

Algerines at Law.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.

J. R. LeGallez to Mrs. J. E. Hollowell, lot, Pacific avenue, Atlantic avenue, Homer and Newton, 1316-20 mortgage.—Parsons.

J. R. LeGallez to J. E. Hollowell, lot, Madison, Socrates, Lamarque and Teche, and lot, Pacific, Atlantic, Homer and Newton, and lot, Lamarque, Belleville, DeArmas and Elmira, $2,257.40 mortgage.

Joseph Amann to Jordan T. Lawler, lot, Elmira, Alix, Belleville and Eliza; also two other lots in same square, $8,611 cash.—Rosen.

Oliver Land & Imp. Co. to city of New Orleans, 3 lots, Behrman, Diana, Numa and Newton, $1,225 cash.

Same to same, three lots in same square, donation.

Same to same, Behrman, Numa, Patterson, Alix, Evelina, Slidell, Newton, Diana, DeArmas, Lamarque, Socrates, Ptolemy, Lawrence, Bringer, Magellan, Columbus and all promenades and alleys, dedication of ground to open above named streets.

Charles Lamb's Excuse.

Lendenhall street, London, was for many years the scene of the daily labors of Charles Lamb. That Lamb, despite his many complaints, appears to have had a fairly easy time at the East India house is evident from a story told by Algernon Black in Macmillan's Magazine for February, 1879. One morning he "was observed to enter the office hastily and in an excited manner, assumed no doubt for the occasion, to leave by an opposite door. He appeared no more that day. He stated the next morning in explanation that as he was passing through Lendenhall market on his way to the office he accidentally trod on a butcher's heel. 'I apologized,' said Lamb, 'to the butcher, but the latter retorted: "Yes, but your excuses won't cure my broken heel, and, — me," said he, seizing his knife, "I'll have it out of you!"

"Lamb fled from the butcher and, in dread of his pursuit, dared not remain for the rest of the day at the India house. "This story was accepted as a humorous excuse for taking a holiday without leave."

Superstitions of Scapling.

Indians believe that scapling is annihilation of the soul; hence the eagerness of the Indian to secure the scap of his enemy and save his own scap. Deprived of the scap the body becomes mere carbon, not even worthy of burial. "Whether or not its removal annihilates a soul," says General Dodge, author of "Our Wild Indians," "the Indian is yet sure that a scap is 'strong medicine' and equally sure that its taking by him will involve consequences to him either very good or very bad, and he does not always know which. An Indian will never take the scap of a colored soldier, nor does he give any reason for it; all to be got out of him by way of explanation is, 'Buffalo soldier no good; heap bad medicine.' Whatever the special religious opinion of each Indian in regard to taking the scaps of slain enemies, I have never yet known a single case where the scap of a suicide was stripped off, and in many cases the superstition is so strong as to prevent the Indians even from touching the body."

A Bull For a God.

The ancient Egyptians believed that the spirit of their greatest god, Osiris, dwelt among them in the form of a pure white bull marked by a certain sign. Herodotus mentions two of these signs—a black eagle on the back and a black forehead with a square of white in its center. These creatures when found were worshipped during life and mummified after death.

Knew His Man.

George Bubb, better known as Bubb Doddington, one of the wits of the eighteenth century, always dined well and always liked to doze after the repast. Falling asleep one day after dinner with Sir Richard Temple and Lord Cobham, the latter reproached Doddington with his drowsiness. Doddington denied having been asleep and to prove he had not offered to repeat all Lord Cobham had been saying. Cobham challenged him to do so. Doddington repeated a story, and Lord Cobham owned he had been telling it. "Well," said Doddington, "and yet I did not hear a word of it, but I went to sleep because I knew that about this time of the day you would tell that story."

Her Fruit.

"I wish I was a fish," sighed Susie. "Why?" "Cause papa said the ocean was full of currents, and I like currants better than any kind of fruit 'cept bananas, apples, oranges and sweet potatoes!"—Pittsburg Press.

have and enjoy succession by its corporate resources to the end of nine years from and after the date hereof.

ARTICLE II.

This corporation shall have power and authority to contract, sue and be sued, in its corporate name, to make, hold, receive, purchase and convey, under its corporate name, real and personal property, to lease and appoint such managers, directors and officers as its interests may require; to make and establish such by-laws for the proper management and regulation of the affairs of the corporation as may be necessary and proper.

All actions and other legal process shall be served upon the president, and in the event of his absence or inability to serve from any cause, upon the vice president or secretary thereof.

