AN APPEAL FOR THREE DOLLAR SUBSCRIPTIONS.

In a letter sent to the Herald by Miss Katie RENECKY, the trained nurse in charge of the Algiers Branch of the Child Welfare Association, Miss RENECKY points out in a well written article, the object and purposes of the organization and the necessity for public subscriptions in order that the good work may be carried on.

When the Fifth District Civic League was first organized one of its initial purposes was the raising of funds sufficient to meet the expenses incidental to the running of this institution, and it was proposed then that public subscriptions be asked from our merchants and citizens to the amount of three dollars a year from each person. Up to the present time there is but one subscriber to this fund, this being one of our physicians.

The sum of three dollars a year is indeed small and we believe that everyone able to pay this amount should give same freely.

Miss RENECKY's article follows:

HELP SAVE THE BABIES

The Algiers Branch of the Child Welfare Association was originally meant as an office of investigation—in other words this particular office was opened in order to ascertain whether or not such a place was needed for the mothers and babies of Algiers.

There are three such stations in New Orleans, supported by the people of New Orleans. All stations have proved a success, first by aiding the mother and child; second, by the substantial support of the New Orleans people.

It has been sufficiently demonstrated by actual work the necessity of such a station in Algiers. There are 167 babies enrolled. Mothers come for advice and baby for a regulated feeding or diet list, as the case demands. The mother is taught in her individual home the proper administration of treatment prescribed by the family doctor. Clothes are supplied to the needy mother and baby.

Of the 167 babies enrolled, 100 are in actual need of such a station; about 50 of this 100 are in financial need. There are about 35 babies on certified milk. Some of these babies are fortunate enough to have parents who are able to pay for their milk, others are not so fortunate and their needs must be supplied by those who can help. In any case all babies are assured of good pure cow's milk from a herd of healthy cows—cows that have passed government inspection, free from tuberculosis and typhoid.

Amount milk dispensed through this station for September was 1,303 pints, or $86.00. The collections were $30.00. The Child Welfare expenses for this station amount to $130.00 per month, or $1,560.00 per year. Algiers has one subscriber paying $3.00 per year towards the help of this station.

As this is a public benefit for the use of all people, it is needless to add it must be supported by the public. Algiers is getting her share of the welfare of a milk station. Algiers will be required to pay her share for the upkeep of such a station. The subscriptions are $3.00 per year.

Address to Associated Charities, Algiers Branch of Child Welfare Association.

PARKER-BORNE NUPTIALS.

Wednesday, October 14th, a very pretty wedding took place in the Church of Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary in Esplanade avenue, the contracting parties being Marie Edna Borne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rene J. Borne, and John Harold Parker, son of Mrs. Elizabeth B. Parker of the city.

The bride, a tall, graceful blonde beauty, spent the greater part of her life in our town and counts her friends and relatives here by the dozens. Mr. Parker's home is New Orleans, but he has been employed in Pensacola, Fla., for the past two years, and the young couple will make that town their future home.

Shortly after 5 o'clock p. m., the bridesmaid, Miss Carolyn Allison, led the way into the sacred edifice where the relatives and friends of the bridal couple were assembled. Miss Allison was garbed in pink with a black hat trimmed in pink, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Following Miss Allison came Miss Alice Gulliot (also a former resident of Algiers), as maid of honor. She was dressed in white, wearing a black hat with white plumes and carrying a bouquet of white carnations. Next came the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, Rene J. Borne. Her dress was an exquisite creation of white crepe de chene and silk tulle a long court train and veil arranged in cap fashion caught in place with orange blossoms, completed the bridal costume. In her left arm she carried a shower of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The friends and acquaintances of the bride, and they are many, can readily form an idea of the beautiful picture she presented.

Mr. Parker, attended by his brother, Charles Parker, as best man, and Rene J. Borne, Jr., as groomsmen, advanced to meet the bride with her attendants and the ceremony was performed in the sanctuary, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Rev. William J. Vincent, before giving the sacrament of matrimony to the young couple, addressed them in a few well chosen words.

The music on this occasion was quite unique: the Children of Mary, of which sodality Miss Borne was a member, rendered a vocal selection as an entrance march, and during the signing Messrs. Theo. Jung, Jr., Adolph Schmidt and Dewey Bagur performed on their violins, accompanied by Mrs. Boyd as organist.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 1218 N. Gayoso street, where a most enjoyable time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Parker, who received an abundance of handsome and costly gifts, left that night at 9:59 for Paducah, Ky., where they will remain for a while before taking up their residence in Pensacola.

We join with their many friends in extending sincere congratulations and best wishes.

Methodist Church Notes

All those who are back in their monthly contributions are requested to bring them as soon as possible.

"The Lord hath need of them." Service Thursday at 7:30 p. m. A door collection will be taken up for the Lutherans in Germany.

