Move Into a Wired House

When looking for a house with all modern improvements, see that it's wired for electric light—it is as essential as the plumbing.

A House Wired for Electric Service

Provides conveniences and comforts not obtainable otherwise—electric light, electric heating and cooking, the use of electric fans and other things electrical. All useful, labor saving and economical.

If the house you like is not wired, ask the landlord to have it wired—he will do it without fuss or bother to you, and at minimum cost to him.

Improvident Zulu.

The Zulu is absolutely without property except the hut wherein he lives. He is a strict apostle of the teaching of take no thought of the morrow. He never lays in any store and if he has plenty one day he eats until he can find no more. The next day he may find nothing to eat and he gets along the best he can like a bird. Birds never store up for the future. The Zulu is the bird of mankind. He decorates his head with plumage and fine colored feathers, but he has not clothing for his body except coarse woven cloth.

Test of Spiritual Life.

If we may take one test or sign by which to judge of advance in the spiritual life, it would be this—whether more and more calmness is being maintained in the midst of all the disturbances and troubles which are wont to come, which may ever be looked for in some form or other—whether there be peacefulness of mind, and order of thought in the midst of all that once too much distracted and agitated the soul.—T. T. Carter.

The Prophesied Completeness.

We rejoice in life because it seems to be carrying us somewhere; because its darkness seems to be rolling on toward light, and even its pain to be moving onward to a hidden joy. We bear with incompleteness because of the completion which is prophesied and hoped for.—Phillips Brooks.

DRINK, CIGAR OR $50,000 HIS CHOICE

Wealthy Tobacco Dealer Places Conditions on Bequest to Nephew.

Watertown, N. Y.—On the condition that Charles Gordon Emery II neither drinks nor smokes until he is thirty years old he will receive $50,000 from the estate of his grandfather, Charles G. Emery, whose will was filed for probate here. Mr. Emery, a tobacco man, spent much of his time at his home on Calumet Island, in the St. Lawrence, near here. The estate is estimated at $4,000,000. A majority is left in trust to relatives. Two servants, Pauline and Nashville Wanner of New York city, each receive $4,000. Frank W. Emery, son, receives $250,000 in trust, and similar amounts in trust are given to the two daughters of Mr. Emery. A nephew, William Francis Emery, received $20,000 in trust, and a niece, Mabel Tracy Emery, receives $10,000. At the termination of the trusts the estate is to be divided among the three children or their survivors. The sum of $1,000,000 is left in trust to keep and maintain the St. Lawrence property. A large amount of the estate consists of oil producing ranches in the West.

"GET DOWN OFF THAT SEAT!"

When Car Conductor Starts to Enforce His Command He Joins Passengers in Laugh.

Indianapolis.—Car No. 907 on the East Washington street line was crowded to the doors, as usual, recently. It looked as if half the passengers were standing. But when the conductor looked back over the heads of the jammed-in crowd and saw one man's head far above the others he recalled that passengers are not permitted to stand on the seats and he decided that the man must get down. "Hey, you, get down off that seat!" the conductor yelled. But the passenger paid no attention to the order. "Hey, you, I told you to get down off that seat," came again from the conductor. The passenger paid no more attention to the second order than he did to the first one. "I'll make that guy get down," the conductor said, and he started toward the crowd toward the rear of the car. But the passenger did not get down from the seat. He was 6 feet 7 1/2 inches tall and his head was far above the rest of the crowd. The crowd laughed. So did the conductor.

Centipede Routes Girls.

A great big eight-inch centipede, an old fellow with black body and light brown claws, invaded the French class at the high school here. When first noticed he was crawling up Mme. Muenier's dress. The French class of nine girls screamed simultaneously, but Miss Lucie Woorten was the heroine of the hour, knocking the centipede from the teacher's clothing. One would have thought a mouse was loose in the schoolroom by the way the young women hopped upon the benches.

Woman Gives Rebukes of Ghost as Reason for Her Deed.

After Taking Poison Widow Writes Note Declaring Apparition Unbraided Her for Kind of Life She Led.

Pittsburgh.—Fear-stricken and remorseful as a result of the nightly visits of what she believed to be the ghost of her dead husband remonstrating with her for the life she had been leading, a woman listed at the morgue as Mrs. Anna Shaw, aged thirty-three years, but whose last name is said by her sister to be Rush, took her own life at her home, by swallowing a quantity of poisonous disinfectant.

After swallowing the poison, the woman is said to have written a letter to a sister telling of her life since the death of her husband in the Dixmont Hospital for the Insane, six months ago, and warning other women not to follow in her steps.

Ghost Remonstrated With Her. According to other residents of the house where Mrs. Shaw resided with her two children, the woman had been in constant fear for the past several weeks because, she said, the ghostly figure of her husband confronted her at every turn, both day and night, beckoning her to come, and remonstrating with her because she was not leading a proper life.

