ADAMS' HATS.

WEEKLY GRIND.

BY THE PLAIN MAN.

DISCIPLINING THE POLICE.

Superintendent of Police Reynolds has shown of late that he will not stand for grafters or "mutton-heads" on the police force. The supernumerary patrolman who walked into a Canal street shoe store and took two pairs of shoes away with him after the clerk had refused to give him the shoes, was summarily dismissed from the force, and will also have to face the charge of petty larceny in the courts.

The patrolman who detained for half an hour a physician who was hurrying to attend a patient, showed very poor judgment. As the Superintendent told him, he could just as well have taken the number of the machine, let the physician proceed on his way, and filed an affidavit afterwards. The patrolman was fined five days' pay, and let off light, considering that he had put a human life in jeopardy.

THE CRUSADE AGAINST VICE.

The "Vice Commission" hearing in Chicago brought forth to the public gaze, to say the least, a harrowing state of affairs. Scores of witnesses were heard—men, women, and children told their stories. The business men—employers of girls and women—who testified, were of the opinion that low wages had little or nothing to do with the tendency of girls to go wrong.

And so the stories ran. In my opinion, low wages has much to do with the prevalence of vice. The instinct of the female is to adorn herself. She inherits this from her most remote ancestors. Above every other consideration she wants to appear well. And it is her right. The working girl gets her example from the wives and daughters of the millionaires who work her endless hours each week for most pitiful wages, while they themselves continue to pile up millions.

But the girl who said that "vicious men" were at the bottom of this sea of vice told much truth. These two-legged animals, sometimes even called men, infest every place where a pure girl may tread. They are found in the factories, the stores, the shops, at the corners, inveigling, coaxing, pleading, promising—forever plying their infamous trade, never halting until they have a victim in their clutches, and dragged her down to hell; and when they have a surfeit of one victim, they are ever ready for another. These human hyenas exist in droves, and the girl was again right when she said, "the law smiles at one and spits at the other."

Better wages should do much to alleviate the evil; but the principal remedy is in the hands of the good men and women of the country. Let the right thinking, pure-minded men and women ostracize, shun, drive from their midst these parasites who prey on womanly virtue, and open their hearts to the poor victims, and the era of vice will soon be over.

IN MEMORIAM.

Gussie Cox.

As the Sabbath day was drawing to a close we laid him away, his dear little form robed in purest white. Spotless flowers—emblem of his untainted soul—and the Savior's cross—symbol of his faith—were clasped in the little fingers now folded and still in the sweet repose of death.

It was a sad parting for those who loved him and cherished him so dearly; and it was a sad homecoming to face the numberless things that were his, to feel the aching void in the little circle, and to know that his bright smile would not greet us again and that we should no more feel the press of his warm lips or the loving clasp of his gentle arms.

"Don't let mamma know I'm hurt; it will worry her," he pleaded when he realized that he was injured and bleeding. None knew better than we the spirit that moved him to this appeal. Though wounded unto death, he walked home unaided to his loved ones, bearing his little body and soul bravely through the ordeal and nobly battling his pain—because he loved us and would suffer much in silence rather than bring anguish to a mother's heart.

As we print the parting kiss of undying love upon the fair, cold brow and return him to the keeping of the Great Giver who has permitted us to cherish our possession for so brief a space of earthly years, perhaps we marvel at

METHODIST NOTES.

Rev. E. N. Evans preached morning and night at the Methodist church. His theme in the morning was the "Justice and Mercy of God" and at night, "Repentance." The two services were highly commended and in spite of the cold weather, the size of the audience was good.

Rev. Brown is assisting in a revival at Mooringsport, La., but expects to return before Easter Sunday.

DANIELS REVERSES ORDERS OF MEYER.

Secretary Daniels has reconsidered the recommendation of his predecessor and the naval general board that certain Southern navy-yards and stations be abandoned in the interest of economy, and has decided that no change will be made in the status of the Southern yards until he has had an opportunity personally to visit them and make a close study of their condition. This will be done in the course of a month or two.

RENECKY SELLS THE FAMOUS ELK SKIN SHOES.

