ARTICLE III.
The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are hereby declared to be: to buy, sell, lease, hire, mortgage and otherwise hypothecate and encumber all and sundry lands, tenements, hereditaments and all their by-products, in both their refined and crude states; to erect, buy, sell, lease and mortgage refineries and manufacturing plants, and to acquire, own, hold, operate and manage the same; to erect, buy, sell, lease and mortgage buildings, water works, trams, railroads, and all other works and enterprises, and to acquire, own, hold, operate and manage the same; to acquire, own, hold, operate and manage any other business or enterprise growing out of the objects and purposes herein set forth or contemplated by this charter.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of ten dollars each, which shall be paid for in cash, or may be issued at not less than par for such other property actually purchased, or for labor actually performed and rendered to this corporation. And said corporation is hereby authorized to do business and become a body politic as soon as twenty-five thousand dollars worth of stock shall be subscribed for.

ARTICLE V.
All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of not less than three, and not more than seven directors, who shall be elected annually on the third Thursday in December of each year, beginning on the third Thursday in December of the year 1915, and the directors for the ensuing year shall be determined by the stockholders at each meeting held for the election of directors. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by him, and the election shall be held under such rules and regulations as may be determined by the Board of Directors.
