Whereupon after due consideration by the Council of different proposals, the proposal of Geo. E. Lyons was accepted, and ordered spread on the minutes and published:

PROPOSAL.—To the Honorable Mayor and members of the Town Council of Abbeville:

I the undersigned do by these presents submit this my proposal to keep the Abbeville draw bridge and supervise the opening and closing of the same, to keep the same in good order for public use, for the unexpired term of former bridge keeper, for the sum and amount of $12 50 per month.

[Signed] GEORGE E. LYONS.
On motion of Lastie Broussard, resolved that the said contract be and the same is hereby awarded to said Geo. E. Lyons for the unexpired term, and for the sum specified in his proposal, his salary made payable quarterly, to date from the 8th day of December 1877.

Resolved further, that in order to insure the proper and faithful performance of duty on the part of said bridge keeper, he be required to furnish bond in the sum of two hundred dollars, to be approved by the bridge committee and mayor, the same to be given within five days from date.

On motion of S. Wise, resolved that a committee of two be appointed, whose duty it shall be, to ascertain the amount of delinquent tax-payers, both for licenses and taxes for the present and back years, and to submit their report next meeting if possible.

Whereupon the mayor appointed Messrs. Broussard and Wise.

On motion the Council adjourned to next regular meeting.

LEONCE PERRET, mayor.
L. C. LYONS, secretary.

The board of Town Council of Abbeville, met this day pursuant to adjournment. Members present: Leonce Perret, Mayor; and aldermen Broussard, Wise and Abadie. Absent: J. Boyanacé.

The Gem

MICROSCOPE.

THE GEM MICROSCOPE is the most wonderful scientific production of the nineteenth century. It furnishes the power of a high-priced instrument or a mere trifle, and exceeds in usefulness any Microscope ever invented. It reveals the hidden wonders of nature—creation—as Eels in Vinegar, Animals in Water, Butterflies' "Feathers," the Golden Marrow of a Hair, Insects' Eyes, the Pads, Claws, Joints and Hairs of a Fly's foot, makes Ropes of Fibres and Cloth, a Crownbar of a Needle's Point, and on indefinitely. It furnishes hours of instruction, entertainment and amusement for the young and old and every family should possess it. It is invaluable to students, professors, teachers, physicians, in fact everywhere, and especially in the HOMG CIRCUL it is a GEM. It is cheap, and at the same time of great value. Price One dollar and Fifty Cents. Mailed, post paid, to any address on receipt of price.
