New Orleans exempts factories from Taxation until 1916.

Algiers, the Fifth District of New Orleans, has several desirable sites for factories.

Capitalists will find it to their advantage to investigate.

BUSY MEETING.

Monday night at Pythian Hall the Algiers Improvement Association held their monthly meeting...

Regarding the roadway in Jefferson parish connecting Gretna with Algiers, the co-operation of the Association with the Police Jury...

In reference to placing two mail boxes at Teche and Newton streets and one at the Canal street ferry...

The most important subject before the Association Monday night was the matter of the violation of the franchise by the Southern Improvement & Ferry Company...

The order, which originates in the office of the postmaster general himself, authorizes postmasters throughout the country to deliver letters addressed to "Santa Claus..."

"Postmasters are authorized to deliver all letters arriving at their respective postoffices between December 16, 1911, and January 1, 1912, inclusive, which are addressed plainly and unmistakably to 'Santa Claus...'"

Secretary Peter Muntz of the Association offered his resignation on account of other duties which required his attention...

The plans and specifications for the new immigration station in this city, which have been hanging fire for the last five years...

After the Ferry Company.

It is evident that the determination of the business men here, in having the Southern Improvement & Ferry Company live up to their franchise...

At the meeting of the Association Monday night, where many business men expressed their disapproval of the methods of the Ferry Company...

The principal things that will be taken up with the Ferry Company by the Committee are as follows:

That the Company refuses to sell on this side of the river either school, wagon, or freight tickets.

That they are violating their franchise by operating a small boat very often when their franchise specifically states that they shall operate two large boats.

The poorly lighted approaches, ferry house, and ferry boats. The very steep approaches on either side of the river, making it inaccessible in low water...

The matter of furnishing change after certain hours will also be taken up. The changing of the ticket windows and the method of handling the passengers...

The dry sweeping of the boats in the morning hours at the time when it is usually crowded with young ladies going to their work...

It is not the object of the Algiers Improvement Association to harass any corporation. In other words, it is their mission to encourage and co-operate with corporations...

One of the biggest demonstrations ever given to a public man took place on Tuesday night when the good Democrats assembled at the Athenaeum...

Those who doubted that Michel would be nominated in the first primary, will no doubt be convinced now that it is only a matter of counting the votes.

FOR MICHEL.

The people have vindicated Michel of the Goo-Goo charges and his election is as certain as the sun.

SANTA CLAUS MAY DEMAND HIS MAIL.

Order Issued By Government Recognizes Him Officially.

In an order issued from the post-office department and just received in New Orleans, the government of the United States takes official cognizance of a gentleman whose reality has long been questioned by a skeptical generation...

The order, which originates in the office of the postmaster general himself, authorizes postmasters throughout the country to deliver letters addressed to "Santa Claus..."

Such letters, the order states, may be delivered by the postal authorities to any responsible individuals or institutions. The order in full follows:

"Postmasters are authorized to deliver all letters arriving at their respective postoffices between December 16, 1911, and January 1, 1912, inclusive, which are addressed plainly and unmistakably to 'Santa Claus...'"

Secretary Peter Muntz of the Association offered his resignation on account of other duties which required his attention...

MOREAU-DAVIS.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth I. Davis of Olivier street and Mr. Gaston T. Moreau of North Louisiana was solemnized Oct. 26, 1911, at 7:30 p. m., in the presbytery of St. Joseph's Church, Father Schultz officiating.

The bride was given to the keeping of the groom by Mr. Victor Sereline. The bride's only attendant was Miss Azema Ducoite. The groom was attended by Mr. D. J. Ducoite.

They were recipients of numerous and costly presents. The happy couple will make their home in New Orleans.

BECOMES MEMBER OF BOARD.

Peter E. Muntz, secretary of the Dock Board, was recently appointed a member of the board of directors of St. Mary's Orphan Boys' Asylum, located at Chartres and Mazant streets.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.

It is stated that the Interstate Trust & Banking Company, who are about to erect a new bank building in Opelousas avenue, are offering the Western Union Telegraph Company a part of this building for a telegraph office.

ROSEBUD CLUB.

Last week the members of the Rosebud Club were entertained at a Halloween party at the residence of Judge P. F. Hennessey, in Joliet street, Carrollton.

SAYS WILLIAMS IS NOT BACKING N. O., G. I. & S.

"If John Skelton Williams, the Seaboard Air Line director, has any notion of financing the New Orleans, Grand Island & Southern, I know absolutely nothing about it," said E. H. McCaleb, secretary-treasurer of the latter company.

Mr. McCaleb's statement came in reply to an inquiry relative to a report that Mr. Williams, who was in the city Sunday night, had come here to investigate and probably finance or buy outright the New Orleans, Grand Island & Southern, running from Algiers south.

POLICE ASSIGNMENTS.

The vacancy caused by the death of Patrolman Joseph M. Lacoste, who sacrificed his life when he heroically attempted to arrest the drug-crazed negro, James Edwards, on last Wednesday, was filled Saturday when Inspector James W. Reynolds assigned Patrolman Joseph O. Meyers to the detail on the Lower Coast.

