SULLIVAN KILLING.

Upon motion of Joseph Generally, attorney for the defense, Judge John B. Fisher of the Second City Criminal Court granted a continuance, Monday morning, in the preliminary hearing of Theodore Johnson, doorman of the Fifth Precinct police station, charged with the murder of Dan Sullivan on the night of July 17. At the request of District Attorney Lueberg, the hearing was reset for Aug. 22.

Defense sought the continuance because illness had prevented Frank T. Gerard, clerk of the station, from appearing in court. He probably will be one of the chief witnesses in behalf of the accused. Gerard was looking Sullivan when he cursed Corporal Meyers, who arrested him from a Canal street ferry. Gerard is said to have seen Sullivan hurl Johnson against the wall of the clerk's office and run into the corridor, where the shooting occurred a few minutes later.

Doorman Johnson is out on bond of $2,500 furnished by Louis Pujol, janitor of the criminal courts building. In addition to the district attorney, Warren Doyle, former assistant district attorney, and Judge Robert H. Marr, who have been engaged by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, of which Sullivan was a member, will prosecute Johnson.

The ambulance will be a light running vehicle, and it is believed that from twelve to fifteen minutes will be saved in reaching the hospital over the present city-side service.

Salvador Gendusa, proprietor of a saloon at 401 Vallette street, was arrested Friday afternoon as a result of an alleged violation of the Gay-Shattuck law. He was charged with selling ten cents' worth of wine to Curtis Lange, living at 417 Bellevue street.

The arrest of Gendusa was made by Patrolman John Hart, who was in citizens' clothes and who saw the Lange boy enter the saloon of Gendusa at 12:30 and emerge later with a basket. Hart followed the boy and examined the basket, in which he found the wine. The Lange boy is said by the police to have stated that Gendusa sold him the wine. Gendusa was taken before the juvenile court and the wine, together with a copy of Gendusa's license, was also sent to the juvenile court.

Algiers Distilling Company Organized—Want to Raise $50,000 and Feed 50,000 Cattle.

The Algiers Distilling Company may be a possibility, provided $50,000 are subscribed within a reasonable length of time. The new corporation has the refusal, it is understood, of the plant of the Security Brewing Company, located in Brooklyn avenue, and it is this place that they expect to convert into a distillery for the distillation of Bourbon and rye whiskey.

In speaking to A. J. Olivier, president of the concern, Mr. Olivier stated that they would possibly consume about 5,000 bushels of grain a day in the manufacture of their product and the enormous by-product which is known as still, will be used for the purpose of feeding cattle. The cattle feeding business is always auxiliary to a distillery and in many instances far surpass in profit the original article manufactured.

Cattle are usually consigned to large distilleries. They are paid for the amount of weight put on them, or sometimes they are shipped at a certain price to be sold by the distillery at whatever price they see fit, the distilling company getting the difference.

Mr. Olivier stated that it would require many thousand acres of land in connection with the Algiers Distilling Company, should it become a possibility. Several of the promoters have been on this side of the river soliciting stock and it is stated have met with a reasonable amount of success. We are reliably informed that $3,000 of Algiers money have been subscribed toward the $50,000 which will be necessary.

The five gentlemen interested as promoters and officers of the company according to their charter have subscribed to $1,000 worth of stock each. H. Cleveland, who is associated with the company as manager, is an expert distiller and is said to have put up some large plants in Louisiana. We trust that the new corporation will be successful in raising the $50,000 desired and that the big plant that was illegally closed by some of the other breweries will be again put in operation to give employment to our people. Mr. Olivier stated that he thought the new concern would employ more than 100 people when in full operation.

The other members of the company are: Jas. Killilea, vice-president; Frank P. Killilea, second vice-president and assistant manager; Jos. Ritajik, secretary and treasurer, and H. C. Cleveland, manager. The new concern has temporary offices at 609 Audubon building.

ORLEANS—JEFFERSON—PLAQUEMINES DRAINAGE DISTRICT WILL PUMP DRY TRACT OF 40,000 ACRES.

