

JUST A MOMENT, PLEASE.

We wish to say to the people of Roanoke and vicinity that our entire stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Cloaks, etc., must be closed out by December 15, and to do this we are now selling regardless of cost.

Bargains in Dress Goods,

Bargains in cloaks, bargains in staple goods, and in fact everything we have at the prices at which we are now selling is a bargain.

IN DRESS GOODS

We still have nearly everything desired. All wool silk wraps, 38-inch Henriettas sold for $1, at 80 cts; all wool silk finish, 46-inch Henriettas, sold for $1, at 80 cts; all wool 46-inch Henrietta, sold for 85 cts. now 62 1/2 cts.

IN CLOAKS

We have a full line of plush wraps, modjaskas, new markets and jackets, and we can save you the profits other houses are making.

IN STAPLE GOODS

WE HAVE

Fruit of the loom, bleach, 8 1/2 cts. Lonsdale, bleach, 8 1/2 cts. Lonsdale, cambric, 1 1/2 cts. Water-utia, bleach, 11 cts. New York mills, 11 cts. Pride of the west, bleach, 12 1/2 cts. Morpocket, 4-4 brown cotton, 6 1/2 cts. Dundee, 4-4 brown cotton, 6 cts. Mohawk valley, 10-4 bleached sheeting for 24 cts, worth 30 cts. Utica, 10-4 bleached sheeting for 27 cts, worth 35 cts. Pepperal, 10-4 bleached sheeting, 22 1/2 cts. Clark's O. N. T. spool cotton, 4 cts. per spool, 43 cts. per dozen.

WM. F. BAKER & CO. 134 Salem Avenue.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT!

And all the People are talking about it.

SALEM AVENUE,

MOOMAW BLOCK,

Yes, it is true. You can buy your goods at

COST FOR CASH

—AT—

GEORGE H. DAVIS & CO.

GROCERIES

We wish to sell all that we can before

DECEMBER - 26TH,

On which day we will positively close and ship all goods unsold to Petersburg. So do not fail to

COME AT ONCE

And get the greatest

BARGAINS

Ever offered in Roanoke at

GEO. H. DAVIS & CO.,

44 Salem Avenue.

FIRST BREAK OF THE SEASON!

WE have a line of Ladies' NEW-MARKETS and JACKETS that we are offering at greatly reduced prices:

Table with 3 columns: Former Prices, Now, and Lot descriptions (e.g., Lot Newmarkets, Lot Jackets).

JUST RECEIVED

A new lot Children's and Misses' long Cloaks and Jackets, ranging from 4 to 16 years.

Holiday Presents!

Full assortment Silk Handkerchiefs, Silk Mullers, Fancy and Plain White Linen Handkerchiefs.

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S SILK UMBRELLAS.

Blankets, Comforts and Counterpanes, Lace Curtains and Poles.

A WORD FROM OUR

Millinery Department.

We have just replenished our stock of Wool and Fur Felt Hats and Turbines, Birds, Featherers, Plush and Silk Velvets, in all colors.

ROSENBAUM BROS.

42 Salem Avenue.

C. MARKLEV'S

Cheekered Front Grocery

—ON—

SALEM AVENUE,

MOOMAW BLOCK,

Is well supplied with a full fresh and varied stock of fancy and select

Fruit in Season.

And all kinds of

FRESH OYSTERS,

DRESSED FOWLS

CELERY - ALSO.

A SETTLEMENT.

TRIAL OF THE CARR-HOCKADAY CASE.

A LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

Testimony of Several Witnesses. The case against the Mayor dismissed and Mr. Hockaday fined two dollars.

Rorer Hall was well filled yesterday evening with deeply interested spectators who had assembled there to witness the trial of Mayor William Carr and Mr. J. R. Hockaday for fighting on the street.

The first case called is that of the city against Mayor Carr and the first witness sworn was Mr. Vest. He said he was present when the difficulty between Mayor Carr and Mr. Hockaday occurred. Mr. Hockaday met the mayor with a letter in his hand, and said the letter was an insult.

