

A mammoth cottonwood tree was cut a few days ago in the bottoms of the Little Wabash river, in Illinois. It contained 8,000 feet of lumber. The tree was 21 feet in circumference and a 12-foot log on the first limb cut 600 feet of merchantable lumber. When the tree was felled the tallest man in the neighborhood could not see over the logs as they lay on the ground.

Clerk's Wise Suggestion.

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and sour stomach," writes M. S. Mead, leading pharmacist of Attleboro, Mass. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I did with most happy results. I have had no more trouble and when one can go to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, their digestion must be pretty good. I endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily. You don't have to diet. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food. A. J. Godard.

Henry Wattersen preached a sensible sermon to Andy Carnegie recently, when he told him to divert some of his millions from books to men, and reminded him that eating is a necessity that comes before reading.

Saved Him from Torture.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning make life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of wounds it is unequalled. J. S. Gerall, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1865 I suffered with the protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeits. A. J. Godard.

President Steidley, of the Louisiana Press Association, would like that all Louisiana editors inform him if it is their desire to visit the Charleston exposition at the close of the next annual convention of the association.—Crowley Signal.

Send me one-half gross Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, quick." This remedy is sold in two sizes, 50c and $1.00. A. J. Godard and is guaranteed to cure.
