VIRGINIA LODGE CELEBRATES.

Fifteenth Anniversary of Virginia Lodge Observed By Parade and Banquet of Three Lodges.

With a parade and banquet, Virginia Lodge No. 136, Knights of Pythias, celebrated its fifteenth anniversary in excellent style Sunday, entertaining the members of Crescent and Halcyn lodges, Grand Chancellor A. W. Brown, and other notables. Starting at Bermuda street and Pelican avenue, they paraded through the principal streets under the guidance of Grand Marshal William Owens, assisted by Henry Munsterman, William Cuny, Bernard Voegtlin, William Spahr and August Kerstens, as aides. Returning to the Pythian Hall about 8 o'clock, the members ranged themselves around the banquet board and enjoyed an elaborate spread, which was interspersed with music. Lea J. Burton was toastmaster, and a number of prominent members spoke.

Grand Chancellor Brown, the first speaker, said, in part: "The principle of Pythianism of which I am especially proud is its unselfishness, for its objects are such as are commendable to everyone. An organization that undertakes the work that our order does is one to which any man may well be proud to belong. Some years ago there was a Pythian lodge in Gretna, and now it has disappeared. Why has this lodge died? I would be very glad to have the three Algiers lodges take up this matter, and see if they can revive it. I think it is a reproach, not only on the Algiers lodges, but on all of the others in New Orleans that this has occurred. If I can do nothing else during my incumbency of office than to revive that lodge, I shall be very proud, in conclusion, I want to express my good wishes toward Virginia Lodge, and wish it a long and prosperous career."

Judge Peter Clement, Past Grand Chancellor B. Mendelson, J. J. Darrieux, Rev. W. S. Slack, the rector of Mount Olivet Episcopal Church; Frank Henning, L. F. Gisch, F. Quereas, Chas. Brownlee, Dr. Julius Hanfein, P. Olsen and A. P. Kaufman also spoke.

AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

In connection with the theft of a Tuxedo chain hoist and coil of manila rope, valued at $110, from the Naval Station on Tuesday morning, July 25th, the Eighth Precinct police arrested the three Alwart brothers, James, John and Charles, better known as the Oliver brothers, who live in McLellanville; Phil Hartman, of 3316 Burgundy street, and Emile Rowyer, of 2618 Marais street, as dangerous and suspicious. They appeared before Recorder Clement Thursday morning, but being unable to give a satisfactory statement they were sentenced to $20 or twenty days, and twenty days additional.

The Alwart brothers are notorious police characters and though mere youths, have been mixed up in thefts on various occasions, for some of which they served time. It is believed by the police that they have arrested the right parties and they hope to find the stolen property before long. The hoist and rope were stolen from the coaling room at the Naval Station.

ALGIERS RAILWAY BALKS ON RIVER EXTENSION.

City Attorney I. D. Moore last week received a letter from Leigh Carroll of the Algiers Railway, Light & Power Company, advising that he had noticed in the papers that his company had been notified to extend the Algiers and Gretna line to McLellanville and to the Mississippi river, but that his company has never reached an agreement to extend the line to the river and his recent letter accepting notification to extend the line was meant to apply only to an extension to McLellanville.

City Attorney Moore replied to Mr. Carroll, declaring emphatically that the franchise ordinance under which the road is operating requires that the line must be extended to McLellanville and to the river, and that the company must comply with the ordinance. The city attorney further advises Mr. Carroll that if his company "has not come to any agreement as to extending the line to the river" that an agreement can be arrived at if he will call upon the mayor and city attorney.

A SUBSCRIPTION LIST.

FINE SUGGESTIONS FROM ONE OF OUR READERS FOR FERRY IMPROVEMENT.

WILL THE FERRY COMPANY CONSENT?

A PERTINENT LETTER TO THE HERALD FULL OF INTEREST.

ALGIERS, LA., July 17th, 1911.