Mr. Carr, being sworn, testified as follows: "I did not see the blow. I saw them fall. Somebody pulled Mr. Hockaday off the mayor. Mr. Hockaday reached down for a letter, and asked Mayor Carr if he still intended the letter for an insult. Heard Mayor Carr say that he did."

Mr. F. H. S. Morrison, sworn: "Last Thursday or Friday I went to Mr. Hockaday's office and said to him: 'There's a piece of property on Randolph street occupied by Adaline Preston, who tells me she rents it from you as agent for one White. Mr. Hockaday said she was making a deal with Edwin White, but Adaline Preston was negotiating for a sale.' He left me with the impression that she was renting from him as agent. He looked at his books and said, 'Yes, yes.' Adaline Preston told me she rented from Mr. Hockaday, as agent, but was negotiating for a sale. Under the law owners of property and agents could be prosecuted for knowingly renting houses for purposes of prostitution. I wrote the notice for Mayor Carr in order to notify owners and agents."

Mr. Hockaday, recalled: "My recollection is that Mr. Morrison came in and asked the name of the owner of the property, and I gave him the owner's name. He asked me if this woman was renting from me and I told him no; that she contracted to purchase the day she moved in."

Mr. Hockaday was fined $2 and costs.

HONORING THE DEAD.

Citizens of Roanoke Pass Resolutions on the Death of Jefferson Davis.

A public meeting of citizens was held at the opera house last night to pass resolutions of respect to the memory of Hon. Jefferson Davis, ex-president of the Confederate States.

Captain S. S. Brooke was called to the chair and P. Lockett, esq., was elected secretary.

Addresses eulogistic of the dead statesman were delivered by Colonel John E. Penn, Judge H. L. Parrish and Messrs. A. A. Phlegar, W. W. Berkeley, J. Allen Watts, Thomas W. Miller and P. Lockett.

Messrs. J. Allen Watts, J. E. Penn, R. B. Smith, L. H. Cocke, N. T. Foard and Thomas W. Miller were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions and resolutions were passed, which were read by Jefferson Davis, late president of the confederate states, a distinguished soldier of the Mexican war, former senator of the United States and secretary of war of the United States, whose noble bearing in adversity, have and will continue to reflect imperishable lustre on the name of America. Therefore be it

Resolved, That as a soldier, a statesman and a patriot, Jefferson Davis will always hold an eminent position where bravery is honored and patriotism held in respect.

Resolved, That the family of Mr. Davis has the respectful sympathy of this meeting.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be engrossed and sent to the family of Mr. Davis.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the papers of this city for publication.

ANDERSON-PATTIE.

The Marriage of a Popular Roanoke Gentleman.

Greene Memorial church was filled to overflowing yesterday afternoon with a deeply interested audience, which assembled there to witness the marriage of Mr. Robert J. Anderson and Miss Annie Pattie. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and Miss Emma Engley furnished beautiful music on the organ. The marriage ceremony was performed at 4:30 o'clock by Rev. J. H. Boyd and was deeply impressive.

The bride was dressed in a plumed and carried in her hand an exquisite bouquet of Marchal Neil roses and white hyacinths.

The ushers were Messrs. John Chalmers, Ernest Haines, Thomas Coffey and T. G. Anderson, a brother of the groom from Warrenton, Virginia. The bride is the handsome and accomplished daughter of William A. Pattie, esq. of the Third ward, and the groom is assistant chief clerk in the office of the Norfolk and Western Railroad company. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents. Immediately after the ceremony they left for the Union depot, where they took the west bound Norfolk and Western passenger train for Texas and other Southern states, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends.

Has Arrived. I have with me Mr. H. L. Cason, who is an expert in his profession as a practical optician, and as he cannot remain longer than Tuesday, December 17th, I advise those who have defective vision to call at once and secure a perfect fit in a pair of A. K. Hawkes' celebrated spectacles. This gentleman will fit glasses at the regular retail price at which they are sold from my store every day. I guarantee satisfaction. No extra charge for fitting. dec 12-47 CHAS. LYLE & CO.

