Burpee Farm Annual For 1900.

This popular catalogue is more attractive than ever, in a particularly dainty cover for 1900. Nasturtiums, New Sweet Peas and the famous "Rocky Ford," or Burpee's Netted Gem melons are shown in colors, painted from nature, while the book is full of life-like illustrations from photographs. Of particular interest is the new feature for 1900 of giving "plain talks" as to the relative value for different purposes of all varieties of vegetables. Altogether the catalogue shows most painstaking care in the effort to "tell the plain truth about seeds" as proved at Fordhook Farms—the largest trial grounds in America. It will be mailed free to any one of our readers who mention this paper, when writing to the publishers, W. Atlee Burpee & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Of Interest To Women.

To almost every girl there comes, between girlhood and womanhood, a time when she feels prompted by her own vitality to take some shares in world's work. It accounts for much that is vigorous in church and social life. Cornelia Atwood Pratt writes of this period, in the March Delineator. Her article is thrilling, and will in itself do much to induce directness of aim. In the same number, as if to add meaning to Miss Pratt's thought there is a well illustrated article, of great interest to women, dealing with the leaders of Woman's Colleges, and some of the co-educational institutions.

YOUNG LADIES.

Your efforts are valuable we want a young lady in your section to do a little observing for us. No work unless you want to work. Your information is what we desire to have and we will pay well for it. Address Philip Werlein, Ltd, Wholesale and Retail Piano and Organ Dealers, 644-616 Canal Street, New Orleans, La.

Garden Hints For March.

Plant more early potatoes, bed sweet potatoes, transplant tomatoes, cabbage, beets, carrots, turnips and onions. Sow radishes, peas, snap beans, cucumbers, melons, parsnips, okra and mustard. Plant sweet corn. Pull the weeds in strawberry beds. Sow blue grass seed on the lawn.

The antiquated Constitution will look like thirty cents when the Republican leaders get through with it. But then, as General Merritt declared, we have outgrown the Constitution.

RULES FOR THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

To The Honorable Chairman Democratic Executive Committee of Vermilion Parish, La.:

Your committee appointed to draft rules for the government of the primary election to be holden

Saturday, March 3, 1900, respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, the Democratic Executive Committee of Vermilion Parish, did on the 6th day of January 1900, declare for the nomination of parish officers in primary election to be held on the 3rd day of March 1900, therefore be it resolved, that the following rules are hereby adopted for the government of said primary election:

1. The polling places shall be those established by law in the parish, the polls to be opened at 7 o'clock a. m. and to close at 6 p. m., in all parts of the parish and the candidates to be voted for direct by the parties voting in said election. The candidates receiving a plurality of all legal votes cast shall be deemed the choice of the democratic party for the office to which he aspires.

2. None shall be permitted to vote but white voters who pledge themselves to support the nominees of the primary provided that non-white shall be permitted to vote unless he be a duly qualified elector under the Constitution and laws of this state and duly registered.

3. That the executive committee of this parish shall appoint three commissioners and one clerk for each polling place in the parish, to hold said election, and in the absence of any commissioner thus appointed, as herein provided for, the voters present at the polling place shall elect one in his stead. Said commissioners shall be faithfully sworn to perform their duties. That this executive committee shall meet on the 3rd day of February, 1900, at 11 o'clock a. m., and appoint the said commissioners, and they shall publish said list in the newspapers for at least 20 days before the election.

4. The commissioners shall keep a list of names of those voting, duly numbered, in the order in which they vote, which list shall be kept by the commissioners and sworn to by them as being correct and attested by two witnesses. Immediately after the closing of the polls the box shall be opened and the ballots counted in the presence of the bystanders, and a tally sheet of the voters kept and duplicate returned made out and signed and sworn to as correct by the commissioners before some officer duly qualified to administer oaths. If any commissioner refuse to sign he, or those who sign, shall state fully the reasons why he refused to sign. One of the duplicate returns, together with tally sheet and list of voters furnished by the registrars, shall be forwarded to the president of this committee, at Abbeville, La., and the president shall not open the returns until the meeting of the committee as provided for herein, the other return shall be kept by the clerk of the poll and by him delivered to the committee when it meets to promulgate the returns; the committee shall meet at Abbeville, Louisiana, on the 6th day of March, 1900, and compile the vote and promulgate the result of said election.

secretary shall produce the returns of election made to him. Provided that in the absence or inability to obtain a proper officer that any registered voter be empowered to administer the oath to the commissioners.

5. The registrar of voters of this parish is requested to furnish a certified list of registered voters in this parish to the commissioners of election in each precinct and no one shall be permitted to vote unless his name appears on the list furnished by the registrar or presents a certificate of registration. But any person offering to vote whose name does not appear on said list can require the commissioners to make a record of his offer, stating his name, residence and officers for whom he wishes to vote, and if, on examination of the records in the registrar's office, it be found that he had duly registered his vote shall be counted for the person he favored. This examination to be made by the executive committee when they meet to compile the returns.

6. Be it further resolved that the ballots shall be furnished by the committee; they shall be printed on white paper, stating under the title of each office the names of all the candidates who aspire to same. Each candidate for ward offices wishing to submit to the primary election shall give written notice of that intention to the secretary of this committee fifteen days before the election, and signify in said notice his willingness to abide by the result of said primary.

That the committee ascertain the probable cost of printing tickets and holding said primary election and prorate the expense among the candidates for parochial offices 30 days before the election.

Your committee leaves to your Hon. body the question of determining whether or not the names of candidates for ward officers be printed on the general ticket. Respectfully submitted,

C. J. EDWARDS, GEORGE HAYS, BABILAS LEBLANC, A. NUNEZ.

$3,000 CASH PRIZE CONTEST.

