Euchre and lotto were played and the following were the successful players: Ladies' first, a hand-painted cake set, Mrs. J. Abbott got the entrance prize, a beautiful stein.

SEWING CIRCLE ENTERTAINED.

On Saturday evening, Dec. 21st, Mrs. Dora Daniels entertained "The Sewing Circle" at their annual Christmas tree. The hall was decorated in reds and evergreens; in the parlor was a beautiful Christmas tree, around which was many beautiful gifts for the guests. Old Santa Claus made his appearance about 8 o'clock, much to the delight of everyone present. After Santa presented each guest with numerous presents, they retired to the spacious dining room where a light supper was served. The table was decorated in the Yuletide colors, and a miniature Christmas tree, which was lighted with many small candles, adorned the center of the table. The following guests were present: Misses Katie and Halcyon Rhodes, Eugenia Herbert, Irma Daniels, Ruth Pettigrove, May Hafkesbring, Ione Lampton, Emma and Ethel Rhodes, Inez and Irva Daniels, and Daisy Daniels; Mrs. T. P. Bell, Mrs. Anton Lauman, Mrs. W. A. Nelson, Mrs. R. L. Riley, Mrs. Kate Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Daniels.

JEW FISH COURT BOUILLION.

On Friday night in the Masonic Hall the members of that Fraternity were treated to a Jew Fish Court Bouillion. The big fish weighed 102 pounds and was a gift of Capt. Manson of the Revenue Cutter Davey. The big fish was prepared by John Couget and Ben Borne, who are the stewards of Sts. John Lodge. Besides the big fish there were other delicacies on the table for those who were lucky enough to be able to enjoy the feast. Mr. E. W. Burgis acted as toastmaster and while there were several impromptu speeches made, the principal address of the evening was delivered by Buddy French, who gave a lengthy discourse on Women's Suffrage. Since Mr. French has been in Texas he has been thoroughly won over to the Women's cause and he is now trying to convert the balance of Sts. John Lodge. There were about forty present at the meeting and all enjoyed the little repast and especially the spirit that prevailed at the time.

OLD GREY MULE.

The old grey mule so often impounded by the Algiers police, and until recently claimed by Mrs. Lily Martinez, was put to death in the yard in the rear of the Algiers courthouse Wednesday. For years the animal has been an eyesore on the streets of the Fifth District, and every now and then the police would drive it to the pound. Ten days ago the animal was put in the pen and no one came to claim it. Arrangements were being made to offer it for sale, when Dr. White, the department veterinarian, after an examination, declared it unfit for use and ordered it killed. This was done humanely by a representative of the Louisiana State Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, but it required a large quantity of strychnine to do it.

POLICE ORDERED TO STOP BAR-ROOM RAFFLES.

Commissioner Newman Saturday gave instructions to the police to at once stop the practice of conducting raffles of candy and other things at cigar stores, in barrooms and other places. Mr. Newman said he had received numerous complaints of dealers and others who objected to the raffling, and as he considered it against the law he had decided to stop it. He said the order would not be made to apply to raffles for charitable purposes. One of the objections to the practice as brought to Mr. Newman's attention is that it permits dealers who hold licenses for another business to compete with confectioners and others.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At an interesting meeting of the Workingmen's Union and Benevolent Association at Pythian Hall Wednesday night the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John Schroder, president; August C. Briel, vice president; Adolph Spitzfaden, Jr., recording secretary; Ed E. Babin, financial secretary; Charles E. Hildebrand, treasurer; George G. Brunssann grand marshal; Paul Gautreaux, sergeant-at-arms; Dr. James E. Pollock, physician; E. J. Mothe, undertaker.

WAGON DAMAGED.

A wagon belonging to Peter Castaing, a baker in Teche street, near Newton, was run into by car No. 2 of the Algiers and Gretna line, in charge of Motorman Daly and Conductor Pougere, Wednesday afternoon in front of the bakery, and was damaged to the extent of $85. A valuable horse attached to the wagon was so badly injured that it had to be moved to a veterinary hospital.

BAKERY CLOSED.

The bakery belonging to Peter Castaing at 924 Teche street was condemned and ordered closed by Dr. E. A. White, chief food inspector of the City Board of Health, Thursday. The doctor reported that he found the place in a most insanitary condition. There was a manure pile on the premises, which were otherwise in a most filthy condition, and there was a strong odor of roaches in the receptacle in which the bread and cakes were baked.

OWL CAR.

The Algiers Railways Co. have announced that during the holidays their patrons will have the service of an owl car at their disposal. The last car will leave Gretna for Algiers at 12:15 a. m. and will leave Gretna for Amesville at 1:45 a. m., leaving Amesville for the return trip at 2 a. m. The service has been temporarily inaugurated for the special benefit of those who are out late during the holidays.

NEGRO, 106, FOUND STARVING IN HUT.

