ALL AROUND US. PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS PUT PLAINLY.

THE DAY'S GOSSIP IN BRIEF. A Shoe Factory on Foot. New Lutheran Church at Vinton. Resignation of Mr. Geo. C. McCahan.

Judge Vaughan, of Carnegie City, was in the city yesterday.

R. G. James, esq., of Fincaiste, a young attorney of the Botetourt bar, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. B. W. Barksdale, chief clerk of the Relay House at Lynchburg, was in the city yesterday.

General Manager Joseph H. Sande, of the Norfolk and Western railroad company, is in Philadelphia on official business.

Messrs. J. C. Fewell and R. D. Flynn, proprietors of the Flynn Wagon Manufacturing company, are at the City Hotel.

Mr. E. Purcell, of White Post, a lawyer of the Ohio extension of the Norfolk and Western railroad, is registered at Hotel Felix.

Mr. Carson Phillips, of Rappahannock county, has accepted a position with Snyder, Hassler & McLean, the first avenue dry goods house.

Mr. J. C. Meem, of the real estate firm of Bonde, Pendleton, Meem & Co., Buena Vista, was here yesterday in the interest of his firm.

Dr. Joseph A. Gale, dressed the wound yesterday of a colored man who had mashed his foot while being his way from Carnegie City to this place on a freight train.

Major A. L. Pitzer requests the TIMES to state that the report that he had or would withdraw as a candidate for city sergeant is untrue.

The burial of Mrs. W. L. Beck will take place at the City Cemetery this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The Norfolk and Western's two wrecking crews were at work yesterday all day removing the debris of the collision of Monday evening.

Mr. E. T. Dammun, of Staunton, Assistant State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, arrived in the city last night and will assist Mr. J. J. Gorman in making a canvass in behalf of the new Y. M. C. A. building soon to be erected.

Mrs. Hugh M. Turner, of Roanoke, is visiting Mrs. H. E. Thomas, Mrs. Turner, who is travelling salesman for E. H. Stewart & Co., of Roanoke, accompanied his wife to Bluefield and has gone on a trip up the Clinch Valley and Flat Top divisions.

The members of the Lutheran church at Vinton are endeavoring to raise funds to build a new house of worship. Subscriptions for this purpose are being rapidly taken and work on the edifice will be commenced at an early day.

J. H. Edwards yesterday swore out a warrant against H. C. Deal for making a felonious assault upon him Saturday morning at the market house.

The case was called before Judge Howerton yesterday at 3 o'clock and continued till today, Edwards being required to give bond for the costs.

Mr. George C. McCahan, secretary of the Roanoke Rolling Mill company, has resigned his position and will engage in the real estate business with Messrs. James S. Simmons & Co. Mr. McCahan is a thorough business man and will doubtless make a success of the real estate business.

Mr. G. Powell Hill, of Alexandria, is in the city with a view to starting a large shoe factory, if the proper documents are offered by our citizens. His factory will employ seventy-five or a hundred hands, mostly women and children.

Mr. Hill has made a proposition to L. L. Powell & Co., and the subscription books will be opened in a few days. The capital stock will be $75,000.

By a slip of the types in the yesterday's Times in Rev. J. E. Bushnell's article on Calvinism, that gentleman was made to say that his position was decidedly ironic instead of irenic.

Mr. Bushnell wants to understand that he is free from iron, but if he was predisposed in that direction he would try to steel himself against admitting the fact.

Ruby's Letter. A letter from Mr. J. W. Ruby, Union City, Ind., says: "I have used your Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Cough Cure and find it a complete cure for deep-seated cold. It has done more than two of our most skillful physicians. My children had the Whooping Cough, and with the aid of your Cough Cure, they had it very light compared with the neighbors' children who did not take it. I believe it to be the best cough cure in the market."

So it is a large bottle only $1.00. Clarke's Flax Soap for the Skin. It leads them all. Price, 25 cents. Cough Cure and Soap for sale by Johnson & Johnson, drug gists.

There was a child born in Cowlitz county, Wash., the other day which, though otherwise strong and physically perfect, had no openings at the eyes, the mouth completely covering those members. A surgical operation was performed to supply the deficiency.

A CHILD KILLED. Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mother give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they know that the child has peculiar troubles by using Dr. Acker's Baby Sooter. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Budwell, Christian & Barbee.

A pair of curled poplar logs were shipped to Germany from Swain county, N. C., each twelve feet long and six feet in diameter at the smaller end. These logs will be hewed and polished for exhibition at Berlin this year. The farmers who sold the logs was paid $90 for each.

An Eminent Doctor's Prescription. Dr. C. P. Henry, Chicago, Ill., who has practiced medicine many years, says: Last spring he used and prescribed Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Skin Cure in 40 or 50 cases, and never knew a case where it failed to cure. "I know of no remedy I can rely on so implicitly. Positive cure or all diseases of the skin. Apply internally. Clarke's Flax Soap is best for babies. Skin Cure $1.00, soap 25 cents. At Johnson & Johnson's drug store.

It is said that some ingenious has invented an electric recorder which may be attached to a gas meter, and which will infallibly and correctly record the exact amount of gas consumed, no matter what may be the vagaries of the meter itself.

When the silver men turn the government into a silver warehouse concern and the farmers get as much as the silver men ask, the framers of the Constitution will be justified in resurrecting the gold standard to speak their minds about such a distortion of their handiwork.

A few days ago in Wilkes county, Ga., a negro woman was sitting near the fire with a child in her lap, when she fell in a fit. Falling into the fire her clothes caught, and in a few minutes she and the child were burned to death.