A Washington dentist advertised in yesterday's Post that he will pay $100 for the front tooth of a healthy young white man.

SALEM'S BOOM.

A LARGE CROWD ATTEND YESTERDAY'S SALE.

OVER TWO HUNDRED LOTS SOLD.

Amounting in Value to Nearly One Hundred Thousand Dollars. How to Purchase Real Estate in Salem.

If the matured man who attended Roanoke college five or ten years ago and then went west could have returned to Salem yesterday, he would have found a state of activity altogether different from anything he ever knew during his walks and visits and studies there. He would have found Main street, formerly quiet, crowded with people and vehicles, and seen tens of thousands of dollars paid for land which, at one time, could have been bought by the acre instead of by the foot. The occasion was the opening sale of the lots of the Salem Improvement company, and the day will always be remembered as the turning point in the town's history, and the beginning of the development which is to make Salem an industrial city, just as Roanoke and Knoxville and Chattanooga and Birmingham and Aniston have been made cities.

The day was almost an ideal one. The sun shone bright from a clear, blue sky, and the breeze which makes this section such a delightful place for summer residences, blew strong from the northwest. The sale proper did not begin until 12 o'clock, but people began arriving by scores several hours earlier.

Dr. E. A. Parsons, of the real estate firm of Nelson & Parsons, brought a party from Roanoke. They occupied ten carriages and included many prominent citizens.

Main street presented an unusually active scene during the morning. Horses carrying people to look at different lots were driven hither and thither. The streets were filled with vehicles, and the sidewalks with people. The real estate offices and corridors of the Duval house were the principal centres of activity. Every office was equipped with large blue maps, and buyers and sellers were busy till noon selecting and marking their lots.

At 12 o'clock the crowd proceeded to the town hall, on College street, where the lots, upon which more than one bid had been made, were sold at auction. For the next two hours the scene there was so lively that a prominent lawyer remarked that it reminded him of the New York stock exchange.

Mr. J. W. F. Allemong, president of the company, and Colonel R. H. Logan called off the lots that had already been taken and those that were to be sold under the hammer.

Mr. Hitt blocked a small mallet in action, holding a small mallet in action, brand crying the lots and knocking them off to the highest bidder. Colonel R. H. Logan assisted him and the bidding was unusually lively. There were no pauses, and everything went with a rush. The lots sold and the prices paid follow:

Section 1—Lot 5. A. M. Bowman, $295; 6. A. M. Bowman, $203; 7. A. M. Bowman, $201; 8. C. C. Rowe, $205; 9. Edward Jeter, $201; 10. Edward Jeter, $206; 15. A. M. Bowman, $260; 16. R. B. Jones & Co., $445; 29. John H. Garst, $400; 30. William McClellan, $405; 31. G. J. Ligon, $420; 32. R. H. Ligon, $510.

Section 2—Lot 5. Frier, Webber & Dent, $217; 8. J. P. Dent, $201; 14. Armstrong & Critz, $210; 15. R. B. Jones & Co., $255; 16. R. B. Jones & Co., $305; 21. A. M. Bowman, $355; 22. A. M. Bowman, $365.

Section 4—Lot 31. R. H. Ligon, $425; 16. J. N. Strickler, $351; 32. A. M. Bowman, $520.

Section 5—Lot 31. Edward Jeter, $470; 32. R. H. Ligon, $555.

Section 6—Lot 15. W. F. Mathews, $211; 16. M. P. Frantz, $340.

Section 12—Lot 16. M. P. Frantz, $490.

Section 13—Lot 15. Edward Jeter, $405; 16. M. P. Frantz, $505; 21. Robert Logan, $552; 22. A. M. Bowman, $555; 23. C. M. Webber, $568; 24. F. K. Clements, $602; 25. William McClellan, $627.