Next Sunday the millions of Lutherans will commemorate God's great reformation of the church through His servant, the immortal Dr. Martin Luther; therefore, Sunday, we have Reformation service at 8 a. m.

Special Announcement.

Lutheran attention!

Annual Reformation Festival of the Evangelical Lutheran Churches (Missouri Synod), of New Orleans and Gretna, La., at First English Evangelical Lutheran Church, Port Street, near St. Claude avenue, Sunday, October 25, 1914, 4 p. m. Sermons by Prof. W. Dau, Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo.; Rev. A. O. Friedrich, Mt. Zion Chapel, New Orleans, La. Lutherans, show your colors, and attend this festival; and also the morning service in your church. We want 10,000 Lutherans to attend this celebration. Will you be one of the 10,000?

The Sunday school is to gather at 2:30 p. m. at the school; from there we go to the First English Church en masse.

Don't forget that next Sunday is Go-to-Church-Sunday.

The three regular services of last week had an unusually large attendance at the morning hour. Miss Hazel and Miss Dorothy Labit were received by letter from our church in Crowley. They live at 822 Evelina. Let the church members take notice and pay them a visit as early as possible.

There were fifty-six present at the prayer service last Thursday.

There will be another council of the Sunday-school officers and teachers next Thursday after prayer service. Let all be present.

The Methodist Sunday School Union of the city, which met at Carrollton Avenue church, Tuesday, was well attended. The program was devoted principally to the new legislation on "Missions in the Sunday School," by our General Conference.

Two fine papers were read. One on how to observe Christmas in Sunday school and the other on "World's Temperance Sunday," which it Nov. 8th.

Mount Olivet Church

The meeting of the Ladies' Guild has been postponed to Tuesday, October 27th, at 8 p. m., at the rectory.

The rector expects to leave for the lower coast Missions on Friday morning.

Services next Sunday as follows: 7:30 a. m., 10:30 a. m., Sunday school; 7:30 p. m., evening prayer and sermon.

Church of the Holy Name of Mary

On Friday evening the elocution, dancing, and music classes gave their monthly entertainment in the Convent hall. The entertainment was attended by a large and appreciative audience.

On Wednesday, Miss E. Langford and J. Clark were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. Fr. Larkin at 5:30 p. m.

On Sunday at the 7 o'clock mass the Children of Mary received holy communion in a body, and Miss McNeely rendered a beautiful solo as the girls approached the holy table.

During the week the following baptisms took place:

James William, born September 31, son of Edward Hibben and Wilhelmina Dubret. Sponsors, William Dubret and Cecile Dubret.

Jos. Sidney, born September 30, son of Jos. Sidney Peterson and Mary Alice Clarke. Sponsors, Floyd Crane and Irene Crane.

Jos. Geo., born September 25, son of Jos. Henry Land and Annie Kaiser. Sponsors, George Stein and Ruth Thomas.

Peter Joseph, born September 18, son of Jos. Gondrella and Josephine Cazeaux. Sponsors, Joseph Cazeaux and Ella Cazeaux.

A DENIAL.

In our issue of October 8th we printed an article relative to Mrs. J. H. Hibbin having received a check for three hundred and sixty dollars from the members of the Pythian Order in Panama, and also from the men employed who man the big steam shovels at that place. This money was sent to Hibbin the high esteem in which Mr. Hibbin was held.

Mrs. J. H. Hibbin sent to The Herald a denial of this matter last week. We did not publish the denial for the fact that we had been informed that the check had been received. We therefore print a letter from Mrs. Hibbin in which she further denies having received the money from Panama. Her letter is as follows:

"To the Editor of The Algiers eHerald—Note that last week a Mrs. J. H. Hibbin had received a check for three hundred and sixty dollars enclosed in a letter from Panama, has not been published. Please publish this week. As this is a personal affair it had no business being published without my consent. Mrs. J. H. Hibbin."

Presbyterian Notes

No notes received this week from the above church.

MUSICAL AND RECITAL.

On Friday eve, Oct. 16th, the school of the Holy Name of Mary was the scene of much justification. Crowds of merry children with bright, happy faces, escorted by their devoted parents could be seen wending their way towards the Convent where a musicale and recital of a very high order was to take place. It was the first of the monthly entertainments which will be given throughout the winter and was a grand success, socially and financially.

The proceeds will go towards the fund to pay for the many necessary and needed repairs made on the convent and schools. The entertainment began at 7 o'clock in the reception room of the convent. The music pupils who are under the able supervision of Sr. M. Xavier, is assisted by M. Mary LeGras, rendered a musical program which merited much applause. The children by their artistic performance displayed the excellent training they are receiving. The musical program consisted of emotions by the following: Misses Emily Tallon, Josie Wiegman, Evelyn Peterson, Dorothy Murtagh, Marie Kevin, Frances Haggerty, Orville McMahon, Marguerite Duvie and Osceola Cassler; Masters Floyd Crane and Otis Meyer.

