

Summary Of Work.

The State Highway Commission.

We note from some of the daily papers of the state that an attempt will be made by some of the members of the Legislature now in session at Richmond to reorganize the State Highway Commission. It seems that the sentiment all over the state is against the Commission. The people have ample grounds for complaint. We know in our own county how our bond money was wasted under the supervision of the State Highway Commission.

The voters of each County in the State elects a board of Supervisors to look after the financial interests of the county and why have a State Highway Commission at all. We are confident that if the Legislature would do away with Commission the people all over the state would be well pleased. Who is better qualified to supervise the construction of our roads than our county men elected by the people? Who is better qualified to survey and lay out these roads than our own county engineers? They know the local condition of our county and are men that will look after the welfare of the county. What does a set of men appointed to sit down at Richmond know or care about our county only to draw a big salary and send engineers from other parts of the state to gobble up our money. Do away with this Commission and let the Supervisors be responsible to the people for the money paid by the taxpayers. They elected by the people are and the people's servants. The people of Lee county are well aware of what the State Highway Commission cost the county when bond money was first voted. Outside of the Rose Hill District, what roads we have cost us three times what they should. It is time the people wake up and demand their rights.—Pennington Gap Sun.

Would Have All Women To Know.

Mrs. Kelly, of Louisville, Says Tanlac Is All That Helped Her.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Geo. Kelly, residing at 109 Harrison avenue, Louisville, made the following statement regarding Tanlac.

"I have been under the physician's care for eleven years. I suffered principally from indigestion and stomach trouble, with frequent nervous headaches and felt worn out all the time. I weighed many pounds lighter than usual when I began taking Tanlac. After using Tanlac three weeks, I now weigh several pounds more than I ever weighed. In fact, I have gained rapidly in every way in a comparatively short time.

"Tanlac is really the only thing that has actually helped me. I wish to recommend its use to every suffering woman."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, can be obtained in Big Stone Gap at the Mutual Drug Company, and at Norton at the Norton Drug Company.

Headache

Is one of the common symptoms of womanly trouble, and the cause has to be removed before you can rid yourself of it entirely. A medicine that merely kills pain, does not go to the seat of the trouble, and kill the cause. What you need is a woman's medicine—one which acts directly, yet gently, on the womanly organs.

Cardui

The Woman's Tonic

After having used Cardui, Miss Lillie Gibson, of Christman, Texas, writes: "About three years ago, I was just entering womanhood, and was sick in bed for nearly nine months. Sometimes I would have such headaches, and other aches, I could hardly stand it. I tried Cardui, and now I am cured of all my troubles. I shall praise Cardui as long as I live." Cardui is the medicine you need. Try it. E-69

U. D. C. Meeting.

Mrs. J. P. Wolfe was hostess to the ladies of the Big Stone Gap Chapter U. D. C., Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Pettit, president, presiding.

Reports from the different officers were given, and much business was disposed of. A letter was read from the managers of the "Veteran", requesting the daughters of the Confederacy to solicit subscriptions for this paper, also to contribute articles on Southern history. The president appointed Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Taylor to take charge of this and solicit subscriptions among the Daughters and Veterans.

After discussion it was decided for the Junior division to ad here to the original plan of erecting a monument to the "Faithful Slaves".

The secretary was instructed to order twenty copies of reference books, "Dixie Dates", for distribution among members.

At the conclusion of the business the following program was given: Hymn, "How Firm a Foundation", by H. Reading, "Emancipation Proclamation", Mrs. Skeen, Reading, "Marse Tom at Court", Mrs. Alexander, Reading, "Confederate Decoration Day", Mrs. W. T. Goodloe, Song, "Far Away", Mrs. Skeen and Mrs. Goodloe, Reading Poem, "Marse Robert is Asleep", Mrs. Beverly, Piano solos, Peter Wolfe. The last half hour was a social one, during which Mrs.

Wolfe, assisted by Miss Claribel Lockett and Miss Mary White, served a tempting salad course, followed by cream and cake. Mrs. Long invited the Chapter to meet with her in February. Roll call will be answered with a current event. Those present were: Mrs. James L. O. Pettit, C. C. Cochran, W. S. Beverly, George Bogard, Wade Barrier, H. A. W. Skeen, G. W. Walker, H. A. Alexander, S. A. Bailey, G. L. Taylor, J. L. McCormick, M. R. McCorkle, Irby Nickels, C. C. Long, W. T. Goodloe, E. E. Goodloe, Malcolm Smith, and Misses Irma Orr, Claribel Lockett, Janet Bailey and Mary Lou White.

MRS. MALCOLM SMITH, Secretary.

Death of I. T. Taylor.

Isaac T. Taylor, familiarly known as "Sonny", one of the Gap's oldest pioneer residents, died at his home here last Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. His death was due mostly to a general breakdown, being 81 years old and had been confined to his room for over a year previous to his death.

Mr. Taylor was a man of good christian character and never forgot the hospitable ways of the pioneer, always ready to help the needy in the hour of distress. He had filled the various relations of life, as son, husband, father, brother, friend, and filled them well. But he is gone. Another name is stricken from the ever lessening roll of old settlers.

He served four years in the civil war for the Confederate cause, being a member of the 64th Virginia regiment under the command of Colonel Stemp. He was captured at the historic town of Cumberland Gap and was imprisoned at Fort Douglas, Ill., for 18 months. Mr. Taylor was a native of Scott County, but moved his family here in the year 1883, where he spent the remainder of his life. He was a carpenter by trade, but owing to failing health, decided to go in the Hotel business, and for a number of years ran the old Duff House, which is known now as the Sturgill House.

The body, in company with a number of relatives and several members of the Masonic Lodge, of which the deceased was a member for over fifty years, was taken to Clinchport Thursday afternoon, and interred in the old Taylor cemetery where the deceased's father was buried June 27, 1849. A short funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. N. Wagner, pastor of the Southern Methodist Church at this place.

The deceased is survived by a wife, two sons and three daughters: W. W. and John M. Taylor, of this place; Mrs. W. S. Flannery, of Cooper, Texas; Mrs. M. J. Darnell, of Cadet, and Mrs. Mari Sloan, of East Stone Gap.

Grateful Mothers Tell Experiences

Mrs. T. Neurener, East Chicago, writes: "Foley's Honey and Catnip cured my boy of a severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. Our milkman's child of whom I have heard so much, recommends it to every one. It is a wonderful remedy for colds, croup, and whooping cough. My little Gibson, 4 years old, writes: 'My little brother had a cold and cough' almost constantly. I tried lots of other remedies, but she didn't get any better. My mother recommended Foley's Honey and Catnip to try. The first dose she gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat, and after only one bottle she was cured.'"

This sterling old remedy has been in use for years and is just as effective as ever. It gives relief for irritated and inflamed throat, tight and sore chest, and all bronchial troubles.

Sick people want to be well in a hurry.

MRS. W. J. WARD, Sparta, Tenn.— "I can honestly recommend your remedy to all sufferers from constipation and stomach troubles. Indigestion seems a thing of the past with me."
