REPAIRS AND IMPROVEMENTS TO CONVENT AND BOYS' SCHOOL.

Rev. T. J. Larkin has just closed a contract with one of the big house-raising concerns in the city for repairing and remodeling the convent and the boys' school.

The boys' school, which is already a raised building, will be raised three feet higher, giving it a nine-foot basement which will afford additional recreation room.

PREPARING FOR SESSION.

For purposes of organization the high schools and the Normal School are to open Sept. 14, one week in advance of the general opening of schools, Sept. 21.

In this connection Nicholas Bauer, assistant superintendent of schools, announced Monday that all high school students must have their blanks of election of studies in the hands of the principals by Sept. 14.

All the grammar grades and the regular courses in the High and Normal schools will begin Monday, Sept. 21.

SHOES FOR ALL THE FAMILY AT LESS PRICES AT RENECKY'S.

LIST OF BOOKS TO BE PUBLISHED SOON.

In order to enable students to buy their school books early and avoid the rush, the office of the superintendent of schools within a few days will announce a complete list of all books to be used in the schools during the coming school year.

In the past it has been the custom not to give out the list of books to be used until the opening of school. This has resulted in congestion in the book stores, to the annoyance of both the sellers and the buyers.

The list will be published some days in advance of the opening of schools, which takes place Sept. 21, enabling all who wish to do so to purchase their books in advance of the opening of school.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

On last Wednesday evening a surprise party was tendered Misses Martha McNeely and Mamie Morrison by their little friends on their return from Covington, where the former was summering. The young ladies were very much surprised when they saw the large gathering. Dancing was the main feature of the evening.

SPECIAL MEETING CALLED AT BATON ROUGE.

A special meeting of the Synod of Louisiana has been called by the moderator for Sept. 17th, at Baton Rouge, to act upon the petitions that have been sent in by several ministers and churches asking for a division of the presbytery of New Orleans and erecting a new presbytery of the Presbyterian church if the way be clear.

THE DESTRUCTION OF GARBAGE

On the 14th of September Algiers will have its clean-up day and no doubt hundreds of loads of garbage of all kinds and description will be carried away to be placed in some heaps in low places as fillers.

There is one positive assurance that the garbage is to be carted somewhere, and where it is carted there will be danger from its presence and this danger can only be eliminated by the destruction of the rubbish.

Garbage collected from under the houses of almost every square in Algiers is bound to bring together and disturb millions of microbes and germs that have perhaps been latent and dormant for months; besides the danger from the vermin and other bacteriological products, there is the danger of these heaps of garbage furnishing hiding places for more rats than could find shelter under the houses.

There is but one suggestion to offer and that is that the entire amount of garbage be destroyed by fire. This could readily be done in Algiers on account of having sufficient room far enough removed from the thickly settled section so as to avoid any danger of fire. These heaps of garbage should be saturated with oil and finally destroyed.

We believe that the clean-up day on September 14th, should be followed later on by a second clean-up day which should take place immediately following the inspection which is to be made by the health authorities.

Once a place is thoroughly cleaned up there is so much permanent good coming from it as to make the housewife or any one around the premises really feel proud that the place is finally cleaned and they will also note how much easier it will be in the future to keep the place cleaned. We believe that there should be a certain amount of personal pride in each individual place and this personal pride of the individual soon combines to make the civic pride which is so necessary to the welfare and cleanliness of any community.

'Cleanliness is next to Godliness.' Govern yourself accordingly.

Methodist Church Notes

The pulpit Sunday was filled by Rev. Evans at 11 a. m., and by Dr. Henry at 7:30 p. m., the pastor being laid up with a sprained ankle.

This enforced confinement comes at an inopportune time, just at the beginning of Fall, the time for a forward movement. However, the time will be spent in laying plans, writing letters, and studying. If every member will do his full share of work, the work will not suffer. Especially let us all be faithful in our personal work to win the lost and indifferent to Christ.

A visit to the sick by a member while the pastor is shut in will do more good than a visit from the pastor himself.

The stewards will meet next Monday at 7:45 in the pastor's study.

The social meeting of the men's class last Wednesday night was one of the best ever held. The following program was carried out:

- 1. Bible Lesson—J. W. Daniels. 2. The Value of Bible Study—R. M. Brown. 3. Talk—J. B. Miller. 4. Where We Got Our Bible—F. Henning. 5. Duet—Mr. Thomas and J. W. Daniels; violin accompaniment by Ed. Daniels.

The refreshment committee are to be congratulated. Program for missionary prayer meeting, Sept. 3, 1914:

- Song, "Korea's Favorite," 165 R. P. Prayer for Korean Missionaries.—E. B. Collette. Korea's Humiliation: Its Religious Significance.—Shelby Gibbs. Korea's Attitude Toward Education (10 minutes)—Miss Ethel Rhodes. Song, "Morning Light," 209, R. P. Korea and the Bible—Mrs. Summers. Koreans as Soul Winners—Pastor. Offering. Closing prayer for native Christians—By Capt. Smith.

Mount Olivet Church

The Women's Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Jules Babin. The attendance was good and the usual missionary subjects ably discussed. The October meeting will be held at the rectory.

We rejoice to report that Miss E. A. Guillot is now at home after a ten days' stay at Hotel Dieu.

Mrs. Chas. A. Spooner (formerly Miss Josie Hughes) is now on the convalescent list at Hotel Dieu. Her many Algiers friends will rejoice to hear that she will soon be able to return to her home in Telemachus street.