The recital immediately followed the musical and the elocution class which is under the direction of Miss Mayme Haggerty, rendered a splendid program which consisted of pathetic and comical recitations. The pupils as usual displayed remarkable talent and their delivery and interpretation was perfectly worked out in every detail.

The dancing pupils under the direction of Miss Marguerite Haggerty displayed much grace and ease of manner in a pretty dance in which the following took part: E. Peterson, H. Muntz, D. Murtagh, M. McCauley, G. James, F. McCord, M. McCauley, O. Clarke, I. Gerrets, C. Terrebone, G. Legendre, M. Thompson and L. M. Besson.

The entire performance which was varied was a delight from start to finish. The following was the program rendered by the elocution class: The Sunbeams—baby class—L. M. Besson, M. Thompson, M. Rooney, L. Gerrets, M. Heath, A. Burke, E. Cunningham, R. McNaair, H. James, H. Muntz, A. Persons, O. McMahon, F. McCord, H. Mosley, A. Gerard, I. Gerrets, M. Euper, W. Barrett, C. Gerrets, C. Terrebone, O. Clarke, J. Vinet. My Sister's Best Friend—C. Barrett. The Violets Victory—Junior class: Misses M. McCauley, E. Peterson, M. Brown, E. Collins, M. Mosley, E. Persons, A. Foster.

When Casey Hits the Ball—Master J. Charbonnet.

The Crimson and the Blue—F. Rupp. The Pride of Battery B—M. Morrison.

In the Mansion Over the Way—Senior class: Misses N. Worley, N. Kevin, H. Barrett, H. Graham, C. Cassidy, M. Collins, E. Tallon, E. Mitchell, F. Haggerty, M. Morrison.

The Dolls Wedding—The baby class. The kindergarten in a very sweet manner rendered a lullaby.

ENTERTAINED MEMBERS.

On Sunday, October 11th, as a conclusion to a meeting of the Children of Mary of the parish of Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, in Esplanade avenue, Miss Edna Borne, a former resident of Algiers, entertained the members present.

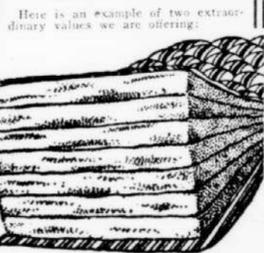

This was, in a sense, a farewell reception, owing to the fact that it was their last social gathering prior to Miss Borne's marriage to Harold Parker.

The little gathering took place in the home of the parish priest, Rev. W. J. Vincent, whose very impressive talk to the young ladies, but especially addressed to Miss Borne, was such that it is not soon to be forgotten. During his talk the Reverend Director remarked that he felt sure their devoted member, the hostess, would always be a Child of Mary, and that he was hopeful it would not be long before she would again be a resident of New Orleans.

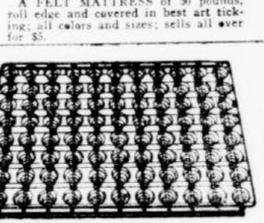

The reception room was very artistically decorated with plants and ferns and dainty refreshments were served to the happy party. The wedding gift of the Children of Mary to the bride was a handsome picture of the Mother of God.

Buy Diamonds NOW

It is safe to say that diamonds will never depreciate in value, in fact the war situation in Europe may greatly interfere with their importation, thereby causing another advance. Our diamond stock is very complete, and most of the stones were purchased before the recent advances. However, we have not raised the prices.

DEATHS

Hintz—On Friday, Oct. 16th, at 8:15 o'clock a. m., Mrs. Benjamin A. Hintz, nee Mary Larmane, died. Deceased was born in New Orleans fifty years ago and resided in our district for the past twenty years. Mrs. Hintz is survived by her husband and by several children. The funeral took place Sunday, Oct. 18th, at 3 o'clock, from her late residence, 417 Slidell avenue. Interment was in St. Joseph No. 2 cemetery.

MRS. N. SIMMS INJURED.

On Monday last while passing the corner of Olivier and Eliza streets, Mrs. N. Simms of Opelousas avenue was injured about the head by stones being thrown by boys. Mrs. Simms for a while lost consciousness and was taken into the residence of Saul Sease, where she was revived. Mrs. Simms stated that she believed she knew the parties and would make charges against their parents.

It has been the practice during the past few weeks since large quantities of gravel have been distributed along the route where the tiled conduits are being laid to the city drainage and sewerage plants, for young boys to fill their pockets with these stones and pelt them at citizens and windows along the route. Many pedestrians have been injured and a great many window glasses have suffered on this account.
