LYRIC THEATRE.

For the spring and summer season at the Lyric Theatre, Mr. Peruchi announces a series of melodramatic successes that have made good here and elsewhere and are sure to please the patrons and pack the playhouse at each performance. These were started this week when "A Deserted Bride" was selected and has filled the theatre, coming close to breaking all the records.

Mr. Peruchi states that this class of attractions appeals to the masses and although there are many thrilling scenes and startling features, the underlying plot is helpful because as a rule the moral is worthy of emulation and may be applied to all walks of life.

A large number of electric fans are being installed and other means taken to assure the comfort of the patrons during the heated term. It will be Mr.
Peruchi's aim to have summer stock and this rests with the patrons—if they give the proper support and back up his efforts to afford high-class entertainment at popular prices.

The company will be enlarged and specialties will be introduced to make the performances even more attractive.

Commencing Sunday, April 13, "Why Girls Leave Home," one of the best-known melodramas written in recent years, will be the play to be offered by the talented company. Its plot is so well known that it need not be repeated now. The Peruchi-Gypzene Stock Company is excellently equipped to present it in a first-class manner and a production with which no fault can be found is certain.

Mabel Gypzene and Stewart E. Wilson will sing and dance in their exceptionally clever manner, using songs that have become popular.

Some Melodramas Coming.

Mr. Peruchi announces the following list of shows that will be played soon:
"Why Women Sin," "Beyond Pardon," "Her Marriage Vows," "Confessions of a Wife," "Beware of Men," "Dora Thorne," "Tempest and Sunshine," "The Curse of Drink," "Convict 999." Each of them will be produced with special scenery for which Robert La-pouyade has been secured and is busily engaged for weeks in advance preparing the settings. The same care will be taken with the mechanical and other stage effects. Mr. Peruchi has shown his ability to act and manage a company and he deserves credit for having carried on the longest stock season here and with more weeks to come.

LOUISIANA BAR ASSOCIATION.

The public is invited to hear the addresses to be delivered at the convention of Louisiana Bar Association, on Friday and Saturday, April 11th and 12th, at 10 a. m., and 2 p. m., in the Supreme Court Room, new courthouse building.

Martin Behrman, mayor of New Orleans, will make the address of welcome for the city. Joseph W. Carroll, president, will welcome for the association and A. A. Gunby, one of the vice-presidents, will respond.

W. A. Blount, of the Pensacola bar, will speak on "The People and the Courts." This subject is of universal interest, and one that is being given much thought by the great minds of the country. Mr. Blount bears a national reputation and his address will no doubt be presented in a masterly manner and be worthy of hearing.

Robert H. Marr will present an "Historical Review of the Constitutions of the State." That Judge Marr will make this interesting and instructive goes without saying.

"The Law of Corporations in Louisiana" will be discussed by various members of the association. A resolution on the "Recall" will come up for consideration. An amendment to the charter is to be offered proposing that the association refrain from endorsing any candidate for judicial office.

The friends of Messrs. Benjamin W.
Kernan and Charles P. Fenner are urging their candidacies for the presidency of the association.

JUVENILE BASEBALL

NOTE—Juvenile Baseball News will not be received by The Herald unless they are brought in not later than Monday night. Two different articles from the same Club will not be accepted, and the articles must be brought in to The Herald by the same boy each week.

The Clover Hills met and again defeated the Webster Stars (formerly the Lower Coast Hard Hitters) by the score of 41 to 16. The batteries were B. Glancy and N. Parmentel of the Clover Hills, while Tierly, a pitcher from High School with his merry widow drop, was batted around the field. They also had Rice and Chris Tiel pitching and Theady, also from High School, caught for the Webster Stars. The Clover Hills were giving the Webster Stars runs to encourage them. The players of the Clover Hill team had to run off the bases to get out, who would have played their to dark that evening.
Good pitching was done by Mr. Rice.
The Clover Hill line-up are: B. Glancy, p.; N. Parmentel, c.; W. Spencer, 1 b.; W. Baron, 2 b.; O. Borne, 3 b.; J. Glan-cy, s. s.; J. Braai, r. f.; D. Braai, c. f.; J. Smith, l. f.

Sunday, April 6, the All Stars met and defeated the Behrman Stars by the score of 14 to 13. The feature of the game was the pitching of N. Johnson and the sensational catch of C. Stacy.
Sunday, April 13, the All Stars will cross bats with the same team. Any team wishing games can communicate with Charles Stacy, 426 Elmira avenue, Algiers, La.

THE IMMIGRATION STARS, JR., defeated the Silver City Stars Sunday by the score 7 to 8, with ten innings. The line-up is as follows: R. Cazaborn, c.; A. Gaspard, p.; DeRocha, 1 b.; O. Mar-cour, 2 b.; G. Knowles, 3 b.; B. D.