Section 14—Lot 31. G. J. Ligon, $692; 32. G. J. Ligon, $681.

Section 15—Lot 16. Elizabeth Campbell, $454; 29. Chas. Dent, $70.

Section 16—Lot 20. Ed. Jeter, $621.

Section 19—Lot 2 and 3. Armstrong & Critz, $423; 12. Ed. Jeter, $505; 28. Ed. Jeter, $505.

Section 20—Lot 16—R. B. Jones, $70.

Section 49—Lot 13. C. B. Strouse, $510.

Section 52—Lot 7. R. H. Logan, $550.

The sale continued privately during the afternoon, and the Land Improvement company was kept busy till night recording purchases. At 9 o'clock in the evening 235 lots had been sold, aggregating $96,000 in value.

Among some of the people who attended the sale were F. W. Spindle, J. P. Sand, Christiansburg; J. J. Turner, Lewis Kirkwood and R. J. Ferguson, Haran, Va.; A. M. Bowman, Saltville, Va.; Samuel Griffin, Liberty, Va.; W. G. Repass, Wytheville, Va.; C. J. Murray, C. J. Clements, Petersburg, Va.; George W. Fagg, White Sulphur Springs, Va.; G. R. Piermont, Berlin, Conn.; A. W. Plecker and W. L. Caldwell, Lynchburg; Col. F. E. Frier, Winston, N. C.; James H. McConnell, C. O'Leary, J. S. Simmons, Frank Kemp, C. M. Thomas, W. C. Williams, Col. John E. Penn, Judge S. G. Williams, Luther Miller, D. C. Moomaw, R. W. McClelland, Olin Beall, W. H. Horton, Dr. R. J. Simmons, Archie L. Payne, J. R. Cunningham, of Roanoke; Col. John D. Carey, of Richmond; James Logan and J. E. Leps, of West Virginia.

Colonel A. M. Bowman, partner of George W. Palmer, of Saltville, purchased thirty-five lots for himself and friends. He intends to remove to Salem, and will begin the erection of a three-story building on College

SALEM'S BOOM.

A LARGE CROWD ATTEND YESTERDAY'S SALE.

OVER TWO HUNDRED LOTS SOLD.

Amounting in Value to Nearly One Hundred Thousand Dollars. How to Purchase Real Estate in Salem.

If the matured man who attended Roanoke college five or ten years ago and then went west could have returned to Salem yesterday, he would have found a state of activity altogether different from anything he ever knew during his walks and visits and studies there. He would have found Main street, formerly quiet, crowded with people and vehicles, and seen tens of thousands of dollars paid for land which, at one time, could have been bought by the acre instead of by the foot. The occasion was the opening sale of the lots of the Salem Improvement company, and the day will always be remembered as the turning point in the town's history, and the beginning of the development which is to make Salem an industrial city, just as Roanoke and Knoxville and Chattanooga and Birmingham and Aniston have been made cities.

The day was almost an ideal one. The sun shone bright from a clear, blue sky, and the breeze which makes this section such a delightful place for summer residences, blew strong from the northwest. The sale proper did not begin until 12 o'clock, but people began arriving by scores several hours earlier.

Dr. E. A. Parsons, of the real estate firm of Nelson & Parsons, brought a party from Roanoke. They occupied ten carriages and included many prominent citizens.

Main street presented an unusually active scene during the morning. Horses carrying people to look at different lots were driven hither and thither. The streets were filled with vehicles, and the sidewalks with people. The real estate offices and corridors of the Duval house were the principal centres of activity. Every office was equipped with large blue maps, and buyers and sellers were busy till noon selecting and marking their lots.

At 12 o'clock the crowd proceeded to the town hall, on College street, where the lots, upon which more than one bid had been made, were sold at auction. For the next two hours the scene there was so lively that a prominent lawyer remarked that it reminded him of the New York stock exchange.

Mr. J. W. F. Allemong, president of the company, and Colonel R. H. Logan called off the lots that had already been taken and those that were to be sold under the hammer.

