan motored down from Dorchester Sunday.

R. R. Casper, auditor of the Stonega Coke and Coal Company, spent Sunday in Norton.

Mrs. Asbury Carter and her sister, Mrs. Slayer, who is visiting here from Gate City, are visiting in Big Stone Gap.—Norton Progress.

C. A. Spence, of Richmond, was among the guests at the Monte Vista last week.

H. T. Nelson, of Richmond, stopped over in the city, last Friday.

Geo. A. Thrope, of Richmond, was among the traveling men in the Gap last week.

Sam Lacy, a well known Richmond traveling man was among the knights of the grip in town the past week.

M. W. Sterne, of Greensboro, N. C., is visiting his son, J. A. Sterne, at the Monte Vista this week.

W. A. Lowry was down from Norton one day last week.

Creed Kelly, who has been attending school at the Virginia Polytechnical Institute, Blacksburg, has returned home for his summer vacation.

E. T. Davant, of Roanoke, spent several days last week in the Gap.

Miss Rosa Pridemore is in town visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Draper.

Mr. Fred King, of Dante, was in town Saturday.

Miss Mary Lou Metcalf, a graduate student of Randolph Macon, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelly before returning to her home in Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duffy motored down from Stonega to see the ball game Saturday.

Mrs. Leonidas Collier, of Turkey Cove, is visiting relatives in town.

E. F. Tate, the popular superintendent at Oaaka attended the ball game Saturday afternoon.

Dr. T. J. Tudor, of Keokee, was in town Saturday.

Misses Virginia Beverley and Retta Thompson are visiting relatives in Dryden this week.

Mrs. S. A. Bailey and Mrs. I. C. Taylor, delegates to the Home Mission Society, have returned from the annual conference held at Morristown, Tenn.

Misses Maud Wolfe, Helen Nichols, of Norfolk, and Messrs. F. W. King and J. B. Giltner, of Dante, motored to Toms Creek Sunday afternoon. Mrs. J. P. Wolfe and Mrs. Louis B. Montague were chaperones.

G. D. Jenkins, the Gap's popular photographer, returned Sunday from Atlanta, where he attended the National Photographers Convention, which was held in that city last week. He reports a pleasant time and a royal reception accorded the visitors by the citizens of that city.

Mrs. L. O. Pettit left Sunday for Louisville to join her daughter, Miss Margaret, who has been visiting there several days and will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Blanch Witten, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. A. Sterne, at this place, returned to her home in Bluefield Tuesday.

The Richmond District Farmers Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at East Stone Gap next Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Luther Slem, of Pennington, was in town Monday on business.

The Guild of the Episcopal Church will meet with Mrs. H. P. Young, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

W. G. Mathews, who has been attending school the past year at the Virginia Polytechnical Institute at Blacksburg returned home last week for his summer vacation.

Attorney B. H. Sewell, of Jonesville, was in the Gap last Thursday on professional business.

Mrs. D. E. Allen and children are visiting relatives and friends in Whitesburg, Ky.

Mayor Fleenor has set aside next Friday as a day for the citizens of the Gap to clean up their premises so as to give the town as neat appearance as possible to visitors here on July 3rd and 4th. Everybody are requested to assemble in front of the postoffice at eight o'clock Friday morning with rakes, hoes and shovels to assist in this good work.

Charles F. Hagan, of Bristol, was a business visitor to the Gap Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Wallace is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Witt, at Arno, this week.

Miss Fannie Bass, of Stonega, spent Saturday afternoon in town visiting friends.

Superintendent W. A. Owens, of Roda, was here Saturday to see the ball game.

Hubert Potter, Ralph King and Fred Baker went to Toms Creek last Sunday and played with the team at that place against Dante. The score was 4 to 2 in favor of Dante. Baker pitched for Toms Creek and Smith was on the mound for Dante.

Mrs. W. E. Bickley, of Knoxville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. A. Alexander, at Imboden.

R. E. Gobbel, of the E. W. King Company, Bristol, was calling on the trade in the Gap the past week.

C. R. Pepper, of Norton, spent last Friday night in the Gap.

W. T. Morris, a well known traveling man of Lexington, Ky., spent several days in town this week.

Days S. Bowers was over from Bristol on business last Friday.

R. L. Coldiron, of Jonesville, J. S. Jessie and Ernest Hall, of Pennington Gap, came up Saturday to see the ball game.

Allen Carnes, who played third base on the local base ball club the first of the season and went to the Harriman, Tenn., team of the Appalachian League, spent a few hours in town Saturday visiting homefolks. He was accompanied by Lowe, an infielder of the same team, and they were enroute for Gary, W. Va., where they will play for the remainder of the season. Carnes made a successful debut in the Appalachian League and whailed the pill at a lively clip while there, but last week, for some reason or other, the league went out of business, which caused him to seek another place.

R. L. Kilgore has purchased a farm out 15 miles from Cincinnati on the car line and will move his family there about the 10th of July. The town will regret to give up Mr. and Mrs. Kilgore, as they have lived here practically all their lives. Bob will rent his residence on Main street to Dr. Hix who will move his family into it.—Wise Virginian.

Removal Sale!

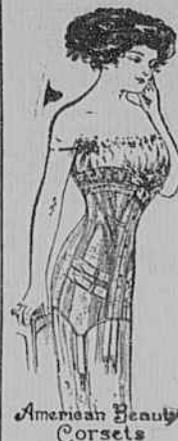

One-Third Off

Before moving into our new business house this fall we are going to close out our goods at one-third off from the regular price. Everything in our store will be reduced and this will be the greatest opportunity of a life time for you to get such great bargains.

Call and get some prices on our goods and you will be convinced of what we say.

W. W. Taylor & Sons

Big Stone Gap, Va.

American Beauty Corsets

We have a full line of this famous brand.

Prices this week 30c to $2.00.

Hats Below Cost

We still have a select line of Hats that must go regardless of cost.

J. P. Wolfe and Company

Successors to J. M. Willis & Co.

Big Stone Gap, Virginia

E. F. BURGESS

PHONE 63

COMPLETE LINE OF Groceries

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have opened up an up-to-date machine shop and auto garage at Big Stone Gap, Va., and are prepared to do all kinds of automobile and motorcycle repairing and general machine work. Our shop is equipped with the most modern machinery on the market.

In addition to our regular shop equipment, we have a modern Nickel Plating Plant with which we can plate any kind of metal. Let us nickel plate the brass fittings of your car, any make.

We make all kinds of casing and tube repairs. We also carry a full line of automobile and motorcycle supplies and accessories. Give us a trial. All work guaranteed.

Free air at our corner day or night.

Gasoline, Oils and Greases
Cars Stored

ATLAS MACHINE WORKS

BIG STONE GAP, VA.

Bargains in Low Shoes

AT

D. C. WOLFE'S

We have a line of low Shoes left yet which will be sold regardless of cost, and all other Summer Goods will be sold at a bargain.

Sailor Straw Hats
that others sell for $1.50. will be sold at 50c.

Buy your Stationery and Office Supplies from the Wise Printing Company.

When You Think of Drugs

Think of 123

During warm weather it is often inconvenient to go shopping. Make known your drug store wants to us by phone and we'll save you time and trouble of coming to our store in person.

OUR FREE DELIVERY SERVICE

is a part of our up-to-date business-getting system and we want our customers to make full use of it. Our goods are fresh and of superior quality. We want your drug business. Our drug store is at your door.

Just Phone—123

MUTUAL DRUG CO.

BIG STONE GAP, VA.