ARTICLE III.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are hereby declared to be the purchase, sale, lease, mortgage, conveying, holding, receiving, hiring or renting by or from, buying, selling, importing, exporting, dealing in, individually or as agent for, kinds and makes of typewriters, mimeographs, duplicating machines operated by print, impression or photographic plate, of all kinds, and all accessories, and all other articles, with all general and incidental powers relative thereto, within or without this state, and to do all things necessary and proper to carry out the law and constitution now in force in this state.

ARTICLE IV.

The authorized capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of twenty thousand dollars, divided into and represented by two hundred shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, which shall be paid for in cash money or in kind, to be determined by the board of directors at a regular or called meeting, and no certificate for shares shall be issued until the amount of such shares as so on as three thousand and no hundred dollars of its stock is subscribed for.

ARTICLE V.

All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, divided into and represented by three members, who shall constitute a quorum for transacting all business, the board of directors to be vested with all the powers and authority of corporations, particularly to contract, sue and be sued, make and use a corporate seal, hold, receive, lease, purchase, convey, mortgage and hypothecate property, real, personal and mixed, erect, build, or lease such buildings, and to acquire and continue the business of John and Peter Vanvoras, conducted under name of New London Ice Cream Manufacturing Company.

The first board of directors shall consist of the following officers of the corporation, to-wit: J. M. QUINTEDO, president, H. B. BLANKS, vice president, and H. D. BLANKS, secretary-treasurer, who shall hold their offices until the next meeting of January, 1912, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

On the third Monday in January, 1912, and annually thereafter, an election shall be held by the stockholders of this corporation, under the supervision of two commissioners appointed by the president, and the officers of the corporation shall be elected and qualified on the day of the election.

This act of incorporation may be changed, altered or modified, with the assent of the stockholders, with the assent of three-fourths of the stock present or represented at a meeting called for that purpose after thirty days' notice shall be given each of the stockholders of this corporation by the secretary-treasurer of such meeting.

Whenever this corporation is dissolved, either by limitation of its charter or any other cause, the assets of the corporation shall be liquidated by two commissioners to be appointed from among the stockholders at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose after notice required by Article VII; said commissioners to remain in office until the affairs of the corporation are fully liquidated, and the survivor shall continue to act.

No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due to the corporation at the time of his death, and he shall be in no way in any manner liable for the same.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

The domicile of this corporation shall be in the City of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, where citation shall be served on its president, and in its absence upon its vice president.

ARTICLE III.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed are hereby declared to be to engage in and conduct a general insurance business, in all its phases, conditions and modifications, with full power to do and perform all acts necessary to accomplish such objects and purposes.

ARTICLE IV.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of one hundred dollars ($100,000), to be represented by fifty (50) shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($1,000) each, to be paid for in cash money or in kind, to be determined by the board of directors at a regular or called meeting, and no certificate for shares shall be issued until the amount of such shares as so on as three thousand and no hundred dollars of its stock is subscribed for.

No stockholder of this corporation shall sell or dispose of his stock without having offered the same, in writing, through its board of directors, to the majority of who shall have the first opportunity to purchase the stock at the book value thereof; and if the board of directors shall not purchase said stock within thirty days after notice of the shareholder offering the stock may sell or dispose of same to any other person.

ARTICLE V.

All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, composed of three stockholders, who shall be elected on the second Monday in September in each year, the first of which shall be on the second Monday of September, 1912. All elections shall be conducted under such rules as the board of directors may determine, and no certificate for shares shall be issued until the amount of such shares as so on as three thousand and no hundred dollars of its stock is subscribed for.

Whenever this corporation is dissolved, either by limitation or otherwise, its affairs shall be liquidated by two commissioners, elected by a majority vote of the stockholders at a meeting called for that purpose after notice in writing ten days previous shall be given to each stockholder, stating the purpose for which said meeting is called, and the said commissioners shall have full power to sell all the assets and property, real and personal, of this corporation and to do and perform all acts essential and proper to a full and complete liquidation of the affairs of this corporation.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten days' previous notice shall be given in writing and sent by mail to the address of each stockholder, or delivered in person, and by publication three times during said ten days, in one of the daily newspapers of New Orleans.

In the event of the dissolution of this charter, the affairs of the corporation shall be liquidated by the president as commissioner, and as such he shall have full power to dispose of the property of the corporation, and to do all things necessary to liquidate its affairs.

This act of incorporation may be amended, altered or abrogated by a two-thirds vote of the entire stock then subscribed, and at a special meeting called for that purpose, of which ten