George A. Hero, president of the Orleans-Jefferson-Plaquemines Drainage District, has signed the contract for the construction of the buildings that will house the largest drainage pumps in the world, and will be used to drain 40,000 acres, bringing untold wealth into a section now handicapped by the lack of these facilities.

Because of the closeness of the territory to New Orleans it is certain the city will reap direct benefit from the project. The land in the rear of the Naval Station in Algiers is included in the district, and it is assured that the Algiers Railway & Light Company, which also controls the Grand Isle road, will make transportation improvements to aid in the other development.

The plant should be in operation within seven months, barring any unexpected delays. The pumping station will consist of four 9-inch pumps and a smaller pump, with an estimated capacity of 1,000,000 gallons per minute. The pumps and engines will be furnished by A. Baldwin & Co. for approximately $100,000. The Heine safety boiler, having a total capacity of 1,100 horsepower, will be installed. The contract for the buildings to be built by John Reiss & Co. for $75,000 calls for their completion in seven months from Aug. 1.

Since the announcement of the sale of the bonds covering the cost of the work much interest has been manifested, and now that the contracts for the buildings have been let the people who are concerned in the development of the district are enthusiastic in speaking of the good that is certain to follow.

BRILLIANT THEATRICAL SEASON IS INDICATED BY THE BOOKINGS.

Round Up," Richard Carle's "Mary's Lamb," and pieces of that caliber.

That there is to be a lively vaudeville war in New Orleans this fall is indicated by an announcement Monday morning to the effect that T. C. Campbell, southern representative of Klaw & Erlanger, and C. E. Bray, general manager of the Orpheum circuit, had arranged for the opening of the Lafayette theater early in September as a popular-priced vaudeville house in opposition to Al Pantage, who is to invade the New Orleans field at the Greenwall theater.

The Lafayette will be taken over by the Klaw & Erlanger-Orpheum combination early in September. Until that time it will continue to be operated as a picture house under the management of Abe Seligman.

The plan of Klaw & Erlanger and the Orpheum theater will not interfere in any way with the operation of the Orpheum's fine theater in St. Charles street, which is to be opened about September 8.

Pantage, who has a string of thirty theaters, has promised to send the best vaudeville available to New Orleans. The prices of admission will be 10, 20 and 30 cents. Klaw & Erlanger and the Orpheum organization will charge 10 and 20 cents at the Lafayette.

The rivalry will mean that New Orleans will have three large vaudeville houses, and perhaps four, as the Hippodrome is also planning to reopen on a more elaborate scale.

It is expected that the coming theatrical season will be notable. Klaw & Erlanger have declared a truce and the Shuberts will not book into the Dauphine, as heretofore, but will send their attractions to the Tulane.

The Tulane will have the best list of shows ever offered to local playgoers in a single season, according to indication. There will be no "repeaters"—all the attractions will be new.

The Crescent will have a new line of plays. "McFadden's Flats," "Not Yet, But Soon," and cheap musical comedies of that ilk are to be shelved, and instead there will be given good productions of "The Littlest Rebel," "The Round Up," Richard Carle's "Mary's Lamb," and pieces of that caliber.

Tulane Bookings.

The Tulane's bookings have not been completed, but they will probably include "The Five Frankfurters," "Within the Law," "The Lady and the Slipper," "Romance," "The Poor Little Rich Girl," "When Dreams Come True," "Kismet," "Oh, Oh, Delphine," "Peg of My Heart," "Sweethearts," "The Merry Wives," "The Master Mind," "The Governor's Lady."

The Dauphine will be occupied by Emma Bunting and her stock company in high-class plays.

ROONEY AND MOYNAGH ON VACATION.

Chief Clerk M. J. Rooney, who has been to the Canal Zone for the past fifteen days with his wife and daughter, has returned much pleased with his trip. It was Mr. Rooney's intention all along to see the Canal before the water was let into it so that he would be able to note the magnitude of this great engineering feat.

To Mr. Rooney, who was formerly in the United States navy, there was an added interest on account of this previous connection.

From big John Moynagh we have received a postal from New York City, where he is hitting some of the high places. Mr. Moynagh says that he is having a fine time and will start from New York on Saturday, August 16th, on the steamship Momus.