Mr. Hitt blocked a small mallet in action, holding a small mallet in action, brand crying the lots and knocking them off to the highest bidder. Colonel R. H. Logan assisted him and the bidding was unusually lively. There were no pauses, and everything went with a rush. The lots sold and the prices paid follow:

Section 1—Lot 5. A. M. Bowman, $295; 6. A. M. Bowman, $203; 7. A. M. Bowman, $201; 8. C. C. Rowe, $205; 9. Edward Jeter, $201; 10. Edward Jeter, $206; 15. A. M. Bowman, $260; 16. R. B. Jones & Co., $445; 29. John H. Garst, $400; 30. William McClellan, $405; 31. G. J. Ligon, $420; 32. R. H. Ligon, $510.

Section 2—Lot 5. Frier, Webber & Dent, $217; 8. J. P. Dent, $201; 14. Armstrong & Critz, $210; 15. R. B. Jones & Co., $255; 16. R. B. Jones & Co., $305; 21. A. M. Bowman, $355; 22. A. M. Bowman, $365.

Section 4—Lot 31. R. H. Ligon, $425; 16. J. N. Strickler, $351; 32. A. M. Bowman, $520.

Section 5—Lot 31. Edward Jeter, $470; 32. R. H. Ligon, $555.

Section 6—Lot 15. W. F. Mathews, $211; 16. M. P. Frantz, $340.

Section 12—Lot 16. M. P. Frantz, $490.

Section 13—Lot 15. Edward Jeter, $405; 16. M. P. Frantz, $505; 21. Robert Logan, $552; 22. A. M. Bowman, $555; 23. C. M. Webber, $568; 24. F. K. Clements, $602; 25. William McClellan, $627.

Section 14—Lot 31. G. J. Ligon, $692; 32. G. J. Ligon, $681.

Section 15—Lot 16. Elizabeth Campbell, $454; 29. Chas. Dent, $70.

Section 16—Lot 20. Ed. Jeter, $621.

Section 19—Lot 2 and 3. Armstrong & Critz, $423; 12. Ed. Jeter, $505; 28. Ed. Jeter, $505.

Section 20—Lot 16—R. B. Jones, $70.

Section 49—Lot 13. C. B. Strouse, $510.

Section 52—Lot 7. R. H. Logan, $550.

The sale continued privately during the afternoon, and the Land Improvement company was kept busy till night recording purchases. At 9 o'clock in the evening 235 lots had been sold, aggregating $96,000 in value.

Among some of the people who attended the sale were F. W. Spindle, J. P. Sand, Christiansburg; J. J. Turner, Lewis Kirkwood and R. J. Ferguson, Haran, Va.; A. M. Bowman, Saltville, Va.; Samuel Griffin, Liberty, Va.; W. G. Repass, Wytheville, Va.; C. J. Murray, C. J. Clements, Petersburg, Va.; George W. Fagg, White Sulphur Springs, Va.; G. R. Piermont, Berlin, Conn.; A. W. Plecker and W. L. Caldwell, Lynchburg; Col. F. E. Frier, Winston, N. C.; James H. McConnell, C. O'Leary, J. S. Simmons, Frank Kemp, C. M. Thomas, W. C. Williams, Col. John E. Penn, Judge S. G. Williams, Luther Miller, D. C. Moomaw, R. W. McClelland, Olin Beall, W. H. Horton, Dr. R. J. Simmons, Archie L. Payne, J. R. Cunningham, of Roanoke; Col. John D. Carey, of Richmond; James Logan and J. E. Leps, of West Virginia.

Colonel A. M. Bowman, partner of George W. Palmer, of Saltville, purchased thirty-five lots for himself and friends. He intends to remove to Salem, and will begin the erection of a three-story building on College

SALEM'S BOOM.

A LARGE CROWD ATTEND YESTERDAY'S SALE.

OVER TWO HUNDRED LOTS SOLD.