The woman, after swallowing the poison, lived an hour, in which time she told residents of the house she was sorry for the act, and pleaded that a physician be called.

The woman's own story, according to the residents of the house, was that she was awakened early in the morning by the figure of her husband. Despondent, she said, because the figure haunted her both day and night, she went to a bathroom and drank the poison.

paid only $4 a week, and it took that to keep John and Harry in the Sunshine Home. When Ed died I was left to care for the children, and then I couldn't keep them and myself on the salary I could earn, and I had to do something else. I have seen Ed lately, and he is calling me to him in heaven, and I am going to meet him there. Forgive me, dear sister, and don't let my boy and girl know of the awful fate of their mother. Let this be a warning to others who might want to lead the life I have led. Your loving sister, ANNA.

The "Ed" referred to in the note is Mrs. Rush's husband, Edward Rush, a former resident of Washington, Pa., and an electrician. He died in the Dixmont hospital, according to Mrs. Mrs. Marie Laughlin, a sister of the dead woman.

Constable Loses His Prisoner and Is Given Eleven Days to Think It Over.

Columbus, Ind.—Henry (Seatter) O'Brien, a constable attached to the court of W. W. Stader, justice of the peace of this city, was given time for reflection in the county jail, where he was sent for eleven days by Mayor Volland, acting judge of the city court.

O'Brien tried to arrest Pleasant Pruitt of Edinburg for intoxication and got into trouble on the same charge himself. Pruitt was inclined to admit that the charge was true, and officer and prisoner started to the jail together. O'Brien was drunk himself and fell down before the jail was reached.

"Looky here," said Pruitt, who was holding O'Brien up, "you're liable to drag me down in the mud and get me all dirty. I'm goin' to take you back here and let you sit down."

So Pruitt took charge of the constable and returned him to the waiting room of the Indianapolis, Columbus and Southern Traction company. There O'Brien went to sleep and his prisoner boarded a car for Edinburg. Two policemen came along and found O'Brien sleeping. They placed him in jail. In the city court he pleaded guilty to the charge of intoxication and Mayor Volland fined him $1 and costs. In default of payment he went to jail for eleven days.

ACT OF INCORPORATION

OF NEAL INSTITUTES COMPANY OF LOUISIANA, INC.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Orleans, City of New Orleans.

Be it known, That on this, the 21st day of the month of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and fifteen and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-ninth, before me, Charles F. Fletcher, a notary public, duly commissioned and qualified for the State, parish and city aforesaid, there residing, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared that, availing themselves of the laws of this State relative to the formation and organization of corporations, they have covenanted and agreed and bind themselves, as well as those who may hereafter become associated with them, to form themselves into a corporation for the objects and purposes, with the name and under the stipulations following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.—The name and style of this corporation shall be, "Neal Institutes Company of Louisiana, Inc." and by said corporation name it shall have succession and enjoy existence for the period of ninety-nine years, unless the same shall be sooner dissolved by law and the articles of this charter; and under said corporation name it shall have power and authority to contract, sue and be sued, to make and use a corporate seal, the same to alter or break at pleasure, to make all necessary arrangements, and shall have and enjoy all the rights, privileges and immunities which are now conferred by law and hereafter to be conferred on corporations of the same kind and character.

ARTICLE II.—The domicile of this corporation shall be in the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, and all citations and other legal processes shall be served upon the president or, in his absence, upon the secretary, upon any other officer of the corporation.

ARTICLE III.—The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and by which it is hereby declared to be to conduct and operate hospitals and sanitariums for the treatment of incurables, drug addicts and kindred additions; to board patients and furnish lodging for hire for the same whenever it shall be deemed wise and expedient; to be necessary to operate under a contract or franchise from the Neal Institutes Company, of Chicago, Ill., and to administer to the State of Louisiana for the care and attention of the sick, injured, aged or infirm, and to provide useful sanitary, scientific and hygienic places and apparatus, and to be regularly licensed practitioners of medicine and surgery and skillful and competent nurses, as may be lawful, to own, lease, hire or otherwise acquire, convey, mortgage, sell or otherwise deal in or dispose of real estate, buildings, hospitals, supplies, drugs and apparatus as shall from time to time be found needful, convenient, desirable in and about the operation or conduct of its said business, and to contract with its patients for such service and attention, and generally, to own, maintain and conduct hospitals, and to have such general and individual powers as may be necessary in furtherance of the objects and purposes herein set forth or such as a natural person might have and exercise, and to have and be vested with such powers as are conferred upon corporations of the same kind and character, under the laws of the State of Louisiana.

