THE NEW CROSS.

Jack Hamilton, the steeple climber, who has just completed the work of installing a high cross on the steeple of the Church of the Holy Name of Mary in place of the old cross which was broken during a recent storm, is one of the most daring men in this line of business. He has never found a place too high or hazardous and accepts all challenges when it comes to going high.

The new cross just erected was manufactured in the city by App. It is made of copper and has the following dimensions: Height, 10 feet; width, 4 feet.