In the last stage of senile decrepitude and his mind almost a blank from old age, James Francois, a genuine specimen of the old dinky of ante-bellum days, was found starving in a shack in Hine's Lane by Mounted Officer Joseph Myers early Friday morning. The old negro was taken to the Charity Hospital.

He says that he is 106 years old. He looks as though he was a mummy brought to life again. He was born on a plantation, near Bayou Lafourche.

"Ah kaint jus' member when Ah was bawn, er mah mastah's name," said the old man at the hospital. "Them things has done slipped mah min'. Ah lived all mah life on the plantation, near Bayou Lafourche till a few years ago. Aftah massah an' all his kinfolk died, Ah lef' an' went tuh Texas, an' times got mighty hard. Nobody wanted tuh have a ole man aroun' and Ah jus' drifted."

He never married.

"SPARE THE ROD, SPOIL THE CHILD."

"A man is only an enlargement of the boy germ. The ideals of the man are built into this boy germ usually between the ages of 8 and 18 years. The same is true of the girl. If weeds are allowed to grow in the boy's or girl's heart they will mature a useless crop in the man or woman."

About 25 years ago a few old maids and a few volatile senseless mothers started the campaign of discontinuing the switch in the home and the public school.

They raised the yell of "brutality" and "cruelty" and cried out for a "higher civilization." They took the "hickory withe" out of the hands of the father and the school master and loaded them down with "salutary lectures." They took the "shingle and slipper" from the mother's hand and loaded her down with "kisses." The result is a generation of juvenile outlaws and desperadoes. The "juvenile court" has been moved from the home, where it belongs, and placed in the hands of those so bound up by restrictions of law that the thing is an unworkable ridiculous farce.

The "reform school" belongs in the home, and is a pitiful effeminate farce when moved from the home, where it belongs.—Rev. John A. Stevens, in Baton Rouge Advocate.

MEETING OF THE APOSTLESHIP OF PRAYER.

On Wednesday, the 18th inst., the Promoters of the Apostleship of Prayer held their monthly meeting in the parlors of the presbytery. Rev. Fr. Cassagne, the spiritual director, gave the members a very impressive little instruction, urging them to do all in their power to promote the interests of the organization. It was decided that in future the Holy Hour exercises would be held on the first Friday at 7:30 p. m., Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:15 p. m., instead of on the first Sunday at 4:30, as formerly. Towards the close of the meeting the Rev. Father extended his heartiest good wishes to all those present for a Merry Christmas and a very happy New Year, and before the adjournment of the meeting the president, Mrs. C. Cline, rose and presented Fr. Cassagne with a little gift from the members of the Apostleship of Prayer. There were about twenty Promoters at the meeting.

OLD BANK OPENS NEW QUARTERS

On Monday, in their new brick and terra cotta building in Opelousas avenue and Bouny street, the Algiers branch of the Interstate Trust & Banking Company opened its doors to the public, all spick and span in new attire. Mrs. Lee G. Lowe, the assistant cashier in charge, was on hand to extend welcome to the many friends and patrons. The clerks and other attaches of the bank were all on hand and they seemed delighted with their new surroundings. There was everything new. There was even on hand quite a lot of new money that had never been spent.

The opening of the new bank also marks the twelfth anniversary of the establishment of a banking institution in our district. Their many customers will appreciate the handy location, and it will also facilitate business people in transacting their banking business, being centrally located in our district. The Interstate Trust & Banking Company deserve congratulations.

The erection of two permanent banking institutions in our district is a mark of confidence of those who have given our district a study, and it speaks well for its future.

ORANGE CAMP CHRISTMAS TREE.

Orange Camp No. 8, Woodmen of the World, held a Christmas tree celebration at Pythian Hall on Tuesday, the 24th inst., where more than three hundred children of members of the camp were made happy through the distribution of toys from Santa Claus. The success of this, the first celebration of its kind ever attempted by any of the local organizations, insures the repeating of the celebration annually.

To merely mention the fact that the children were happy in being fortunate enough to participate in this event would be mildly putting the side before our readers, if the expressions as borne by their countenances were to be taken as a criterion as regards their inner feelings. The spirit of the occasion was admirably added to, through the tasteful decorations which hung within the hall, and around the tree; and the merriment which abounded among the children told a gleeful story in full. Old Santa Claus in his well known and usual generous manner distributed the toys in an unselfish and impartial manner, reminding the recipients of their habits during the past year, and requesting an improvement of them in the ensuing year should they desire to participate in a similar celebration one year hence.

Much thanks and credit are due to some of Orange Camp members who so ably assisted the committee in bringing the innovation to such a successful termination.

Aside from the distribution of toys there was vocal and instrumental selections for the enjoyment of all, and liquid refreshments of an appetizing kind for the grownups—and all in all the affair proved what had been claimed for it—a monster success. The committee having the affair in charge was composed of Chas. J. Donner, chairman; L. F. Gisch, ex-officio; F. C. Hynel, Jas. H. Kepper, A. Spitzfaden, W. F. Sperier, Chas. M. McCloskey and Geo. G. Brunssann.
