MR. SALATHE HELD BLAMELESS.

A deplorable accident occurred last Monday evening, when Harry Mistich, 591 South Johnson, came to his death by being run over by a heavy brewery truck. The accident occurred on Johnson street, between Gravier and Perdido streets. One of the rear wheels of the truck passed over the boy's head, killing him instantly.

The boy was playing in the street with Joseph Italiano, who resides at 565 South Johnson. The brewery truck was drawn by two horses, driven by Erwin Salathe, an employe of the Standard Brewing Company. The horses were going at a walk, when young Mistich and his companion stopped in their play and climbed on the wagon.

Mistich climbed on a step on the side of the wagon, between the front and rear wheels. He rode several yards, and jumping off fell backwards, his head going beneath one of the rear wheels.

Persons who witnessed the boy's death say there was no negligence on the part of the driver. An investigation by the police showed that from where Salathe was sitting on his seat it was impossible to see that part of the wagon where the boy was riding before he met his death.

NAVAL STATION NOTES.

The Castine has been completed, and sailed yesterday for Port au Prince, Haiti, where she will be stationed until the settlement of the present trouble at that place. Captain Carter and his men have enjoyed their stay at New Orleans, as most of the officers have had leave and the men plenty of liberty. They have already begun to look forward to their next overhaul period here.

The first accident since the yard opened occurred Tuesday morning, when Machinist Ormond and his helper, Arthur, were struck by some iron while working on the Castine. Mr. Arthur was not hurt to any extent, but Mr. Ormond received a nasty cut on the head. He was immediately taken to the Dispensary, where Dr. Baker took charge of him.

NOTES FROM THE ALHAMBRA.

On last Friday evening the indoor baseball team of the Alhambra Gymnastic Club, together with a number of rooters, journeyed over to the Moose Gymnasium on Canal street to play the second game with that club. Luck was against the local team, however, and the Moose scored their second victory. The game, while interesting, was nothing to compare with the last game played by these two teams and lacked the usual excitement. It must be understood, however, that the local boys were considerably handicapped owing to the fact that several of the star players were unable to be present and had to be replaced by substitutes.

Pitcher McGuire was on the mound for the local boys until the fourth inning, when he was replaced by Kirby Barret. The Moose artillery had their eyes on the ball, however, and scored about seven hits off the delivery of the two local hurlers.

Pitcher McGuire, better known as the "Terrible Turk," was in the box for the Moose and did excellent work, getting quite a few strikeouts.

After the game the ladies and gentlemen present were served with dainty refreshments.

DEATH OF MRS. HYMEL.

Early on Sunday afternoon the grim reaper made his exit from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hymel, 1001 Baronne street, having claimed as his own the well-loved wife and mother, Emma Lee Phillips Hymel, for the past two years Mrs. Hymel's health has not been good, and her death was a sudden one, as she fell at about 9:30 in the morning, and before 2 o'clock that afternoon her soul had appeared before its Maker. Mrs. Hymel was a native of Manayunk, La., and was born about thirty-five years ago, but spent many years of her girlhood in our town, and she has many dear, devoted friends here who have many regrets to express at her demise. Mr. Hymel is also well known here, having resided here during all of his life until a few years ago, when he with his family removed to the city.

Besides her husband and five little children, Mrs. Hymel is survived by her father and several sisters and brothers.

The funeral was conducted at the house and church by Rev. Father Frohn of St. John's Church in the city, and it can be stated with all certainty that the beautiful and touching sermon he delivered over her corpse will be remembered for many days by those who heard him. Mrs. Hymel was laid to rest in the Hymel place in St. Bartholomew Cemetery in our town.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to her bereaved family, especially to her husband and dear little ones.

MARINES AND CITIZENS FIGHT.

A fight between a number of citizens and United States marines from the Algiers Naval Station took place Thursday night in Algiers. A number of bricks were hurled by the former at the latter during their flight, being outnumbered, but as far as has been learned no one was hurt. The trouble started when a marine named Junter attempted to enter the home of a young lady in Slidell avenue, and was refused admittance because her father said he was drunk. Junter is alleged to have gone off and rounded up several companions, also marines, who again called at the Bureau home. They were refused admittance.

A crowd of men and boys were standing at Brooklyn and Slidell avenues and the trouble was taken up by them. The marines were chased several squares and managed to elude the crowd. Both the police and the Naval Station authorities made an investigation, but the identity of the parties involved, except Junter, could not be ascertained.

PLAYGROUNDS PICNIC.

The annual picnic of the Algiers Playgrounds children was given on Sunday, Aug. 1, 1915, at the Sunset camp at Milneburg. The children were chaperoned, as usual, by Mrs. J. E. Huckins, who at all times has the welfare of the children at heart. The Louisville & Nashville Railroad, through Mr. Di Benedetto, the playground manager, furnished a private coach to convey the children to and from Milneburg. On arriving at the camp the children bedecked themselves for the sport, which included bathing and boating. Dancing was also indulged in, a fine band furnishing the music.

They had the pleasure of having as their guest Mrs. Monahan, the police matron of Milneburg. As she approached the camp the band played "Dixie" and the children gave her a cordial greeting with three loud cheers. In the evening the children enjoyed the ice cream donated by our good Mayor, who never forgets the Algiers children. All gave a rising vote of thanks to Mayor Martin Behrman, Mr. Verlander of the ferry company, Mr. Di Benedetto, the manager of the playgrounds, and last, but not least, to their chaperon, Mrs. J. E. Huckins. The children came home tired and sunburned, but happy, still rejoicing over the good time they had.

The smaller children will be guests of Mayor Behrman some time in August at the City Park. Since the Algiers Playground won the flower parade last May, the Mayor has promised the youngsters an outing. It was deemed advisable to send the smaller children to City Park, avoiding the dangers of the lake. The mothers will also be invited.

WATERMELON PARTY.

On Monday evening Mrs. J. Hicks, of Slidell, Ave., entertained a delightful little gathering of twelve at a watermelon party.

Everyone had a jolly time, and the spirit of good cheer pervaded the air, and everything was lovable, laughable and jovial. Each guest got a goodly portion of melon and showed their appreciation of good things by leaving only the rind. Mrs. Hicks was voted a most excellent hostess.

At twelve o'clock the merry crowd departed, all soaking wet from the effects of watermelon contests.