OF THE STANDARD REMEDY COMPANY, INCORPORATED. UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, STATE OF LOUISIANA, PARISH OF ORLEANS, CITY OF NEW ORLEANS. Be known that on this eighteenth day of the month of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, before me, Robert Legier, a notary public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the parish of Orleans, state of Louisiana, aforesaid, there appeared and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undesignated, personally came and appeared: the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this state, relative to the organization of corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and do, by these presents, covenant and agree, bind, form and constitute themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter join, or become associated with them, into a corporation and body politic in law, for the purposes and purposes, and objects, and agreements and stipulations following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I. The name and style of this corporation shall be the STANDARD REMEDY COMPANY, INCORPORATED. The name of the corporation shall be and shall have and enjoy all the rights, advantages and privileges granted by law to corporations of this kind, and shall have power to contract, sue and be sued in the name of the corporation, and to execute, seal, and use a corporate seal, and the same to attach or put on any instrument, and to hold, receive, purchase, convey, mortgage and hypothecate property, real, personal or mixed, and to execute notes and other obligations; to have and employ such managers, officers, directors, agents, clerks, and other employees, as may be deemed necessary for the management and control of the affairs of said corporation as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

ARTICLE II. The domicile of said corporation shall be in the parish of Orleans, state of Louisiana, and all citations and other legal process shall be served on the president, and in his absence or inability to act on the vice-president or general manager.

ARTICLE III. The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are hereby declared to be: to buy, sell, manufacture or distribute, in or out of the state, a full count of others, all kinds of drugs, chemicals and medicines, whether patent, proprietary or otherwise; to purchase, sell, import, export, distribute or otherwise, all kinds of drugs, chemicals and medicines, whether in the original or manufactured form, and to sell, lease, rent or hire, for its own use or for the account of others, a store or stores, or the sale at wholesale or retail of said drugs, medicines or chemicals, or generally to do and perform or engage in any business, undertaking or enterprise, in or out of the state, which may be incidental to any of the objects and purposes hereinabove set forth or contemplated by or in pursuance of this charter.

ARTICLE IV. The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars, divided into thirty (30) shares of the par value of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each, which shall be paid for in cash, or may be issued at a discount, but not for services rendered to or property actually purchased by this corporation.

All shares of stock shall be full paid and non-assessable. No transfer of stock shall be binding upon the corporation unless made upon its book, and all certificates of stock shall be signed by such officers as may be designated by the board of directors.

ARTICLE V. All the corporate powers of this company shall be vested in and managed by a board of directors, who shall have and exercise the control of its business and affairs shall be exercised by a board of directors to be composed of five stockholders, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business. The directors shall be elected annually, by ballot of the stockholders, on the second Tuesday of March of each year. Each stockholder shall be entitled in person or by written proxy to one vote on each share of stock owned by him and standing in his name on the books of the corporation, and a majority of the votes cast shall constitute a majority of the stockholders. Any vacancy in the office of a director shall be filled by the stockholders, who may be determined by the board of directors, and the board of directors shall have the right to elect a director to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of the said board of directors, and at its first meeting after its election, elect from among its number a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. It may also have the right to appoint and discharge such clerks, managers and other employees of the corporation, including the secretary who shall be considered as a stockholder, if he is not a stockholder of the corporation may require. The tenure of office of all the employees of the corporation shall be determined by the pleasure of the board of directors.

ARTICLE VI. No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts, debts or obligations of this corporation, nor shall any one be liable for the debts or obligations of the corporation, or for the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the unpaid balance due on the shares of stock owned by him.

ARTICLE VII. This act of incorporation may be changed, modified or altered, or this corporation may be dissolved with the assent of the stockholders owning a majority of all of the stock of the corporation at a general meeting convened for that purpose after notice shall have been given to each stockholder as provided for in article V of this act of incorporation. In case of the dissolution by the expiration of this charter or otherwise, the stockholders shall elect three liquidators from among their number, or the liquidators shall be appointed by the court, to settle the business and affairs of the company, and in case of the death or inability of any of said commissioners, the survivor or survivors shall appoint a successor to him.

ARTICLE VIII. Until the election to be held in March, 1914, the following stockholders shall constitute the first board of directors, viz: Paul Conrad, R. de los Reyes, M. Paul Julian, Frederick Burt and Charles Carmonche, with the said Paul Conrad as secretary-treasurer and the said Frederick Burt as vice-president and general manager.

