shall be in the City of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, who all being of legal age and sound mind, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing articles, together with the objects and purposes of this corporation as hereby stated and declared to be:

(1) To acquire by purchase or lease, or otherwise, lands in the Louisiana Sulphur and Oil fields of Louisiana, or in any other location in this State, or elsewhere, for the purpose of prospecting for, and obtaining oil, gas, salt, sulphur or other minerals, and to drill, or cause to be drilled oil wells, or sink, or cause to be sunk shafts for mining and to buy, lease, or otherwise acquire, drilling rigs, or other machinery or apparatus necessary to fully accomplish said purposes; and if oil or other minerals are found, then to market the same to the best advantage.

(2) To engage in the distribution of oil, gas, salt, sulphur or other minerals either produced by this corporation, or purchased, leased, or obtained by means of pipe lines, tramways, railroad boats, barges or other conveyances, or to lease or sub-lease all or part thereof to any other persons or corporations for said purpose, and in order to fully carry out the objects and purposes of this corporation, to otherwise acquire pipe lines, tramways, railroad boats, barges, tank cars, locomotives, pumping stations, steam plants, air plants, and all other machinery, apparatus and paraphernalia necessary or incidental thereto.

(3) To build, construct, lease, purchase or otherwise acquire, machinery and other apparatus for refining, smelting, manufacturing, or otherwise working up the products of mineral lands falling under this corporation or other persons or corporations, and to refine, smelt, manufacture, or otherwise work up by products, or to market the products, as manufactured, to the best advantage.

(4) To carry on such other business pertaining to oil, gas, salt, sulphur or other minerals as may be necessary or desirable, or such as are generally engaged in by a corporation of this kind.

Article 4.—The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Eleven thousand nine hundred $11,900.00 Dollars, divided into seventeen hundred shares of the par value of Seven Dollars each, provided that the amount to which the capital stock of this corporation may be increased shall be One hundred thousand $100,000.00 Dollars.

Fifty per cent of the capital stock of this corporation must be subscribed for before the filing of the articles of incorporation. The subscribed capital stock of this corporation shall be payable in cash, property, real or personal or for services performed or rendered, and provided that if the stock is paid for in cash that the law as provided for in Section 3 (three) of Act 267 of 1914, be in all respects complied with.

No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the faults, contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance of the shares of stock which he has subscribed for by him nor shall any mere informality in the organization have the effect of rendering this charter null and void, or exposing any shareholder to any liability whatsoever.

This corporation shall not begin to do business and be a going concern until Ten thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars of the capital stock shall have been issued and paid for, either in cash, services or in property as herein provided, and the balance of the capital stock of this corporation shall be paid for in property in that event the terms and provisions of Section 3 (three) of Act 267 of 1914 shall be in all respects complied with.

Article 5.—All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors to be composed of eleven stockholders, each of whom shall own in his own right, during his term of office, at least one full paid, non-pledged share of stock, which shall be shown by his written declaration, six of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Provided the Board of Directors shall have power to increase, in their discretion, the number of directors from eleven to fifteen, in which event eight shall constitute a quorum.

The officers of this corporation shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, all of whom shall be members of the board of directors, the offices of secretary and treasurer may be held, if desired by one and the same person.

The following named persons shall constitute the board of directors of this corporation, to-wit: U. S. Berry, Dallas, Texas; H. N. Pharr, Oliver, La.; T. T. Attebury, Crowley, La.; N. E. Collins, Lafayette, La.; J. A. Morgan, Lafayette, La.; Emile Simon, New Iberia, La.; Luke Trainer, New Iberia, La.; W. W. Hines, New Orleans, La.; with H. N. Pharr, as President; T. T. Attebury, as Vice-President and W. W. Hines, as Secretary and Treasurer, and these directors and officers shall serve until the first Monday in June, 1915, or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

Article 6.—The board of directors shall hold regular meetings at such times as shall be fixed in the by-laws of this corporation. These meetings shall be held at the domicile of the corporation, but the president may call special meetings of the board of directors at such times as he may deem advisable, and he shall be required to call such special meetings whenever requested to do so by three members of the board of directors. Three days' notice of such special meetings shall be given in writing to the directors unless waiver of notice is signed by the directors. Any vacancy occurring on the board either from death, resignation, or inability to serve shall be filled by the board of directors at its next regular meeting after such vacancy shall have occurred. The first board of directors of this corporation shall be required to draft suitable by-laws for the government of this corporation, which may be altered, amended or changed as the exigencies of the case may require.

Article 7.—The stock of this corporation may be transferred, provided such transfer shall be recorded upon the books of the corporation, and the transferee shall be required to recognize the transfer or the new holder of said stock. The total amount of the subscribed stock as herein provided set forth is the sum of One thousand nine hundred and fifty ($1,950.00) Dollars, which is hereby authorized to be issued fully paid and non-assessable, for cash, at such time as this charter may be modified, or altered, the capital stock thereof increased or decreased, or the corporation may be dissolved with the assent of two-thirds of the Capital Stock present or represented at a meeting of the stockholders held for that purpose after prior notice in writing to each stockholder or mailed to him at his last known post office address, all in accordance with the terms of Act 267 of 1914.

Article 8.—At the expiration of this charter, or the earlier dissolution of this corporation for any cause, its affairs shall be liquidated by one or more liquidators to be elected by the stockholders, all of whom shall hold stock in said company and said commissioners are hereby vested with full power and authority to liquidate the affairs of said company, with full power to act under the terms of Section 3 (three) of Act 267 of 1914.

