WEDDING BELLS.
On Wednesday last, September 16, 1914, a double matrimonial celebration took place in the Holy Name of Mary church, Rev. J. Delaire performing both ceremonies. The first wedding, in which Miss Lillian Harding and John C. Durand, Jr., were the participants, took place at early mass. Miss Julia Durand was the bridesmaid while the groom was attended by Jas. E. O'Hern. After the ceremonies the bridal party went for a delightful auto ride, after which they retired to the home of the bride, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served.
The second wedding, in which Miss Isabelle Durand and Andrew May were the participants, took place at seven o'clock. Miss Julia Durand was the bridesmaid for her sister also, while the groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Walter R. Durand. After the second wedding the bridal party was the guest of the groom at a theater party.
That night a surprise reception was given at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Durand, a self-appointed committee took charge of the house and cleared the floor for dancing, and in order that the interest in the dancing would not flag, two bands of music were present, and the terpsichorean art was indulged in until the wee hours of the morning.
Mr. Durand and his wife left early Thursday morning on a short visit to the bride's sister, Mrs. Miller, of Eunice, after which they will go to house-keeping in their cozy and neatly furnished home at 422 Vallette street, where they will be glad to receive their many friends.
Mr. and Mrs. May will make their home with the bride's parents at 420 Pacific avenue, where they will be pleased to entertain their many friends at all times.
The newly-weds have the best wishes of their many friends for a long, happy and prosperous life.
Among those who were present at the surprise reception were the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. Strehle, Mr. and Mrs. E. Salathe, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. F. Salome, Mrs. Guey, Misses B. Guey, N. Barrosse, J. Barrosse, J. Durand, A. Tufts, V. Jud-

Why Not Bucket-Shops?

The "Buy-a-Bale" movement in order to bring about a normal demand for the great southern staple, has caused a slight advance in cotton. This advance is the forerunner of the opening of the Cotton Exchanges not only in New Orleans but also in New York and other cotton centers; in other words, the largest legalized gambling institutions of the world will again throw open their doors where only the rich men and the well-to-do speculators may wager their coin from day to day. But the poor devil who counts his money not in the hundreds, but in the dollars, is prohibited from dealing in the future prices of cotton; this prohibition is enforced by laws of the State of Louisiana, by ordinances of the City Council, and the Bucket-Shop of long ago was put out of business, but the only difference between the Bucket-Shop and the big Cotton Exchange is that the Bucket-Shop allows the poor man to gamble a few dollars on the probable price of cotton at a future date, while in the Cotton Exchange you must invest hundreds of dollars in the same of chance.
Horse racing was properly put out of business in New Orleans and the day will never come again when legalized book-making will allow the toots and the race-horse owners to come and take away our money. Now, since we have put horse racing out of business and the poor man has been debarred from betting his dollar on cotton, why not put the ban on the Cotton Exchange and prevent the rich man from gambling with his hundreds of dollars? More suicides is the result of the trade exchange than ever the Bucket-Shop was.

METHODIST ENTERTAINMENT.
A large number of children are being drilled for two entertainments to be given in October for the benefit of the Methodist church.
On Monday evening, Oct. 19th, a delightful little fairy play in three acts, entitled "The Pixies' Triumph," will be presented.
On Tuesday, Oct. 20th, there will be a play in four acts called "The Quest of Columbus," in which fifty children will take part.
The entertainments will be given at the Pythian Hall and the price of admission will be fifteen cents for adults and ten cents for children.

ENJOYABLE DANCE.
Among the enjoyable events of the past week was a dance given by Misses Goldie and Gertrude Beck, two of the most popular young ladies of Algiers, at their home in Teche street. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and incandescent lights. Punch and cake were served on the lawn, under a large Japanese parasol, decorated with small jack-o-lanterns. Each young lady received a fan as a souvenir. Those attending were as follows: Misses B. Mahoney, E. Gigenheimer, O. Gigenheimer, E. Aucoin, E. Schroeder, E. Schroeder, W. Lewis, E. Lecourt, F. Lecourt, E. Gerrets, E. Keenan, J. Hauer, E. Risher, E. Richardson, L. Huguet, M. Peterson, M. Chestnut, M. Comers, I. Schwab, F. Haden, E. Huff, A. Martin, A. Cafiero; Messrs. P. O. Cafiero, H. OF INTEREST TO ALGIERS.
At a recent meeting of the Commission Council there was a petition filed for a sidewalk on Wagner street from Patterson to Newton streets. It was referred to the city engineer.
Another petition was also filed. It was from the Algiers Road Commission for an appropriation in the budget, which was referred to the budget committee.
Amending ordinance 1839, providing for the erection of a school building in the square bounded by Newton, Diana, Numa and Behrman streets was adopted.
Mayor Behrman submitted an ordinance to prohibit barrooms in Opelousas avenue, from Powder street to Atlantic avenue.

A SANITARY BAKERY
H. Martinez, who has been one of our Algierites off and on for the past twenty years, and who has always been associated with the bakery business, enjoys the distinction of having here in our town one of the best and most sanitary bakeries in the city. It is Mr. Martinez's intention that not only all of his customers but all of his prospective customers as well, will know that his principal aim in the sale of goods is "Quality," and it is for this reason that his bakery is known as the Quality Bakery; it is located at 417 Elmira avenue.
Not long ago Mr. Martinez installed in his bakery one of the most improved ovens in which live steam is introduced for the purpose of making bread in accord with the very latest scientific principles and in keeping with all sanitary requirements of the Health Board.—Adv.

NOT TO BE ABOLISHED.
In a communication addressed to the stall-keepers in St. John's Market, Commissioner Lafaye states that there is no truth in the rumors that are being circulated in regard to the abolishment of the market.
The stall-keepers are in hopes that the market will be improved and made sanitary.

COMPANY H WINS FIRST PRIZE.
Company H, which is the pride of our district, returned from Shreveport, La., with the first prize which was awarded to the best drilled company of Uniformed Woodmen. Capt. Leonard Gisch and his officers and men have been working hard the past few weeks perfecting their movements, with the result that they returned with a handsome solid silver vase, which was won by competitive drill, with companies from Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana.
Walter Sperier of Company H was also very successful in having been awarded the second prize in the contests for individual perfection. Mr. Sperier has always been very efficient and he is a credit to the Uniform Rank of our local Woodmen.

Mount Olivet Church
Rev. Resinald Raymond of Sewanee was a most welcome visitor on last Sunday evening and preached a splendid sermon at the 7:30 service.
Milton Hedges Morton, whose death occurred on Tuesday at 11:30 a. m., was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in McDonogh cemetery. Although his suffering was only for a few days, it was most intense. After a very serious operation in which there was little hope for his recovery, he passed away. Our sympathy goes out to his people and we pray that light perpetual will shine upon him.
On October 4th, the first Sunday in the month, the 11 o'clock service will be resumed and the Sunday school reorganized.