This done and passed at my office in the city of New Orleans, on the day, month and year first above written, in the presence of Theodore A. Beck and John P. Calais, both of the parish of Orleans, state of Louisiana, who have hereunto signed, competent witnesses, and the said Paul Conrad, secretary-treasurer, and the said Frederick Burt, vice-president, and the said Charles Carmonche, general manager, and me, notary, after due reading of the whole. (Original signed): Paul Conrad, 6 shares; Frederick Burt, 6 shares; Chas. Carmonche, 6 shares; M. P. Julian, 6 shares; R. de los Reyes, 6 shares; R. de los Reyes, Jno. P. Calais. ROBERT LEGIER, Not. Pub. Louisiana, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing act of incorporation of the Standard Remedy Company, Incorporated, was this day duly recorded in my office in New Orleans, La., March 19th, 1913. (Signed): EMILE LEONARD, D. R. A true copy from the original act. mch 20 27 ap 3 10 17 24 1913

ADAMS' HATS.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY AT CHURCH OF THE HOLY NAME OF MARY.

Sons and daughters of Ireland and their descendants assembled in large numbers in the Church of the Holy Name of Mary, last Sunday morning, and celebrated in a religious manner the feast day of St. Patrick, instead of Monday, because it was regarded as the best arrangement for all concerned.

It was 11:40 before the mass commenced, the delay being due to a desire to wait for Archbishop Blenk, who was coming into the city on a train that was more than twenty-four hours overdue. When he did get in the distinguished prelate was too fatigued and he reluctantly notified Father Larkin that it would be impossible to attend.

Bishop John E. Gunn, who came on the same train, and who was scheduled to preach, came directly over to Algiers, and despite the inconvenience he suffered, he kept his appointment and preached a panegyric on St. Patrick that was a gem in every sense of the word. Bishop Gunn took for his subject "Reflections Suggested by St. Patrick's Day."

Bishop Laval was present in the sanctuary. There were the following priests as well: Fathers Larkin, Casagne, Delaire, Walshe, O' Donovan and Heffernan. The mass was celebrated by Father Frainaud, a French Marist father, who is here temporarily. The music was very elaborate. The choir was augmented by a large number of singers. In addition to the sacred music Irish airs were rendered.

Procession to the Church.

At the Canal Street ferry landing the members of the state and county boards, as well as the divisions and ladies' auxiliaries of the Hibernalians, were met by the officers and members of Division No. 3, from Algiers. A procession was formed, headed by Siegfried's Band and the drum corps from the Holy Name Juniors, with Andy Green as grand marshal, and it marched over the principal streets of the Fifth District, ending at the church, afterwards preceding the clergy into the edifice when mass was commenced.

The following are the officers of the Division No. 3, from the Holy Name of Mary Church: F. H. Killen, president; W. J. Burke, vice-president; W. S. Murphy, recording secretary; John E. Collins, treasurer.

MANUAL TRAINING CLASS.

Our present school system recognizing the fact that head and hand should be trained together, organized Manual Training classes for the boys of the seventh and eighth grades in our public schools.

The boys of our district eagerly took advantage of this course and some very fine constructive work was the result, but of late the attendance in these classes has dwindled, not from lack of interest in the work, but from the inconvenience in getting to class. As we are all aware, there are four centers of manual training; the boys of this district are compelled to go to Jackson school, which is a considerable distance; they must cross and recross the river; pass three railroad crossings, besides many have quite a distance to walk on this side of the river before they reach the ferry. Thus the trip takes up a large and valuable part of the time that should be devoted to their regular studies.

Manual training trains the judgment and executive faculty, so this course is of incalculable aid towards the child's future welfare because it directs his activity, thus laying the foundation for a useful citizen.

As Algiers is an industrial center, and our boys evince a desire of availing themselves of the benefits of this course, and last but not least time is an all important item in school work, the question arises whether it is wise to suffer the continuance of this loss, or whether it would not be better to establish a training school in this, the Fifth District. We earnestly request the parents of our boys, especially the fathers, to be present at the lecture by R. F. Ragan, of Tulane University, in McDonogh No. 4 Tuesday, April 1, at eight o'clock p. m., and give this subject due consideration.

DIED

VALLETTE.—On Sunday, March 16, Frank Vallette died at the Charity Hospital after an illness of several months. Deceased was a native of Algiers and was seventy-two years old. He is survived by a sister, Miss Zulma Vallette, and by two sons, Gordon and Walter, and by one daughter, Mrs. Chas. Morse and other relatives. The funeral was private from the residence of Mrs. Frank Klienkemper, 343 Verret Street, interment was in Firemen's Cemetery.