The services at Mt. Olivet have been well attended during the month of August. The attendance at the 7:30 a. m. holy communion service has been especially gratifying.

The confirmation class will be organized about Oct. 1st. Candidates may hand their names in to the pastor after any of the services at the church. The September services will be as follows:

- Sundays—7:30 a. m., holy communion; 9:15 a. m., Sunday school; 7:30 p. m., evening prayer and sermon. Holy Days—St. Matthew's (Sept. 21), and St. Michael and All Angels' (Sept. 29), holy communion at 7:30 a. m.

Presbyterian Notes

Monday evening, Aug. 31, at the residence of Rev. W. H. Leith, 433 Bermuda street, a farewell reception was given by the Ladies' Aid of the church to Miss Gertrude Leith. Almost every member was present. Mrs. Small, corresponding secretary, on behalf of the company, made a beautiful and complimentary speech as well as expressing many regrets at her departure from the city. Miss Gertrude responded to the same, making special reference to the way in which she had been received and entertained by all of them. Refreshments were served by the ladies, who had brought the same with them. The social hour followed which seemed to be appreciated by all present. Miss Gertrude left Wednesday at 10 a. m. on the Southern Pacific steamship Momus for New York. From there she goes to Massachusetts. All wished her a bon voyage.

The Sunday school meets in Pythian Hall, every Sunday, at 3:30 p. m. There will be no preaching service next Sunday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held with Mrs. Drumm, Wednesday, Sept. 9, at the usual hour. Every member be present, as a full attendance is desired.

Did you notice that when we begin dating our correspondence "September" it suggests to us a lot of things? But none brings more pleasant dreams to pass than when we think of the pretty lot of school children who will pass by our doors regularly every day.

An Amateur. "Some sauntily folk in this town are always throwing the game of poker at our unoffending head," says a Georgia editor. "We want to say, once for all, that we don't know the game. If we had known it we'd be richer, at this writing, by a house and lot, a gold watch and chain, and a real diamond stud."

VACATION PLANS

By CECILIA HAMBURG.

The members of the Computers' Crochet club were seated in their facing seats on the 7:55 and the lure of the lunch-dolly was strong upon them.

Mabel had started out with the intention of making only one which should serve as an isolated table-mat for a distant cousin, but so great was the fascination of the work that she had kept on, and was now putting the picot edge on the fifth. Sadie alone was not engrossed in work, but sat very still in her corner by the window, absorbed in a bright-colored circular.

Other circulars like it were strewn over her lap and peeped from her handbag. "What's that you're reading?" asked Mary, looking up from her work.

"It's a pamphlet on Bermuda," said Sadie.

"Are they all about Bermuda?" asked Anne.

"Oh, no," said Sadie. "There's one on Newfoundland and one on Nova Scotia and one on the Thousand Islands and one on the Adirondacks and another on a trip through the Canadian Rockies and a tour through Yellowstone Park and—"

"My, what a lot of places to choose from!" said Mabel. "I think it takes a great deal of energy to get a trip like one of those all planned out and know just when your trains leave or your boat starts and get all your connections worked out and know what clothes you are going to take."

Sadie began to trace with a hot little finger an intricate route on an orange map. It evidently led over hill and dale and included a glimpse at most of the wonders of the earth.

"Leaving New York at 4:33 on Friday, I would reach Hillsburg at 7:43 on Saturday morning; making a quick connection, I would get to Plainsville Junction at 1:18, and from there—"

"Meroy, how complicated," said Mabel.

"Yes, that would be," assented Sadie. "I think perhaps I would prefer the sea trip to Bermuda. They say that you can have a wonderful time there if you go to one of the houses in the country where they take visitors and then hire a bicycle and see the island for yourself."

"However, I've always wanted to see Nova Scotia, and that gives you a fine voyage, too. If I do go by sea, would you take just a suit case, or would you take a steamer trunk along? I think one dark suit and a big coat and two dark waists and one dressy waist and—"

"How long is your vacation?" asked Mabel, in her practical way. "Two weeks," said Sadie.

"How much money are you going to spend on your trip?" "Not more than twenty-five dollars, anyway," said Sadie.

"Well, I don't believe you can go to Bermuda or Nova Scotia or Newfoundland or—"

"Of course, I can't," said Sadie. "I am only planning my vacation. I always plan it every year, and then I go spend two weeks with my grandmother who lives on a farm in Mills, Mass. But at least I have the fun of making believe I'm going somewhere else."

With this vacation confession, the train stopped, and the girls rolled up their work and left the train. Sadie marched on ahead and, as the ferry-boat swung out of its dock, she looked longingly down the harbor and pretended she had decided on Nova Scotia.

Green Light to Test Sugar.

Cube sugar and ivory piano keys are inspected under the ghostly greenish rays of mercury vapor lamps with greater speed and accuracy than can be attained in ordinary daylight, says the Electrical World.

Any impurity in sugar manifests itself by changing the white to a shade of yellow. To detect impurities, plates of the crystallized sugar one inch thick are examined by a man looking through them toward a mercury vapor lamp of the kind which is a familiar adjunct of the galleries of postcard photographers. When thus viewed the yellow impurities stand out clearly in the bluish-green light.

The color of ivory varies from the outside to the center of the tusk to such an extent that manufacturers sort the pieces into 16 different shades. Formerly this sorting could be done only in bright daylight, but with the light of the mercury vapor lamp grading can be done without limitation at any hour of the 24.