Article 9.—The domicile of this corporation shall be in the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana.

Article 10.—The signers hereby declare that they have subscribed to the following number of shares of the capital stock of this corporation, to-wit: U. S. Berry, Dallas, Texas, Five shares; H. N. FRANCIS P. BURNS, Notary Public, in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing articles, together with the objects and purposes of this corporation as hereby stated and declared to be:

(1) To acquire by purchase or lease, or otherwise, lands in the Louisiana Sulphur and Oil fields of Louisiana, or in any other location in this State, or elsewhere, for the purpose of prospecting for, and obtaining oil, gas, salt, sulphur or other minerals, and to drill, or cause to be drilled oil wells, or sink, or cause to be sunk shafts for mining and to buy, lease, or otherwise acquire, drilling rigs, or other machinery or apparatus necessary to fully accomplish said purposes; and if oil or other minerals are found, then to market the same to the best advantage.

(2) To engage in the distribution of oil, gas, salt, sulphur or other minerals either produced by this corporation, or purchased, leased, or obtained by means of pipe lines, tramways, railroad boats, barges or other conveyances, or to lease or sub-lease all or part thereof to any other persons or corporations for said purpose, and in order to fully carry out the objects and purposes of this corporation, to otherwise acquire pipe lines, tramways, railroad boats, barges, tank cars, locomotives, pumping stations, steam plants, air plants, and all other machinery, apparatus and paraphernalia necessary or incidental thereto.

(3) To build, construct, lease, purchase or otherwise acquire, machinery and other apparatus for refining, smelting, manufacturing, or otherwise working up the products of mineral lands falling under this corporation or other persons or corporations, and to refine, smelt, manufacture, or otherwise work up by products, or to market the products, as manufactured, to the best advantage.

(4) To carry on such other business pertaining to oil, gas, salt, sulphur or other minerals as may be necessary or desirable, or such as are generally engaged in by a corporation of this kind.

Article 1.—The name and style of this corporation shall be "NEAL INSTITUTES COMPANY OF LOUISIANA, INC."

Article 2.—The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and established are to own, conduct or operate hospitals in New Orleans or elsewhere in the State of Louisiana for the care and attention of the sick, injured, aged or infirm, and to provide useful, sanitary, scientific and hygienic places and apparatus, where its patients may be treated, attended and cared for by regularly licensed practitioners of medicine and surgery and skillful and competent nurses, as may be required, and to acquire or otherwise deal in or dispose of real estate, buildings, household furniture and other apparatus as shall from time to time be found needful, convenient, desirable in and about the operation or conduct of its said business, and to contract with its patients for their service and attention, and generally, to own, maintain and conduct hospitals, and to have general and individual powers as may be necessary in furtherance of the objects and purposes herein set forth or such as a natural person or individual may exercise, and to have and be vested with such powers as are conferred upon corporations of the same kind and character, under the laws of the State of Louisiana.

Article 3.—The authorized capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Twenty thousand ($20,000) Dollars, divided into Two thousand (2,000) shares of the par value of Ten ($10.00) Dollars each, all of which shall be common stock and the same shall be issued for cash money, or in payment of property or services actually received by or rendered to said corporation. This corporation shall commence business and begin to go into operation as soon as $10,000 of its capital stock shall have been subscribed and paid for, and its issuance and, thereafter, non-assessable.

Article 4.—The domicile of this corporation shall be in the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, City of New Orleans.

Be it known, that on this thirty-first (31st) day of March, 1914, at the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, the undersigned, FRANCIS P. BURNS, Notary Public, in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing articles, together with the objects and purposes of this corporation as hereby stated and declared to be:

common stockholders, and one by the preferred stockholders from among the preferred stockholders, and in the event it should be determined that there shall be five directors on the board of directors, then a new election, three directors shall be elected by the common stockholders from among the common stockholders and two by the preferred stockholders from among the preferred stockholders. A majority of the directors elected shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said directors shall be elected at a general meeting of the stockholders of this corporation to be held on the second Monday of February next, and thereafter, unless said day shall be a legal holiday, in which event said election shall be held on the next succeeding business day. Notice of said election shall be given to each stockholder in writing by letter addressed and mailed to the residence of each stockholder at least fifteen days before such meeting.

The board of directors shall at its first meeting elect from among its members a president, a vice president and a secretary-treasurer.

Any vacancy occurring among the directors of this corporation by death, resignation or otherwise shall be filled by election for the unexpired term by the remaining directors from among the stockholders of this corporation.

The first election for directors shall be held at the annual meeting of the corporation on the second Monday in February 1915, at which time their successors shall be elected, and thereafter, the election of the following shall constitute the first board of directors: Albert Kossman of New Orleans, Louisiana, shall be president; Wallace C. Marine of New Orleans, Louisiana, shall be vice-president; and Wallace C. Marine of New Orleans, Louisiana, shall be secretary-treasurer.

The failure for any cause to elect directors shall not constitute a dissolution of this corporation, but the officers and directors then in office shall hold over until their successors shall have been duly qualified. In the event of any failure to hold the election on the day stipulated, the president of the corporation and in his absence the vice president, shall have the right to call a new election to be held after notice, as hereinabove provided, shall have been given to each stockholder, and the same shall be held on the day stipulated, the president of the corporation and in his absence the vice president, shall have the right to call a new election to be held after notice, as hereinabove provided, shall have been given to each stockholder, and the same shall be held on the day stipulated,
