ROBBED AT BALL PARK.

Charles Sutherland Loses Wallet Containing $120.

When Charles A. Sutherland, 801 Pacific avenue, Algiers, left Heinemann Park Sunday afternoon after having witnessed an exciting struggle between the Pelicans and the Detroit Tigers, he discovered that he had been separated from his pocketbook, which contained $120.

Mr. Sutherland was unable to account for the loss of his wallet, but believes some light-fingered person relieved him of it. The pocketbook rested in his hip pocket and he says he hardly could have dropped it. It contained his identification card and a Sewerage and Water Board permit. He made a complaint to the police Sunday night about his loss.
