UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. STATE OF LOUISIANA, PARISH OF OR LEANS, CITY OF NEW ORLEANS.

Be it known, that on this thirtieth day of the mouth of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-sixth, before me, Andre Lafargue, a notary public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the parish of Orleans, state of Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereinafter mentioned and hereunto subscribed, all of the full age of majority, who severally declared that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of the state of Louisiana relating to the formation and organizan relating to the formation and organizan relating to the formation and organizan and agreed and do, by these presents, covenant and agree and bind themselves, as well as all other persons who may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute themselves into a corporation under the articles and stipulations following, to-wit:

corporation is formed, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are as follows:

To manufacture, buy, sell, import, export and generally deal in pianos, organs and all kinds of musical instruments; to sell and lease musical instruments; to sell and lease musical instruments and any and all parts thereof; to manufacture, buy, sell, import, export and generally deal in all kinds of machinery, supplies, implements, appliances, substances and materials incidental to or entering into the manufacture of pianos, organs and musical instruments; to purchase or otherwise acquire any interest in and to patents, concessions and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right, or any secret or other information as to any invention in relation to musical instruments of any kind; to buy and sell sheet music, to acquire individually or by purchase from others copyrights on musical compositions; and to have generally all the power usually incident to carry on such business.

ARTICLE IV.

The amount of the capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($190,000.000, which shall be divided into common and preferred stock. Of the common there shall be one thousand (1,000) shares, of the par value of fifty dollars ($50.00) each; and of value of fifty dollars ($50.00) each; and of value of fifty dollars ($50.00) each; and of any proper to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation.

pato, for money advanced, and for such other valuable consideration or services as the board of directors of the corporation may determine, provided that no stock shall be issued until the consideration therefor has been received by the said corporation.

Any stockholder may sell, assign or transfer his stock in this corporation, provided thirty (30) days' notice of such intention to sell, assign or transfer the same be given the company, and the stockholders thereof shall have the first privilege of purchasing the same, after which thirty days' notice, the stock may be sold in the open market. The stock of said corporation may be transferred under the above conditions, provided such transfer be made on the books of said company, at its office in New Orieans, and on surender of the certificate therefor. No transfer of any fractional part of a share shall be made.

This corporation shall commence doing business as soon as capital stock to the amount of three thousand dollars ($3,000) shall have been subscribed for.

ARTICLE V.

ARTICLE V.

The corporate powers of this company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of five directors, consisting of the president, vice-president and three stockholders, three of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and their decisions shall be all corporate acts. The offices of secretary and treasurer shall be filled by one person, who need not be a stockholder, but may be appointed by the board of directors. The first board of directors shall be composed of the following: Messrs. Frank McLaughlin, Saul Moos, Victor E. Deimel, Frank J. Lobrano and Richard W. Cummings, with Frank McLaughlin as president, and Saul Moos as vice-president. Said board shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. During the absence of the president the vice-president shall preside.

The annual election of the board of directors shall take place on the first Monday of February of each year, commencing with the year 1913. Whenever the said day shall be a holiday, the election shall be held on the next legal day thereafter. Notice of said election shall be given by at least ten (10) days' written notice by registered mall sent to each stockholder of record at his known address on the books of the company; and such notice shall be legal and valid in all of its phases; and the board of directors shall appoint two of the stockholders to preside at such election as commissioners. In the event of failure of any commissioner or commissioners to attend the president shall, by appointment, fill the vacancy. Any failure from any cause whatever to elect directors the day named for that purpose shall not dissolve the corporation, but the directors the day named for that purpose shall not dissolve the corporation, but the directors then in office, as well as the officers of the company shall hold over until their successors are chosen. In such event, the president shall cause another election to be held within thirty days and shall give notice thereof as hereinbefore prov or the welfare of the same. The said board is further authorized to frame and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations as the affairs of the corporation may require, and as it may deem necessary for the conduct-ing of the business of the corporation; fix as it may deem necessary for the conducting of the bisiness of the corporation; fix their compensation, term of office, with the right to dismiss them at said board's pleasure; and said board shall have the right to fix and determine the salaries of the officers herein provided for.

The members of the board of directors may act by proxy at meetings of the said board, and may confer their proxies on other members of said board.

ARTICLE VII.

ARTICLE VII.

This charter may be changed, modified or amended, the capital stock increased or decreased, or this corporation may be dissolved, at a general meeting of the stock holders, with the assent of three-fourths of the capital stock, whether present or represented at such meeting. For days prior notice of said meeting shall be given by registered mail to each stockholder of record on the books of the company.

In case of dissolution or termination of the corporation, either by limitation of its charter or from any cause, the liquidation of its affairs shall be conducted by three commissioners selected from the stockholders with like assent, and at a meeting called for that purpose as above set forth. Said commissioner shall remain in office until the affairs of said company shall have been fully liquidated. In case of the death or incapacitation of one or more of said commissioners, the survior or survivors shall continue to act.

ARTICLE VIII.

ARTICLE VIII.

No stockholder of this corporation shall be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults thereof, in any further som than the unpaid balance due the company on the shares of stock subscribed for or owned by him; nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering the charter null, or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance of any liability beyond the unpaid balance of any of his stock.

The subscribers hereto have written opposite their names the number of shares subscribed for, so that this act may also serve as the original subscription list.

Thus done and passed at my notarial office in the city of New Orleans, on the day, month and year first above written, in the presence of Messieurs William A. Bell and Fred L. Roser, competent witnesses of lawful age and residents of this city, who hereunto sign their names together with the said parties and me, notary, after reading of the whole.