The Atlanta Constitution's Great Offer of 1900—The Cotton Receipts at New Orleans from September to April—Full Statistics Given for Your Guidance—An Unparalleled Offer for Our Readers.

The Atlanta Constitution offers a $3,000 cash prize contest for January, February and March, 1900, as follows:

To the person sending a yearly subscription to The Weekly Constitution, together with the correct estimate on the cotton receipts at New Orleans during the first seven months of the present cotton year (September 1, 1899, to April 1, 1900)— $1,500 if estimate is received during January. $1,000 if estimate is received during February. $500 if estimate is received during March.

The above are for the exact estimates; there are besides these six prizes, ranging along, $500, $400, $350, $300, $250 and $200, amounting to $1,500, that will be paid out sure for the six nearest estimates to the New Orleans cotton receipts at any time during the three months of the contest. But you hit it exactly during January and secure the full $1,500 prize check.

The Constitution believes somebody will hit the figures exactly and expects to pay out the full amount of the prizes offered—$2,000 in all. In a Constitution contest upon the same subject in 1895 Mr. R. T. Poole, of Capeis Mills, N. C., hit the exact figures and received a check for $1,000 as his prize. Mr. Poole did not try to swell himself up at once, but very generously paid off a mortgage on his father's home place and with the balance he very wisely educated himself at Trinity College, Durham, N. C. He is now doing well in business in North Carolina and lives still near his old home. It is needless to say he is a warm friend of The Constitution.

As a guide in making estimates upon the New Orleans cotton receipts, The Constitution gives the following figures, compiled from statistics of the past four years:

Table with 4 columns: YEAR, N. O. RECEIPTS, N. O. RECEIPTS, TOTAL U. S. RECEIPTS. Rows for 1895-96, 1896-97, 1897-98, 1898-99.

The Constitution's market price will give each week the port receipts for the cotton season from which you can always see the New Orleans port receipts from September 1, 1899, up through the Friday immediately preceding this publication. This will keep you posted to within two or three days of the time you send in our estimate.

It is believed that some of the Texas men, that as a rule is sent in bulk to New Orleans, will be directed this year to other points because of the changing market conditions. The effort of Louisiana to have United States courts will not have very soothing effect upon the location of cotton shipments to New Orleans. This is mentioned simply as a pointer in making our estimates; how much to allow, if anything, for this cause must be left to each man's judgment.

The $2,000 contest is an express contract to which The Constitution will stand in every particular. Yet it is in its nature simply an advertisement by which The Constitution, combined with this paper may be made better known in this community. Send us the subscription to The Constitution and our paper at the advertised price of the two and with it your estimate on the New Orleans port receipts, and we will forward all together for you. On April 1st we trust a $1,500 check will reach some of our subscribers to help make times even more easy round about us.

The Weekly Constitution for 1900 will be better than ever before. Its special news features are unsurpassed. The Boer-English war, the Philippine and Cuban operations, the busy season of the most important congress that has ever assembled, the beginning of the issues of the presidential campaign of this year and the debates and speeches during its progress; the final result of the November elections, the development of the south's great industrial movements; diversified farm and village industries and thousands of other important things will be found fully and freely discussed in The Weekly Constitution for the year. The Farm and Farmer's page, the Woman's Kingdom, the Southern Pulpit, the Children's Page and other interesting departments will be ably conducted and will be especially adapted to those addressed. The ringing editorials of The Constitution speaking right out in meeting exactly what it means in the advocacy of true Democratic doctrine and in behalf of the great interests of the masses of our plain people, and protecting them from the grasping greed of those who would wring their earnings from their helpless hands, are alone worth the subscription price of the paper over and again.

The Constitution has long stood as the champion of the people and has sent its shafts deep into the errors and evils that threaten and beset the masses. Its complete exposure of the methods of Neill, of New Orleans, and the shattering of the influence of this prophet of big cotton booms, and an expose of ruinously low prices, and high price of robbery, who has cost the southern farmers hundreds of millions of dollars, ought to win for The Constitution the lasting gratitude of the whole south. The advice to farmers to organize against the trust that would increase the price of fertilizers and fertilizer materials for the hogge compost heap, and saving up the cudgel in behalf of the farmers against the combination that would put a fresh burden upon them, is sound and valid, and ought to be heeded. The bulwark of the people's rights and the best method of defense will often be found in a great paper, ably and fearlessly edited, upon which the people may rely, not only for news of the ordinary events of governmental, army and political life, but also for an alert foresight of the trend of future events that may operate to our lasting damage. The downfall of Neill, the breaking down of the fertilizer trust; the unbending of all southern interests, and the enlightenment of every village, farm and mountain home are among The Constitution's many high aims and great ideas for 1900. That these interests may all be well served, and with the same unswerving fidelity to the people that The Constitution has always shown, goes without saying.

The management of The Constitution, with Mr. Clark Howell as editor-in-chief, and his well disciplined corps of staff writers, brilliant contributors and special correspondents, still under the faithful leadership of Colonel William J. Hemphill as business manager, will remain the same for the new year. The Constitution's long and honorable business course, keeping faith with the people in all its dealings, contests and engagements, as well as its consistent and conspicuous editorial fairness, places it among those reliable institutions of our country on whom the people may depend.

With such a great general newspaper, covering the world news and world and national questions, you will, of course, need the best and latest local paper, giving current local topics and the latest and best news and freshest comments upon events of local interest. We trust this combination secured with The Constitution will be found best suited to all our readers. The price is merely nominal when the service is even half considered, including your estimate in The Constitution's $3,000 cash contest. To get the full benefit of the high prize send in your subscription now so The Constitution may receive it during January and record it to your credit. Make your figure very plain, unmistakably plain.