ARTICLE IV.—The authorized capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Twenty Thousand ($20,000) Dollars, divided into Two Thousand (2,000) shares of the value of Ten ($10.00) Dollars each, all of which shall be common stock and the same may be issued for cash money or in payment of property or services actually received by or rendered to said corporation. This corporation shall commence business and become a stockholder as soon as $10,000 of its capital stock shall have been subscribed and paid; said stock shall be fully paid at the time of its issuance and, thereafter, non-assessable.

The parties hereto declare that they each subscribe for the number of shares of said capital stock set opposite their respective signatures hereto, being two hundred and fifty (250) shares each, or an aggregate of Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars, the same to be paid for by the sale, transfer and assignment by the subscribers hereto to said corporation of that certain contract by and between the said subscribers and the Neal Institutes Company of Chicago, Illinois, dated January 1, 1915, covering a period of 99 years, giving and conferring upon them the exclusive privilege of making use in the State of Louisiana of the Neal remedies, medicines and treatment of drug addicts, and the dispensing of which is made the primary object of incorporation hereunder, and which said contract has been approved by the board of directors hereinafter named, at the price and sum of Ten Thousand Dollars. And said subscribers being the joint owners of the aforesaid franchise or contract, have elected to take stock in this corporation in lieu of the payment by it to them of cash money. The residue of said capital stock shall be issued and paid for subject to the action of the Board of Directors, but within twelve months from the date hereof. The capital stock of this corporation may be increased to the sum of $50,000.00, in accordance with the provisions of law pertaining thereto.

ARTICLE V.—All the powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of not less than three nor more than five Directors, to be elected each at the Stockholders' Annual Meeting. The persons to be named as Directors, may select from their own number a President, a Vice-President, and a Secretary-Treasurer. The first Board of Directors, with postoffice addresses, are as follows: J. V. Allen, who shall be President, Birmingham, Ala.; Wm. Teney, who shall be Vice-President, Birmingham, Ala.; Marion Allen, who shall be Secretary-Treasurer, Birmingham, Ala. On the second Tuesday of January, 1916, and on the same day of each succeeding year, except when such day shall fall on a legal holiday, then upon the next following legal day, the stockholders shall elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, the Board already installed to continue to hold-over until their successors are elected and qualified. The Board of Directors so elected shall select from their own number the officers of the corporation as above provided, and shall also appoint a manager of the corporation. The election of Directors shall be by ballot, and the persons receiving the largest number of votes cast shall be declared elected. For electing Directors or for any other purpose, each share of stock, whether present or by proxy, shall be entitled to one vote, and a majority of votes cast shall be required to pass any resolution or decide any question submitted to the stockholders, except for the alteration or amendment of this Charter or the dissolution of the corporation, as hereinafter provided.

The said Board of Directors shall have power and authority to make all necessary rules and regulations for the management, operation and control of the business of the corporation, as well as to make all necessary rules and by-laws, with power to fill any vacancy occurring in their number. A majority of directors voting at any one time, in person or by proxy, shall be required to pass any resolution or adopt any law and which, when so adopted, shall become valid corporate acts.

ARTICLE VI.—Notice of all meetings of stockholders for electing directors or for any other purpose, shall be given in writing by the Secretary, to be deposited in the mail at least fifteen days before the meeting, directed to each stockholder at his last known address appearing upon the books of the corporation, unless said notice is waived in writing by all the stockholders appearing as such upon the books.

ARTICLE VII.—This act of incorporation may be modified, added to, changed or amended by this corporation, to be approved by and with the assent of the holders of two-thirds in amount of the then outstanding stock given at a general meeting of the stockholders, to be convened after fifteen days' prior notice, as provided in Article VI of this Charter.

In the event of the dissolution of said corporation, either by limitation of its Charter, or otherwise, its affairs shall be liquidated by three commissioners, to be appointed and elected at a special meeting of the stockholders for that purpose, as above provided, and who shall remain in office until the affairs of said corporation shall be fully liquidated; and in the event of the death or disability of one or more of said liquidators, the survivors or survivor shall continue to act.

ARTICLE VIII.—No stockholder shall be held liable or responsible for the contracts or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due to the corporation on the shares owned by him, nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to liability beyond the amount of his unpaid stock, if any.

Thus done and passed, at my office, in the City of New Orleans, on the day, month and year first herebefore written, in the presence of Burt W. Henry and Philip A. Miller, competent witnesses, who herewith sign their names, together with said witnesses, and me, notary, after due reading of the whole.

Name: Address: No. of Shares: Names of Subscribers (omitted). Witnesses: Burt W. Henry, Philip A. Miller, CHAS. F. FLETCHER, Notary Public. I, the undersigned, Recorder of Mortgages in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, hereby certify that the above and foregoing Act of Incorporation of the Neal Institutes Company of Louisiana, Inc., was this day duly recorded in my office in Book 1127, fol. —.