WARNKEN.—On Saturday at 1:30 o'clock p. m., William Warnken died after a short illness. Deceased was a native of Algiers, having been born here twenty-five years ago. He was the son of the late Clara Hantel and Charles Warnken. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his father, 615 Belleville Street. Interment was in McDonoghville Cemetery.

DUBRET.—On Wednesday, March 12, Mrs. Frank Dubret, nee Christine Wiltermore, died at the age of seventy-six years. Deceased was a native of New Orleans. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late residence, 329 Opelousas Avenue. Delegations from the various railroad organizations and of Orange Camp, W. O. W., attended the funeral. Interment was in McDonoghville Cemetery.

PUISSAN.—The will of Miss Emance Puissean, written by the testatrix in the French language, was probated Friday. The testatrix leaves all of which she may die possessed to Amelia Steinhart.

Miss Puissean was a resident at the Cut-Off Road for many years. She sold her farm last spring and moved to the city. Her sister, Miss Irma, died last year. Their parents were Dr. Pierre Puissean and Mrs. Puissean, nee Fortier. All are interred in the St. Louis Cemetery on Claiborne St. Dr. Puissean was a noted physician in the old times in New Orleans.

CARRUBA.—On Sunday Samuel Carruba died at the age of four years. Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosario Carruba of 600 Olivier Street.

SCHODOWSKY.—On Sunday morning, at her home in Alexander Street, Mrs. Gus Schodowsky, nee Agnes Byrnes, formerly of Algiers, met with a sudden death caused by apoplexy. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Byrnes, who lived in Algiers for many years, but moved to the city side some eight or ten years ago. Mrs. Schodowsky was buried from the home of her parents, 127 S. Hennessey St., the funeral being private and the interment in the Greenwood Cemetery. Mrs. Schodowsky is survived by her husband, her son, Louis, father and mother, two brothers and one sister, and a number of close relatives.

MOUNT OLIVET NOTES.

Today being Maundy Thursday, or the day which the Church keeps in remembrance of the commands of our blessed Lord "Do this in remembrance of me," there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. Tomorrow, Good Friday, there will be service at 10:00 a. m. when the rector will officiate, and at 7:30 p. m. the Rev. A. R. Edbrooke, rector of Grace Church, will preach.

On Easter Sunday there will be two celebrations of the Holy Communion, at 7:00 and 10:00 a. m., the sermon will be preached at 10:00 a. m., when the full choir will assist. The confirmation class of this year is expected to receive their first communion at the 7:00 a. m. service.

The offering this Easter will be for the purpose of liquidating the debts of the parish, and as stated in the letter of the rector to the families of the congregation we hope for an offering that will mean self-denial. We owe the Goodrich Fund a neat little sum, and it is hoped that some payment can be made on that amount so that the fund can assist the destitute congregation at Plaquemine, which has just lost by fire its church and rectory buildings.

The rector officiated at the baptism of Frank Baril, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baril, last Sunday, the sponsors being Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCurdy.

Remember the congregational meeting next Monday night. All are invited. At this time the reports of the rector and officers of the parish will be made and the officers for the ensuing year elected.

Our sympathy goes out to the family of Mrs. Dubret on her death last week. May she find rest in that day. Children's service Easter at 4 p. m. There was an interesting meeting of the Woman's Guild at the rectory last Tuesday night. Owing to a misunderstanding there were not many present, but quite an interesting time was had.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Mrs. W. Daley announced to her friends that she has removed her notion store and milk depot from the corner of Alix and Olivier streets to the corner of Pacific and Sidelld avenues, and asks for a continuance of their trade.

MARIST PRIEST RETURNS.

Father Frainaud, the Marist priest, who came here from Holland en route to a small mission center near Mexico City, and was detained by Father Larkin until information could be gotten from the Mexican provincial, but finally started for his assignment, has returned to Algiers because it was impossible for him to go further than El Paso.

He does not speak English, but from his description in French the condition of the Mexican country is certainly awful. All railroads are closed to traffic, and the steamship lines to Vera Cruz have more applications for transportation than they can possibly accommodate. For the present Father Frainaud will remain at the Marist house, in the Fifth District. He is greatly handicapped because of his inability to speak English. His future plans will not be known until he receives further instructions. He seems anxious to go to the missionary work, feeling that he could be of more service there.
