

When In Norton, Va.

GET YOUR MEALS AT THE LIBERTY CAFE

Open Day and Night

TALC
Jonteel
25¢

A WOMAN has to breathe the fragrance of Jonteel, the New Odor of twenty-six flowers, only once to know it is a perfume that is rare and expensive.

You expect its price to be forbiddingly high. But you are astonished and delighted to find that Talc Jonteel sells at a price no higher than that of ordinary powders. Try it today.

KELLY DRUG COMPANY
BIG STONE GAP, VA.

LOCAL ITEMS

The Lloyd Guild will meet with Mrs. Karl Stoehr Thursday afternoon at 3:30.

Attorney George L. Taylor is attending court at Wise this week, prosecuting young Thorp, who killed his school mate in Appalachia a few months ago.

The U. D. C. will meet today (Wednesday) with Mrs. J. W. Rush. All members are urged to attend as there will be an election of officers for next year.

Walter Stuart, of Abingdon, spent a few days in the Gap this week with his brother, Major W. A. Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. C. Mpothor and sons, of Louisville, spent a few days in the Gap last week, guests at the Monte Vista Hotel.

Hon. R. P. Bruce, of Wise, was in town Friday a few hours on business. Miss Ethel Van Gorder, who has a position at Kingsport, Tenn., spent the week-end in the Gap with her parents.

J. F. Hanson, of Hansonville, was visitor in the Gap Friday.

Mrs. Mary Shunk, of Buchanan, W. Va., arrived in the Gap last Tuesday night where she will spend several days visiting her son, Mr. W. C. Shunk, and friends.

Miss Lucille Gilly, of Norton, spent a few days in the Gap this week visiting her cousin, Miss Mary Kilbourne.

Bob Comerford spent the week-end in Bristol with friends.

Edward Goodloe spent the week-end in Bristol.

ROOMS WANTED.—Three furnished rooms in private family for light house-keeping. Apply to J. E. Jones, Minor Building.—Adv.

The devotional meeting of Circle No. 2 will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jas. R. Taylor.

Miss Smith, of Detroit, is spending several days in the Gap the guest of her niece, Mrs. W. J. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sexton, of Pittsburg, Pa., who are visiting Capt. and Mrs. Henry Taylor in the Gap are spending a few days this week in Abingdon where Mrs. Sexton is taking treatment in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Drinkard returned to their home in Lynchburg Saturday in their car after spending several days in the Gap with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest King and two attractive children, who have been living in the Gap for several months, left last week for Roanoke, where they will make their future home. Mr. King having resigned his position as traveling salesman for Hoins Pickle Company, to accept a similar one with the Premier Company, making Roanoke his headquarters.

Mrs. W. G. Hopkins, of Richmond, arrived in the Gap last Friday, where she will spend a few weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cochran.

Mrs. A. L. Holton returned Saturday from a motoring trip to Knoxville with friends from Middlesboro.

Miss Nita and Margaret Taylor are visiting relatives at Clinchport this week.

Miss Dorothy Campbell, who spent several weeks in the Gap the guest of Miss Henrietta Skeen, returned to her home in Middlesboro on Friday night.

Miss Anita Goodloe left Monday morning for Graham where she will be the guest of Miss Mary Martha Davenport for several days.

Miss Beth Shugart has returned to her home in the Gap after a month's visit to relatives and friends in Tennessee.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, will meet at the home of Mrs. Lindsey Horton Thursday 3 p. m.

Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. R. Gordon, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Misses Sarah Mouser and Eleanor Curtain, of Bristol, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Otis Mouser, and will be later joined by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mouser.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Mouser spent a few days last week in Louisville shopping and visiting relatives and friends.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy wish to thank all those who in any way aided in making the "Community Tack Party" a success.

We especially appreciate the fact that the community in general aided thereby making it a social as well as financial success.—Mrs. Malcolm Smith, directress.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peak and daughter, of Benton, Texas, are guests of Mrs. Retta P. Morgan and mother.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Peebles, who recently moved here from West Virginia, went to housekeeping this week in one of the cottages belonging to the Land Company on Poplar Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Reece and non and daughters, of Dorchester, were in the Gap Sunday afternoon.

FOR RENT.—Single or light housekeeping rooms. Apply to Mrs. J. H. Wren.—adv.

Miss Louise Moore left Sunday night for her home in Middlesboro after spending several weeks in the Gap, the guest of Miss Henrietta Skeen.

Mrs. J. H. Shuff and daughter, Miss Ramie, have returned to their home in Pulaski, after spending a week in the Gap the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wren.

Mrs. R. M. Amos and son, Nathaniel, of Cronona, Ky., spent a few days last week in the Gap visiting her brother, J. E. Body. Her mother, Mrs. James Body, accompanied her home after having spent the past two months in the Gap visiting her son.

