One Year, $1.00 Six Months, .50 Three Months, .25

Entered according to postal regulations at the post office at Big Stone Gap as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIBERS are earnestly requested to observe the date printed on their address slips, which will keep them at all times posted as to the date of the expiration of their subscription. Prompt and timely attention to this request will save all parties a great deal of annoyance.

Why not plant an acre of potatoes and prepare to fare sumptuously every day.

One disadvantage of a potato currency is that so many hungry citizens withdraw it from circulation.

Indications point to the fact that the back yard will be about the most valuable part of the premises this year.

The fellow who is loudest in the contention that "charity begins at home" is usually the one who is most unwilling to make a beginning.

The town knocker, we note, never thinks of changing his place of residence as a cure for the ills of which he complains.

It is easy, you know, to recognize the intelligence and good judgment of those whose opinions agree with ours.

A Missouri editor refuses to publish obituaries of people who do not take the paper. His view is that people who do not take their home paper are dead anyway, and their passing has no news value.

No man is too old or too young to fight for his home and his rights in this country, and if the worst comes we can put twenty million men under arms—provided we can get the arms.

The secretary of agriculture says there is no food shortage. The secretary is a gentleman, but if he will examine the editorial harder he will learn that he is the gold-darnedest liar this side of purgatory. We couldn't tell a bigger one ourself.

A few days ago he was Czar of Russia, autocrat of all he surveyed. Now he is just plain Nicholas Romanoff, shaking in his boots for fear they will not leave him his worthless life. In time, perhaps, he may degenerate into "Old Nick," which, forsooth, might be quite as appropriate as any name he could bear.

The man who owns a vacant lot adjoining the one on which he lives and allows that lot to run to weeds is literally burning up money. If he is so eternally averse to gardening, he could easily keep a hundred or two laying hens thereon, and within a year or two retire with a million. But, then, only a cross-eyed man can see the end of his nose.

One by one our delusions are shattered. We used to hear the sage advice of the economist tell us to "eat dried apples for breakfast, drink water for dinner, and swell up for supper." But the impossibility of any economy in the menu can be seen when we remember that apples are five cents each. Economy! Fortunately the fellow who coined that word is dead, and has no means of knowing what a delusion it is today.

Furnace Going

The Big Stone Gap Iron furnace that started last week is now making four runs of iron every twenty-four hours and within a short time it will be running full capacity and making near 150 tons per day of as good iron as is made by any furnace in the country. Sunday being a beautiful day hundreds of people from town and surrounding community visited the furnace and watched the pig iron being made. This furnace has been idle for about ten years and it seems good to the older inhabitants to see it going again, and under the present able management it will, no doubt, stay in operation for a long time. It will be a great benefit to this entire section.

Senior Class Entertained.

Miss Nell VanGorder, E. C. Akers and Prof. A. J. Wolfe, the teachers in the High School, Department of the Public School, entertained very delightfully the members of the graduating class Saturday evening from eight to eleven thirty at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Wolfe with four tables of Progressive Rook.

At the close of the evening a delicious course was served consisting of chicken salad, tomato aspic, pickles, saltines, beaten biscuit and coffee.

Those present were: Misses Bruce Skeen, Pearl Jones, Ella Clawood, Dorothy Owens, Mary Baker, Bertha Mahaffey, Edith and Ethel VanGorder and Miss Nemo Vineyard. The boys were: Homer Chandler, Reginald Smith, Wilbur Eisenor and De Witt Wolfe.

Injunction Order, Endorsed on Back of Said Process.

Virginia: In the Circuit Court for Lee County, Virginia, the 16th day of March, 1917. In Vacation.

The Electric Transmission Company of Virginia, a corporation, organized and existing under the laws of the State of Virginia, Complainant.

The Pan American Bridge Company, a foreign corporation, et al., Defendants.

This day, March 16th, 1917, came the Electric Transmission Company of Virginia, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Virginia, by counsel, and moved the Judge to grant it an injunction against the Pan American Bridge Company, a foreign corporation, the grounds for which were fully shown and stated in a certain verified bill of complaint against the Pan American Bridge Company and other defendants, which the complainant expects to file against said defendants, and which was shown to the Judge and was argued by counsel for complainant.

Upon consideration whereof, it is ordered that the Pan American Bridge Company, and all of its agents, servants, employees and representatives, be enjoined, inhibited and restrained from removing any of the steel or other materials, property or equipment on the premises of the complainant, and mentioned in the said verified bill of complaint, from the premises of complainant, and that the Pan American Bridge Company, its agents, servants, employees and representatives, be enjoined, inhibited and restrained from further removing said property and that the said Bridge Company, its agents, servants, employees and representatives, be and they are hereby enjoined, inhibited and restrained from removing said steel or other property, or any part thereof, from the State of Virginia.

But this injunction shall stand dissolved on Wednesday, the 28th day of May, 1917 at 12 o'clock Noon, unless previously dissolved, enlarged or extended. But this injunction shall not become effective until the complainant or some one for it, shall execute a bond before the Clerk of this Court, with security, to be approved by the Clerk, in the penalty of $10,000.00, conditioned according to law.

Men Wanted For National Guard Company H of the 2nd Regiment Virginia Infantry, Commanded by Capt. J. F. Bullitt To Be Recruited Up To War Strength

Big Stone Gap, Va., March 27th, 1917.

MEN OF SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA:

I have been commanded to mobilize and immediately recruit the Company up to War Strength, and although I feel it is only necessary to give publicity to this fact to insure a satisfactory response from our people, yet in order to accomplish this end in the shortest possible time, I have arranged for a

GRAND RECRUITING RALLY At Big Stone Gap

ON Saturday, March 31st, 1917 Commencing at 3:30 P. M.

There will be Music by the Big Stone Gap and Appalachia Band, Parade by the present members of Company H, Patriotic Speeches and Songs, Refreshments given and served by the ladies.

In the meantime, the Recruiting Office will be open at all times. Apply at the Armory or my office.

Virginia has ever been foremost in giving her sons to the defense of our country, and especially is this true of Southwest Virginia. The present crisis is fraught with the greatest menace to our Freedom and Institutions in the history of our country.

YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS YOU. COME, AND SEE, AND HEAR.

Bridge Party Complimentary to Mrs. J. W. Newman.

Miss Jule Bullitt was the hostess of a lovely Bridge Party at her home on Poplar Hill last Thursday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. John W. Newman (nee Miss Janie Slem), of Versailles, Ky.

Four small card tables were arranged in the reception rooms at which auction Bridge was played very enthusiastically during the afternoon, in which Mrs. J. B. Ayers made the highest score and won first prize, a pair of silk hose and Mrs. Helen Foster the consolation, a bottle of toilet water.

At the close of the afternoon Miss Bullitt served a delicious two course luncheon to her guests who were: Mrs. J. W. Newman, of Versailles, Ky., Mrs. J. K. Taggart, of Keokee, Mrs. C. F. Blanton, Mrs. E. J. Prescott and Miss Ruth Prescott, Mrs. R. E. Taggart, Mrs. J. W. Chalkley, Mrs. B. E. Rhoads and daughter, Miss Caroline Rhoads, Mrs. M. E. Taggart, Mrs. Helen Foster, Mrs. C. C. Cochran, Mrs. H. E. Fox, Mrs. J. B. Ayers, Mrs. W. G. Painter and Mrs. W. R. Peck.

In the good old days to call a man a "cabbage head" was to invite an immediate scrap. Now you win his undying gratitude.