Amounting in Value to Nearly One Hundred Thousand Dollars. How to Purchase Real Estate in Salem.

If the matured man who attended Roanoke college five or ten years ago and then went west could have returned to Salem yesterday, he would have found a state of activity altogether different from anything he ever knew during his walks and visits and studies there. He would have found Main street, formerly quiet, crowded with people and vehicles, and seen tens of thousands of dollars paid for land which, at one time, could have been bought by the acre instead of by the foot. The occasion was the opening sale of the lots of the Salem Improvement company, and the day will always be remembered as the turning point in the town's history, and the beginning of the development which is to make Salem an industrial city, just as Roanoke and Knoxville and Chattanooga and Birmingham and Aniston have been made cities.

The day was almost an ideal one. The sun shone bright from a clear, blue sky, and the breeze which makes this section such a delightful place for summer residences, blew strong from the northwest. The sale proper did not begin until 12 o'clock, but people began arriving by scores several hours earlier.

Dr. E. A. Parsons, of the real estate firm of Nelson & Parsons, brought a party from Roanoke. They occupied ten carriages and included many prominent citizens.

Main street presented an unusually active scene during the morning. Horses carrying people to look at different lots were driven hither and thither. The streets were filled with vehicles, and the sidewalks with people. The real estate offices and corridors of the Duval house were the principal centres of activity. Every office was equipped with large blue maps, and buyers and sellers were busy till noon selecting and marking their lots.

At 12 o'clock the crowd proceeded to the town hall, on College street, where the lots, upon which more than one bid had been made, were sold at auction. For the next two hours the scene there was so lively that a prominent lawyer remarked that it reminded him of the New York stock exchange.

Mr. J. W. F. Allemong, president of the company, and Colonel R. H. Logan called off the lots that had already been taken and those that were to be sold under the hammer.

Mr. Hitt blocked a small mallet in action, holding a small mallet in action, brand crying the lots and knocking them off to the highest bidder. Colonel R. H. Logan assisted him and the bidding was unusually lively. There were no pauses, and everything went with a rush. The lots sold and the prices paid follow:

Section 1—Lot 5. A. M. Bowman, $295; 6. A. M. Bowman, $203; 7. A. M. Bowman, $201; 8. C. C. Rowe, $205; 9. Edward Jeter, $201; 10. Edward Jeter, $206; 15. A. M. Bowman, $260; 16. R. B. Jones & Co., $445; 29. John H. Garst, $400; 30. William McClellan, $405; 31. G. J. Ligon, $420; 32. R. H. Ligon, $510.

Section 2—Lot 5. Frier, Webber & Dent, $217; 8. J. P. Dent, $201; 14. Armstrong & Critz, $210; 15. R. B. Jones & Co., $255; 16. R. B. Jones & Co., $305; 21. A. M. Bowman, $355; 22. A. M. Bowman, $365.

Section 4—Lot 31. R. H. Ligon, $425; 16. J. N. Strickler, $351; 32. A. M. Bowman, $520.

Section 5—Lot 31. Edward Jeter, $470; 32. R. H. Ligon, $555.

Section 6—Lot 15. W. F. Mathews, $211; 16. M. P. Frantz, $340.

Section 12—Lot 16. M. P. Frantz, $490.

Section 13—Lot 15. Edward Jeter, $405; 16. M. P. Frantz, $505; 21. Robert Logan, $552; 22. A. M. Bowman, $555; 23. C. M. Webber, $568; 24. F. K. Clements, $602; 25. William McClellan, $627.

Section 14—Lot 31. G. J. Ligon, $692; 32. G. J. Ligon, $681.

Section 15—Lot 16. Elizabeth Campbell, $454; 29. Chas. Dent, $70.

Section 16—Lot 20. Ed. Jeter, $621.

Section 19—Lot 2 and 3. Armstrong & Critz, $423; 12. Ed. Jeter, $505; 28. Ed. Jeter, $505.

Section 20—Lot 16—R. B. Jones, $70.

Section 49