JEREMIAH B. COLLINS.

Jeremiah B. Collins, a pioneer merchant of Algiers, and brother-in-law of Mayor Behrman and Hon. P. S. Lawton, passed away at 7 o'clock last night at his home, 505 Elmira avenue, surrounded by the family for whom he lived and worked. He was conscious to the end. In his death the city loses a staunch friend and business man, and his family a devoted husband and father.

Mr. Collins was foremost in the ranks of those who were interested in the Fifth District of the city, and no movement which had for its object the betterment of that section was without his indorsement and hearty support.

Deceased was born in County Cork, Ireland, in 1850, but came to Algiers in 1876. While quite young, he served three years as a tobaccoist, after which he was engaged as a solicitor for a grocery firm for three years. Mr. Collins was also a clerk on a steamboat for some time, but finally he conceived the idea of entering the grocery business for himself.

For twenty-five years Mr. Collins conducted a grocery store at the same corner, and by square dealing and close attention to duty, succeeded in building up an excellent trade. He retired from active business a few years ago, but the place was still operated by the family.

Before coming to the center of Algiers, Mr. Collins was in partnership with the late James Lawton, father of Peter S. Lawton, in a merchandise store on the Lower Coast. He was successful there for many years.

A few days ago Mr. Collins told a friend, while discussing wars, that he "never smelt the powder of battle," although he was an enlisted soldier in the Federal army during the civil war. He joined the fighting force in Cincinnati, but the surrender came while his regiment was marching to battle, and he was mustered out of service.

Although his health had been failing for years, his death was unexpected, and it came as a terrible shock to his relatives and friends. Mr. Collins was fortified by the last sacraments of the church, and he passed away as the family, led by Father Larkin, a warm personal friend, was reciting the prayers for the sad occasion.

He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Catherine Lawton, and these children: Lieutenant James Lawton Collins, of the Eighth Cavalry, stationed in the Philippine Islands; Peter Lawton Collins, a purser on a United Fruit Company steamship; Joseph and Bernard Collins; Misses Mary, Margaret, Catherine, Agnes Ullaine Collins. Besides these there are a number of sisters and brothers. They are: Mrs. Martin Behrman, Mmes. B. Williams, J. Dermody, N. Lenihan, J. Heenan, Messrs. John Collins, and Tom Collins, of Cincinnati.

Mr. Collins was an active member of the Catholic Knights of America and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. He was an honorary member of the Young Men's Benevolent Association. He will be buried from a requiem mass at the Church of the Holy Name of Mary, at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The interment will be private.

The Fourth Anniversary.

With invited guests, stockholders, officials and employees present the Algiers Railway and Lighting Company, on Friday, September 1, 1911, celebrated its fourth anniversary of its system with a sumptuous repast and a pleasant ride over the road to the Naval Station and Gretna.

It was 1 o'clock when Superintendent R. S. Stearnes invited all to the table. He made a brief explanation of the purpose of the affair and toasted Thomas Fonseca and Fred Cook, the oldest road employees of the company.

Mr. Fonseca replied for the men. Mr. Stearnes said that Mr. Leigh Carroll, president of the company, was in Canada and was unable to attend, and called upon Hon. L. H. Marrero, sheriff of Jefferson parish, who is vice president of the company, and who cordially greeted the assembled guests.

Rev. W. S. Slack, pastor of Mount Olivier Episcopal Church, and D. A. Hagarty, manager of the New Orleans Railway and Light Company, also spoke.

Following the repast all boarded two trailers drawn by car No. 4, Motorman Fred Cook and Conductor Thomas Fonseca being in charge. They were escorted by a brass band.

The invited guests present were Judge Peter Clement, Hon. J. A. Barrett, Joseph Barrois, Rev. W. S. Slack, Dr. Charles F. Gibki, J. W. Lennox, Harry Dressel, John McGivney, D. A. Hagarty, Sheriff L. H. Marrero, Hon. Leo A. Marrero, August Muller, Mike S. Hart, W. E. Clement, A. L. Freret, Senator Robert O'Connor, Dr. A. J. Babin, Wm. McEnery of Rock Island, Ill.

The officials of the company are: Leigh Carroll, president; L. H. Marrero, vice president; Robley S. Stearnes, superintendent. O. V. Verneault is chief engineer, R. Brunis assistant engineer, Leonard Miller line-man, J. K. Smith lineman, F. A. Daniels electrician, Thomas Fonseca, Fred Cook, M. E. Casey, C. Davis, E. Macaluso, H. Fink, T. B. Fears, E. B. Height, E. Lambert, M. Neeb, Wm. Thomas, J. J. Williams, H. Damon, J. Whelan, Ed. Buras, L. Cantin, H. Soulan, O. Lacoste, George Lecourt, and A. Winter, employees.

GIVES NOTICE ON WATER RATE BILLS.

Board Will Hold Owners Responsible For Tenants' Unpaid Accounts.

The sewerage and water board has issued the following circular letter, which is of importance to owners and agents of property occupied by tenants:

"We beg to hand you herewith blank forms which we would thank you to fill out and mail to us monthly, notifying us of the removal of tenants from such property as you represent.

"While all water bills are charged to the premises served, and under the law an unpaid water bill is a lien against the property to which the water is furnished, and when not paid by the occupant must be collected from the owner of the premises, it has always been the policy of this department to apply such regulations as broadly and as leniently as possible.

"As a protection to property owners we will gladly render bills to tenants and collect the water rates from them whenever possible, if so requested by the owner or his agent. With this end in view, if you will co-operate with us to the extent of notifying us, say, ten days in advance of the removal of any tenant, we shall take pleasure in reading the meter and rendering the bill to such tenant, and shall make every reasonable effort to enforce payment without having to call upon the owner.

"Where houses remain vacant the water will be closed off and all charges will cease, provided we receive such notice. It must, however, be distinctly understood that this action on our part is merely taken to protect the owners of premises where tenants have assumed the payment of the water bills, and must not be construed as a setting aside of any of our present regulations, or a disregard of the law under which we operate.

"In any case where we fail to receive notice ten days prior to the removal of tenants, or in any case where we find it impossible to collect water bill (even though such notice has been received) the water supply will be cut off and claim filed against the property.

"We are quite sure that your co-operation in this matter will not only greatly assist the work of this department, but will also be of material benefit to the owners whom you represent."
