B. H. Kearns, janitor of the City Hall, and a well-known saloon keeper of Slidell and Brooklyn avenues, narrowly escaped being wounded when, while on his way to his home at No. 532 Seguin street, he was accosted by two men at Opelousas avenue and Powder street, one of whom fired a shot at him. The affair occurred at 3 o'clock Sunday morning, and was reported to the police by the intended victim, who, however, could not give any reason for the attack.

A. S. Covell of 525 Seguin street, complained to the Eighth Precinct police Sunday afternoon that he had been assaulted by Leonard Santos, Charles Yalats, Cliff Aucoin and Mack McCauley while he was on the Canal street ferry pontoon at the head of Morgan street. The police went to the place but could find none of the parties. Covell says that the assault was without cause or provocation and that he will prefer charges in the Second City Criminal Court against the men.

An enjoyable penny party was given Sunday night at the residence of Mrs. Aucoin, 322 Olive street, for the benefit of the Sisters of the Holy Cross Convent. The event proved a success in every way. The children enjoyed games, while the older folks enjoyed dancing. Master Clark Nelson sang a solo that was highly entertaining.

ORDINATION AT CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL.

Mr. Sidney Lee Vail Ordained to the Diaconate.

Wednesday at 11 a. m. Mr. Sidney Lee Vail, a native of this city, was ordained deacon in Christ Church Cathedral, St. Charles avenue and Sixth street, by the Rt. Rev. Davis Sessums, D. D., Bishop of Louisiana. The Candidate for Orders was presented by the Rev. A. Gordon Bakewell, rector of Trinity Chapel and a former rector of Mount Olivet Church. Rev. W. S. Slack, rector of Mount Olivet Church, preaching the sermon.

Mr. Vail is a native of this city, has parents having been well-known residents of this portion of the city. He is the only child of Sidney Lee Vail and Blanche Richard. His parents died in his early childhood and he was raised by his aunts, the Misses Richard, who rejoice to see fulfilled the desire of his own childhood and his mother's prayers realized. They with his cousin, Miss Cora R. Swift, have been looking forward with pleasant anticipations to that day.

Mr. Vail was born November 26th, 1884, and has lived in Algiers for the greater portion of his life. He received his early education in the public schools, being a pupil of McDonogh No. 4, of which Miss Elizabeth Kelly was then and is now the efficient principal. At the age of sixteen he entered the employ of the Southern Pacific Steamship Company, where he rendered efficient service for a period of five years, resigning his position in 1905 to take up his studies at Sewanee, Tenn., preparatory to the work of the Theological Seminary. He finished the three years' course in the Seminary last June. As a member of the Class of 1911 he was "Class Prophet." He was awarded the "Bishop Divinity Prize" which is given annually to that student in the Theological Seminary whose essay on Justification and Kindred Doctrines as taught in the Thirty-Nine Articles and the Book of Common Prayer is deemed most worthy.

While a student at Sewanee he did mission work among the people inhabiting the "Coves" surrounding Sewanee, and was President of the Missionary Society of the Theological Department. This Society is composed of the students in the Theological Department who do mission work among the mountaineers at Sewanee and in the near vicinity. During his vacations he has done mission work in this Diocese and will after his ordination be sent out in one of the mission fields of the diocese.

Born and raised in Algiers, in his early years he was baptized in Mount Olivet Church by the Rev. Chaplin S. Hedges, D. D., for many years the beloved rector of the parish. He was confirmed by Rt. Rev. Davis Sessums, D. D., Bishop of Louisiana, during the incumbency of Rev. Jesse S. Moore. He was always interested in Sunday-school work and was superintendent of the Sunday school for several years. He has been a member of the choir organization since the introduction of the supplid choir in this parish.

His many friends wish him well in the life work he has chosen and they evidenced their interest by their attendance at the ordination service.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Mahler and Mr. and Mrs. Barry are spending some time at "Sure Bite" on Bayou Cook.

John Bowers, Jr., of Empire, La., spent Sunday in Algiers.

Mrs. R. Stenhouse and children are spending some time at Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. E. O'Connor is spending the summer at Ocean Springs, Miss.

Miss E. Allen is a visitor to Bay St. Louis.

Misses Edna and Camille Aucoin spent the past week at Biloxi, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller left Monday for Houston and Galveston, to be gone two months.

Father Delaire and Master Albert Twickler were visitors to Biloxi last week.