Mrs. J. E. Body went to Norton last week where she had an operation performed for nose trouble, which has proven very successful.

Contractor J. M. Lewis broke dirt Monday morning for the erection of a fine residence on Poplar Hill for Prof. H. L. Sulfridge by the side of the O. F. Kilbourne residence that is now under construction and will probably be furnished within three weeks. Mr. Sulfridge's residence will be constructed with tile and brick and will be modern in every respect.

Mr. and Mrs. Worley Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. Strale Tate, of East Stone Gap, attended the Tack Party at the Armory Saturday night.

Miss Bodley, of Louisville, is the attractive guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Stuart, this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Irvine on Poplar Hill.

Mrs. C. E. Burchfield and daughter, Miss Ho, of Bristol, passed through the Gap Saturday on their way to St. Charles, where they are spending several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Creed Kelly.

Miss Juliet Knight and attractive guest, Miss Myra New, of New York, are visiting friends in Bristol and Emory this week. Miss New, who has been the house guest of Miss Knight for several weeks, will leave the latter part of the week for her home in New York.

Master Leonard Bascom and Miss Vergie Garrison are visiting their grandparents, Mrs. H. L. Stant, at Kingsport, Tenn.

OUR BIG CLOSING OUT SALE!

is still going on

We cannot get all of our orders cancelled for goods we had bought for Fall. These goods will be put on sale at the same sacrifice prices as fast as they arrive.

Come and get your share of these Big Bargains

W. E. WAMPER & COMPANY
BIG STONE GAP, VA.

B. F. Spivey spent Sunday with homefolks at Clinchport.

John Ray moved his family last week into the residence on Wood Avenue adjoining E. F. Burgess recently vacated by Harold Ramsey and family.

Mrs. J. B. Wampler and daughter, Sue, returned last Thursday night from a visit to relatives in Gate City.

BAKER-BULLION

Monday afternoon at Imboden Mr. W. F. Baker and Miss Hattie Bullion were united in the bonds of holy union, the pastor officiating. Immediately after the ceremony a bounteous nuptial feast was served at the home of Mr. A. L. Christian. Many friends of new groom express their congratulations, and wish for the bride increasing joy in her new home.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The regular session of the Bible School will be held at 9:45. Those not in Sunday School elsewhere are invited to meet with us.

Lords supper and preaching at 8 o'clock p. m. Sermon subject will be "The Assurance of Pardon."

INJURED AT BLUE HOLE

Straley Tate, of East Stone Gap, mining engineer for the Stonega Coke and Coal Company, was painfully injured while swimming in the Blue Hole Sunday afternoon when his left hand came in contact with a sharp instrument of some kind, probably a piece of glass, and cut an ugly gash at the base of the thumb which necessitated the taking of several stitches by a physician. Straley was preparing to take a fishing trip Monday as his vacation period began then, but he will now have to postpone it several days.

In the future my Holstein Bull will serve cows for a fee of $2.50 CASH ONLY.—Clint Morrison.—adv.29-1f.

Do You Hate to Break in a New Pair of Shoes?

You would not need to break in so many pairs of shoes if you would send your old comfortable ones to me for repairing.

I REPAIR YOUR SHOES IN FEW MINUTES

and when you get them back you will see that they retain their old style and comfort.

MY SHOP CONTAINS ALL THE LATEST AND MOST MODERN EQUIPMENT

for the repairing of shoes and Harness in a first class manner. Send those worn shoes to me at once and you will be able to get many months more service from them.

A. G. CARTER'S SHOE SHOP
OPPOSITE KELLY'S DRUG STORE

32-35

SOUTH-WEST INSURANCE AGENCY

Incorporated
FIRE, LIFE, ACCIDENT and CASUALTY INSURANCE
Fidelity and Other Bonds
Real Estate and Commission Brokers
BIG STONE GAP, VA.

Mrs. Katie B. Lindsey, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Laura Bickley, at her home in the Gap for several weeks, left Saturday afternoon for Scott county, where she will visit relatives a few days before returning to her home in Knoxville.

Miss Frances Long spent the week-end with friends and relatives at Abingdon and Emory.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolton H. Salyers and son, Ralph, who spent the winter in the Gap, are now very pleasantly located at Benhams, Ky. Mr. Salyers having accepted a position with the Wisconsin Steel Company, as store manager, at that place.

Miss Corrie Long, of the Abingdon Hospital, spent the week-end in the Gap with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Long.

Amuzu Theatre

Thursday - Tomorrow

Cecil B. DeMille's Masterpiece

"Forbidden Fruit"

A tremendous drama of love and matrimony. Beautifully staged and acted by an all-star cast including

Agnes Ayers Kathlyn Williams
Theodore Roberts Theodore Kosloff