In the Shadow of Fame. There are a number of former celebrities who are now running rooming and boarding houses in New York city. Many a singer, actress or writer who formerly held a place in the public eye has now settled down to the prosaic occupation of housing and feeding a small portion of that same public.

Their houses are a magnet for young persons with the artistic temperament. One woman who once enjoyed a fair reputation as a violinist has five furnished apartments which she sublets room by room to aspirants for dramatic, operatic and literary honors. Reflected glory rather than physical comfort is the portion of most of these satellites, but the privilege of hobnobbing with yesterday's greatness compensates for material discomfort.—New York Press.

So she doesn't return your affection. eh? Well, I shouldn't get mad about that. What's the use of bothering about a girl?" said Watkins.

"I don't mind her not returning my affection," said Dobeigh, "but, confound it, she won't return my diamond ring, either!"—Harper's Weekly.

REPUBLICS IN GERMANY. Three City States Whose Constitutions the Empire Respects. Hamburg, Bremen and Lubeck are theoretically three republics which have for the mutual convenience of themselves and the empire come under the rule of the kaiser in all but purely local affairs. As they had joined the north German confederation, which was formed after Prussia's victory in 1866, there was nothing left for them to do but to give their allegiance to its successor, the empire.

Each is represented in the bundesrath, or federal council, as well as in the reichstag, and each retains the republican principle in its local legislation. The Hamburg senate may have fallen from its highest estate, but it still lives and legislates concurrently with the house of burgesses. The burgo-master of Hamburg remains the great man in the estimate of the Hamburg people, the inheritor of the great traditions of the Hansa. Bremen and Lubeck have constitutions in common with Hamburg.

A wise empire respects the constitutions of these city states and refrains from any action hinting of the application of the steam roller in pursuit of harmony. The survivors of the Hansa have been more fortunate than some other republics of continental Europe. They have outlived several that had hopes of being left ignored in their republicanisms.

Craow was once a republic, but, being surrounded by Austrian possessions, was finally swallowed up in 1846. Since that time it has been a city of Austrian Poland.—Boston Transcript.

DROWNED THE MUSIC. The Audience Was Angry, and Theodore Thomas Was Obstinate. Theodore Thomas once undertook to raise a subscription fund for a series of concerts in San Francisco, but only $10,000 had been raised, and the enterprise hung fire. Then he announced that Emma Thursby would sing at each concert, and the guarantee fund promptly went up to $50,000.

Thomas had a rule against encores for soloists. They were allowed to appear and bow in recognition of applause, but that was all. The San Franciscans held that as it was Miss Thursby's engagement which was responsible for the raising of the fund they were entitled to encore her if they chose. Thomas, however, insisted stubbornly on his rule.

On the last night a determined effort was made to encore her. She appeared again and again, bowing her thanks, and each time the applause increased instead of diminishing. At last the audience began to shout its demands instead of merely applauding, and Miss Thursby turned to Thomas and said, "What shall I do?"

"Keep on bowing if you have to bow all night," snapped Thomas grimly. And she went out and bowed again. This time Thomas directed the orchestra to go ahead with the final number. The audience, thoroughly indignant, shouted down the music, but Thomas was inflexible. The orchestra went on playing, utterly unheard, in a pandemonium of shouted protests. And it was probably the only time that a Thomas number fell on deaf ears.—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Venetian Fashion. Fashions were no less eccentric four centuries ago than they are today. "Before the streets of Venice were paved (in the thirteenth century)," says Mr. William Boulting in "Woman in Italy," "ladies went though the mud and filth on pattens. The custom was retained, and in spite of sumptuary laws the patten became heightened until women of rank stood on false feet half a yard high in the sixteenth century. They were unable to walk without the support of one or two gentlemen or servants."

A curiosity in banquets is mentioned by the same writer. It was a wedding feast at Milan and consisted of fifteen courses, "each being introduced by living specimens of the animals that composed it."

Tale of a Snake. "Before he went fishin'," said the town story teller, "he swallowed 'bout a pint 'n' half of snake bite remedy, 'n' of course you know what that is. Well, after the snake bit him the remedy cut all sorts of capers, kaze the remedy went straight to his head. Last time it tried to do wuz to swaller its tail, 'n' it got itself in the form of a hoop, 'n' I'm a liar of the children didn't roll it around all day!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Her Only Want. "I have difficulty in satisfying my wife. She has a thousand wants." "I have difficulty in satisfying mine, and she has only one want." "What is it?" "Money."—Baltimore American.

Consistency. Mother—Aren't you goin' to wash up them ten things, Mariarrene, before you go out? Daughter—No, I ain't. I'm late enough for "mother's tep" class as it is.—London Opinion.

STATE OF LOUISIANA, PARISH OF ORLEANS, CITY OF NEW ORLEANS. Be it known, that on Monday, the fifth day of September, 1910, at the hour of twelve o'clock noon, at the office of the vice-president of the Rigolets Club, No. 838 Canal street, City of New Orleans, pursuant to a call of the Board of Directors for that purpose, the stockholders of the Rigolets Club assembled in special meeting for the purpose of amending Article 4 of the Charter by increasing the number of shares of the capital stock of club from fifty shares of the par value of seventy-five dollars each to seventy-five shares of the par value of seventy-five dollars each; that upon said meeting being assembled, Mr. F. Burgomeister was elected chairman, and Mr. William B. Grant, elected secretary; that there were present in person and by proxy thirty-seven holders of one share each of the capital stock of the club, and upon the vote being taken as to the amendment of Article 4 of the charter of the club so as to increase the number of shares of capital stock from fifty shares at a par value of seventy-five dollars each to seventy-five shares of the same par value each, there were thirty-seven votes cast in favor of said amendment and none against it.

(Signed) F. BURGOMEISTER, Chairman of Meeting. WM. B. GRANT, Secretary of Meeting. ROSS E. BREAZEALE, Notary Public.

I, the undersigned Recorder of Mortgages, in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing amendment of the charter of the Rigolets Club was this day duly recorded in my office, in book 1018, folio 171, New Orleans, December 14, 1910.

Flossie (six years old, to lady called—Ma said for you to sit down, that she'd be in in a minute. It isn't raining, is it? "Why, no, Flossie. Why do you ask?" "Cause when ma saw you coming she said it never rained but it come ad."

Modified the Order. When the Infants Publia and her consort, Antonio, were in New York in 1833 the Circulo Colon Cervantes gave a grand ball in honor of the distinguished visitors. On the day before the entertainment took place a notice was posted at the Spanish club, giving directions as to how the men who were to attend the affair should dress. Those who went to Madison Square Garden early in the evening of May 23 saw a placard in the main entrance on which was written: "Dress orders revoked. Men wearing high shoes will be admitted if shirts can pass muster, but woollen mitts and linen dusters will be excluded." The notice created much merriment before it was removed. Its authorship was credited to Tom Ochiltree.