Editor HERALD:

DEAR SIR—In reading over one of the Sunday morning issues of the daily papers, I came across an article devoted to the description of a very noble charity that has been organized in our city (east bank), where the respectable "down and out" or those who are temporarily out of employment or funds, can get a clean, comfortable and safe place to rest and sleep for ten cents, or if without even this small sum, accommodations will be furnished free; it is a noble charity and should meet with aid from all who are in a position to help. While reading over the article and its description of the many poor, weary and footsore wanderers who apply to the home for rest, my own experience on the Canal street ferry pontoon, especially on the city side, occurred to me and I realized that it is not always the tramp that looks around without success for a place to rest his weary limbs, but we of the more prosperous and comfortable class, that at times even with money to pay for it cannot find a place to relax our muscles, but must stand up or lean against an iron railing for ten, fifteen or twenty minutes waiting for a boat. It is of course a short time, but, oh! how long to a tired man or woman, to say nothing of God's chosen, the little children. On the city side there is one bench capable of holding about seven persons, and at any time up to twelve o'clock at night, from the departure of the boat until its return, can be seen any number of women and children seeking all manner of postures, endeavoring to rest their tired bodies. You have called attention to this matter on several occasions but as yet the management has not seen fit to remedy it. I am not personally acquainted with the manager of the ferry company but know him by sight, and also know that he holds some public position in the city administration, and judge by his appearance that he is a gentleman and would not willingly put the tired public to an inconvenience, if there was not some good reason for it; but I cannot see it, as it would not encourage loungers to have a sufficient number of benches as no one can get on the pontoon until they have paid their fare and passed through the wheel. Now I have two plans that I wish to suggest to you and hope that you will take the matter up if you think either of them are good. First of all let a committee of prominent citizens call on the ferry manager and in the name of the tired public obtain his permission to carry out the plan, then open a subscription list by popular contributions raise a fund to purchase comfortable benches, and I feel assured that in a few days enough money can be raised to furnish all the benches needed. Or we could even make a business proposition to the management, i. e., purchase a lot of camp stools, donate them to the ferry company, and let them rent them out to their patrons at so much a trip. I feel assured that if we can only overcome the objection of the ferry company and obtain their consent that any of the above plans will prove a success. Of course some will refuse to contribute on the ground that when they have paid their fare they are entitled to the proper care and attention, but this can be overcome by explaining to them that the management must be in the right when they refuse of their own accord to place a sufficient number of seats in their waiting rooms or pontoons, which are the cleanest and healthiest places to wait, in this age when all laws of health are crying aloud for open air accommodations. In the name of the tired public I ask you to take this matter up and after softening the hearts of the ferry people and gaining their consent, start the subscription and save our suffering women and children from the torture of standing on tired feet or leaning weary shoulders up against an iron railing waiting for the boat to receive their exhausted bodies, and transfer them over the river, which seems to be the only thing that the management is obligated to do.

ONE WHO HAS BEEN THERE MANY A WEARY NIGHT.

SITES FOR SCHOOLS.

A party, comprising United States Commissioner of Immigration E. S. Redfern, William Levy and Inspector Gore of the School Board; Joseph Lennox, president of the Algiers Improvement Association; Peter S. Lawton and J. J. Manson, visited the section below the Naval Station last week and decided upon sites to which the Lawton white school and the Lawton colored school will be removed, in order to make room for the immigration station. After an inspection of the entire section it was decided that the white school would be moved to Newton and London streets on the Manson tract of land and the colored school moved to Odeon and DeArmas streets, on the Struemy tract. The Altar Branch Colored Church also will have to be moved, but no location was decided upon for this, it having been decided to let its selection wait until some time later.

LORIO, OUR NEW CARRIER.

No doubt many if not all of the citizens of Algiers Station A, are delighted to see our smiling and genial friend and life-time citizen, Mr. Louis Lorio, now serving District 47 as mail carrier, who succeeds Mr. N. L. Merx, who for many years faithfully served our people, Mr. Merx having resigned the government service to go into business for himself.

We are satisfied that the selection of Mr. Lorio by the postoffice officials will meet with the approval of all good people of Algiers.

We need the room and they've got to go regardless of value.

The daily arrival of our new Stock of Pianos and Player Pianos is so crowding our house or warehouses that we are compelled to sacrifice a number of high-grade used pianos to secure the necessary exhibition space. Never before have we had such a large collection of such instruments, and possibly never again will such an opportunity present itself to buy on such terms and at such prices.