Mrs. G. Bevan and grand-daughter, Mary Harvey, spent Tuesday at Milneburg.

Mrs. W. W. Baucum of Gulfport and little son Robert are visiting friends here. They leave this evening for Bay Adam to be the guests of Mrs. C. V. Kraft.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Weaver of McDonoghville left this morning for Bay Adam, to be guests of Mrs. C. V. Kraft.

SCHULTZ—BRAAI.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Braai, 1921 Pacific avenue, when their charming young daughter, Eunice Ora, was united in wedlock to Mr. Henry A. Schultz. The parlor was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and bride's roses. While Miss Ruth Pettagrow played the wedding march, the bridal party entered and the bride and groom stood under a large wedding bell profusely decorated with white flowers and tied with large tulle streamers. The bride looked lovely in her wedding dress, which was a hand-made lace robe, joined together by narrow bands of satin ribbon worn over a silk slip. She wore the usual wreath and veil and carried a lovely bouquet of bride's roses and ferns tied with long tulle streamers.

Miss Elemere Zettwoch, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She was a picture of girlish beauty in a lace robe worn over a pink silk slip; she wore a wreath of pink roses in her hair and carried a bouquet of pink roses and ferns tied with pink tulle. The groom's only attendant was his cousin, Mr. Albert Miller, who acted the role of groomsman. Little Miss Eleanor Lilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lilly, made a sweet flower girl. She carried a basket of daisies and white roses with bows of white satin ribbon.

After the ceremony a reception was held, when Mr. and Mrs. Schultz received the congratulations of relatives and close friends. Twelve young friends of the bride pulled for the prizes in the wedding cake, the lucky ones being Miss Etta Pettagrow, who won the ring; Miss Elemere Zettwoch, the silver thimble, and Miss Hilda Korner, the coin. The young couple received many handsome and costly presents. Much praise is due to Mrs. James Weigman and Mrs. Frank Bach, who so kindly assisted at the refreshment tables.

They will be at home to their many friends at 829 Opelousas avenue.

IN USED PIANOS AND PLAYER PIANOS. For a Few Days Only We need the room and they've got to go regardless of value.

The daily arrival of our new Spring Stock of Pianos and Player Pianos is so crowding our house or warehouses that we are compelled to sacrifice a number of high-grade used pianos to secure the necessary exhibition space. Never before have we had such a large collection of such instruments, and possibly never again will such an opportunity present itself to buy on such terms and at such prices.

FIRE CHIEF SAYS MEN MUST PAY DEBTS; WANTS UNIFORM TO BE BADGE OF HONOR.

Chief Pujol, of the Fire Department, declared that he wanted the uniforms and badges of the men of his department to be recognized as an insignia of honor and that he would permit no man to remain on the force who did not comply with his obligations. He said there was no reason why a fireman should not pay his personal debts and he would do all in his power to compel the men to pay their just bills as long as they were connected with the department. He said that he had known of cases where men had failed to meet their debts and he was going to inaugurate a system which would make them responsible even if he had to hold back their pay to do so.

Chief Pujol said he hoped that the men of the department would be so careful of their personal obligations and pay their debts so promptly that any man wearing the department uniform or badge could go into any store and obtain credit. He said that he would make proper allowances for extreme circumstances but the men must show some inclination to pay what they owe or they would be dismissed from the force, as he wanted "no dead beats" on his rolls. The chief declared that he thought it would improve the discipline and standing of the department to enforce such a rule.

NUISANCE BOAT TO BE REMOVED

Mayor So Advises Algiers Improvement Association. Members of the Algiers Improvement Association were gratified yesterday over the receipt of a letter from Mayor Behrman by Joseph W. Lennox, president of the organization, in which the mayor stated that he had been advised by the dock board that the nuisance boat, which is moored now just above the Third District ferry landing on the New Orleans side of the river, would be moved to another location. This will mean much to the people of Algiers, for it is said that at times the stench is so great as to be unbearable.

MORE MARINES ARE TO LEAVE NAVAL STATION.

A detachment of thirty-five United States marines from the naval station left for Port Royal, S. C., in a special car via the Louisville & Nashville. The departure of the troops has left only a small detachment of the marines at the naval station. Capt. Purcell will leave next week for his new station at Portsmouth, N. H. Second Lieut. Thresher, lately of the U. S. S. Georgia, who is to succeed here in command of the marines, is expected Sunday.