Knowles, s. s.; C. Costella, c. f.; S.
Costella, r. f.; Ruiz, l. f.

The Young Eagles were defeated Sunday by the score 11 to 3. M. Mar-cour, the Young Eagles southpaw, will be extra pitcher for the Pelicans. O.
Marcour will play with the Immigration Stars. Finley pitched a fine game Sunday.

THE CHAMPIONS OF ALGIERS.

The Algiers Stars, a 16-year-old base ball team, met and defeated the Bellevilles by the score of 10 to 9. The game was very interesting all the way through.

In the early part of the game the Bellevilles had a lead, but this lead was overcome in the sixth inning when the hard-hitting team of the Stars showed some clever batting.

The feature of the game was the hitting of T. Buchholz, W. Whitmore and the sensational catch by J. Spitzfaden; also the hitting of C. Harding, who, with the score tied in the ninth with a man on base, hit the ball to left field for a so-called home run, although he is not credited with a home run we thank him.

The Stars will play the Parkways on next Sunday at City Park. As the Parkways claim the championship of the city, a good game is expected. The Algiers Stars will use the following line-up: E. White, p.; J. Spitzfaden (formerly Cubs backstop), c.; E. Harding, 1 b.; L. Bergeron (captain), 2 b.; W. Whitmore, 3 b.; K. Abbott (formerly catcher), s. s.; T. Buchholz, l. f.; M. Abbott, c. f.; J. Pollock (manager), r. f. All challengers please communicate with L. Bergeron or J. Pollock.

The Fatty Grubs have not lost a game this season. They beat the Slim team Sunday by a score of 9 to 0. The line-up of the Fatty Grubs is as follows: Richard Maher, p.; Milton Massie, c.; Alvin Dupuis, 1 b.; Francis Riordan, 2 b.; Leslie Strassel, 3 b.; Raymond Sterling, s. s.; Elmer Burton, r. f.; Shabel Burton, c. f.; Robert Farrington, l. f.; Alfred Christy, waterboy and bat carrier. For challenges see Milton Massie, 320 Pelica avenue.
Will play teams under 13 years of age.

The Busy Izzy's will play any team under the age of 14 years. The team's line-up follows: L. Burdine, p.; A.
Francisco, c.; J. Brown, 1 b.; H.
Brown, 2 b.; W. Grundmyer, 3 b.; J.
Lamana, s. s.; Geo. Donley, r. f.; Ben Grundmyer, l. f.; Jew. Lecourt, c. f.
Send all challenges to Geo. Donley, manager, or Capt. Henry Brown, 300 Webster avenue. The Busy Izzy's defeated the Mohawk Stars by the score of 10 to 4. The B. I. have played seven games and lost none. The B. I. will play the Young Devils.

AWFUL

Mrs. Jinkson—Is that the next door neighbor practicing in his trombone? Mr. Jinkson—Partly on the trombone, but mostly on my nerves.

QUITE DIFFERENT

Grace—Fred told me yesterday that I am the only girl he ever loved. Helen—Yes; but that was April Fool's day.

HADN'T REACHED THAT STAGE

She—So you are an author? He—Yes. "Oh! how delightful it must be to earn one's living by wielding the pen." "Yes, I always imagined it would be."

HE WAS IT

Hewitt—I asked my girl what she was giving up during Lent and she said nothing. Jewett—Then it looks as if you would have to get another girl.

GOOD SUGGESTION

Jack—I proposed to Miss Sweet, and now Miss Swift, whose good opinion I covet, says I am a fool. Fred—Well, propose to Miss Swift, and she will think you have lucid moments.

Defined. "What is the ear?" "It is the side entrance to the face." —New York Press.

BLISSFUL SUPPOSITION

Miss Black—Mr. Brown, does you know what a bird of paradise is? Mr. Brown—Well, of co'se I doesn't know for sure, but when I gits ter de nex' wor! I wouldn't be a bit surpris ter diskuvah dat it was a spring chick- en.

DIFFERENCE

The Senator—I've given the best years of my life to the service of my country. The Governor—Given! You mean sold!

THE REASON

Katherine—He claims that a lie has never passed his lips. Kidder—I suppose you haven't no- ticed that he talks through his nose.

WHAT DID HE MEAN?

Miss Gusher—Oh! how I wish I could paint a pretty face! De Anber (the artist)—You wouldn't if you possessed one!

AWFUL

Manager—Great Scot! Ain't you ready to open the side-show yet? His Assistant—No; we can't find the sacred camel's hump.