MOUNT OLIVET NOTES.

The Girls' Friendly Society meets to-night at the residence of Miss Elizabeth Guillot, 118 Verret street. A full attendance is desired.

The members of Mrs. Slack's class will meet at the rectory to-morrow evening at 6:30 o'clock to discuss matters of importance in connection with the class work and the work of the future.

The Women's Jubilee of Foreign Missions is over, so far as the great meetings are concerned; it now remains to be proven what good they have been. We are glad to see that some of our members were present at these meetings, and only regret that many more failed to take advantage of the opportunity to hear the addresses of the foremost workers in the country...

Evidently the members of our branch of the Woman's Auxiliary forgot the date of the meeting, for so few were present last Tuesday night. The meeting of the Auxiliary will be on the first Tuesday of the month hereafter.

FIRST HUNDRED FOR LACOSTE

FUND—HERO DESERVES PUBLIC TRIBUTE.

The subscription for the family of the brave policeman, Joseph Lacoste, who died from wounds received while arresting a negro hoodlum, is growing slowly. Those who are protected by the police generally think that the small pay they receive is ample compensation in advance for any calamity that may come to them and their families...

Total $115.00

- Police Commissioner Joseph A. Hincks, in sending $25, wrote to the Picayune as follows: "The wonderful presence of mind displayed by this officer who, although mortally wounded, ordered the pilot of the ferry boat to steam to the middle of the river in order to place the passengers, including a large number of women and children on board, out of danger, is greatly to be commended, and is the deed of a good and faithful man."

I sincerely trust the public will respond generously to your appeal in behalf of the family of one who formed part of a corps of men, who, when the many dangers to which they are daily exposed are taken into account, are, unavoidably, so greatly underpaid."

Friday Night's Benefit.

The demand for tickets for Friday night at the Colonial Theatre for the benefit of the widows and orphans of Patrolman Lacoste, who was killed by the negro Edwards, indicates a capacity house.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 8th.

Mr. Conrad Kold, the popular and handsome proprietor of Kolb's German Tavern, celebrated the second anniversary of that well-known establishment at 125 St. Charles street. Mr. Kolb, before designing his present place of business, made a special trip to Germany in order to get the correct designs and that he has accomplished this is evidenced by a visit to this popular resort. During the celebration of the anniversary last night the following program was rendered:

Part I.

- 1. March, "German Tavern" (O. Finck), respectfully dedicated to Mr. C. Kolb. 2. Overture, "Der Freischutz" (Weber). 3. Waltz, "The Skaters" (Waldteufel). 4. Selection, "The Red Rose" (H. Bowers). 5. Humoresque (Doorak), violin solo by Mr. J. Sabadie. 6. Selection, "Tanhauser" (R. Wagner). 7. Wiener Pot Pourri (Kourzak).

Part II.

- 8. Overture, "William Tell" (Rossini). 9. Capriccioso (Schuett), piano solo by Mme. G. Lavedan. 10. Melodie (R. Trimi). 11. Waltz, "In a Dream" (Waldteufel). 12. (a) "Berceuse of Joclyn (Godard); (b) "The Rosary" (Nevin). Cello solo by Prof. Otto Finck. 13. Selection, "Lohengrin" (Wagner). 14. Overture, "America" (T. Moses). 15. "Beautiful Doll" (A. Brown).

VON BUELOW'S WIDOW LOANS SUIT. Recovering Insurance—Widow's Suit On $1,000 Insurance Policy Fails.

Judge King in the civil court today handed down a decision in the suit of Exilda Von Buelow vs. Life Insurance Company of Virginia, an action brought by the widow to recover under a life insurance policy for $1,000 issued to her husband, ward W. Von Buelow, who committed suicide. The court found that the evidence adduced substantiated the defense set up—suicide—and so judgment for the defendant insurance company.

In deciding the case the court ruled in part: "The law in this state is in an action on a life policy, when the defense is self-destruction, the burden of proof is on the insurer to establish the suicide and when circumstantial evidence only is relied on, the burden falls, unless the circumstances are such with reasonable certainty as to establish the death by accident, or by act of another."

The insured, Edward W. Von Buelow, who was of German descent, and who was said to be a relative of German Chancellor, was employed as a revenue inspector by the United States government. He was married to a negro with whom he had three children. On Nov. 2, 1909, and his wife were charged with violating the concubinage law, were arrested, pleaded not guilty, and were released on bond. He left his home Nov. 1, 1909, and was not seen until his dead body was found in a pistol bullet hole in his right breast. In his pocket was found a note, indicating that his body was delivered to his wife. The pistol was not found. Two brothers named Oliver, two thieves, were arrested for robbing the body, and confessed to having shot the pistol with which Von Buelow had committed suicide. These facts satisfied the court of the sufficiency of the evidence, and the judgment in favor of the plaintiff was given.
