WHY? THEY'RE THE DEAREST GROCERY HOUSE SOUTH.

Now this is a reputation we delight in enjoying, not because an investigation will prove it true, but because our maintaining a house of quality leaves this impression, and keeps us out of this class of cheap and shoddy merchandising.

TO BOOST ALGIERS.

The Progressive Union to Assist us to Boost.

Secretary Trezevant has made arrangements to have a luncheon on October 23rd at the Progressive Union Hall at noon for the purpose of starting a boost for our town. The following letter from the secretary is self-explanatory:

(Copy)

October 14, 1912.

Mr. J. W. Lennox, President Algiers Improvement Association, Algiers, Louisiana.

My Dear Mr. Lennox:

The Progressive Union wishes to set aside Wednesday, October 23rd, for Algiers Day, for the purpose of boosting the west side of the river. We want you, as President of the Algiers Improvement Association, to be our personal guest and to speak for your organization. We will ask Mayor Behrman, both as Mayor and as a resident of Algiers, to attend and speak, and one or two others. The luncheon will be from 12:15 to 1:15 and is not permitted to go over one hour. We adhere to this rule because of the necessity for the business men to get back to their offices.

I trust that this plan will be agreeable to you and with the proper press work we not only can insure a good attendance but create a great deal of interest and disseminate a great deal of information concerning Algiers.

Please let me hear from you at once, and oblige.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) M. B. Trezevant,
Secretary-Manager.

FIREBUG.

A firebug was at work in Algiers Wednesday of last week. About 1 o'clock in the morning a passerby discovered smoke coming from under the cottage owned and occupied by Pauline Billy, colored, at 414 Diana street. He aroused the inmates of the house and assisted them in extinguishing a fire that had been set under the building with paper and kindling wood. A damage of about $15 was done by the flames. The police were notified of the case, and in turn notified the fire marshal, who set about making an investigation and trying to ascertain the identity of the incendiary.

Dryades Street Store Aided in Observation by Many Patrons.

The fourth anniversary celebration of the Economy Company, 1618-1620 Dryades street, held Saturday and Sunday night, was highly successful. Large crowds were in attendance all during the day and until 10 o'clock at night, when the doors were closed.

A special program of music was a feature of the celebration. Professor Gluck's orchestra gave selections at regular intervals. Handsome souvenirs were given to ladies who went to view the fall fashions in wearing apparel.

The store was elaborately decorated and flowers from Mr. Bloom's friends were received.
