THREE BARRELS OF CLOTHING

Generous Donations from the Algiers People for Bay Adams Sufferers.

On last Saturday morning The Herald sent to the Bay Adams storm sufferers three large sugar barrels of clothing which were sent in by some of the good people of our town. This clothing was sent to Mr. Joseph Hingle who was appointed one of the committee at Empire, La., for the distribution to those worthy of help. The barrels were kindly transported to Bay Adams by the gasoline launch, "Example" without cost.

It is a pleasure to state that all of the contributions of clothing sent in were of a character quite out of the ordinary and as all of the bundles had to be opened to be repacked in barrels it gave an opportunity to see the good class of clothing that was sent to those poor unfortunate people. Many of the donations consisted of new wearing apparel while the other clothing showed little if any wear; especially was this true of children's clothing; several pairs of shoes that had not been worn were sent in.

The following were contributors to this worthy charity: Dr. A. C. King, Mrs. H. R. Hafkesbring, Mrs. S. Davis, Mrs. Henry Aycock, Mrs. Amelia Smith, Mrs. B. G. Baker, Mrs. F. M. McLean, Miss Vic Hymel, Mrs. L. Munsterman, Miss Francis Hughes, Miss Ethel Rhodes, Mrs. R. E. Whitmore, Mrs. H. T. Malone, and Mrs. C. V. Kraft.

The containers for the clothing were donated by John Kleinkemper Company, Theo J. Lala and Sierra Brothers.

STREETS FLOODED.

The rain on Tuesday most certainly have been a record breaker for looking at the streets in our district at about one to four o'clock in the afternoon, the town looked more like Venice than any place we have ever seen in picture, and no doubt the question arose "Have we a drainage system on this side of the river?" Almost every street in our district was flooded from curb to curb; street cars were stopped running, a funeral was postponed and it required several hours for the water to recede sufficiently to allow pedestrians to go to and from their homes and the police patrol was also used to help some of the people to their destination.

In the vicinity between the viaduct and the Naval Station there was a solid expanse of water covering street car tracks and roadway, and later on as the water started to leave it washed great holes in the gravel road which was already in a bad state of preservation.

Pelican avenue, Alix and Seguin streets were flooded to a greater depth than was ever known before. Where did all the water come from?

know that Chas. Russell is doing nicely after a serious illness.

The Friday Night Euchre Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Geo. Talbot. The successful players were Mrs. Lagarde, Mrs. O. Aycock, Mrs. R. Williams and Miss F. J. Borne. The consolation was received by Mrs. F. Goebel. Mrs. L. Tufts will entertain at its next meeting.

The locket donated by Mrs. Jos. Wheatley for the benefit of the late Mrs. J. Brune was disposed of Tuesday night, Miss Emma Matchett receiving same. The sum of nine dollars was turned over to Mr. Brune.

The Woodmen and the Woodmen Circle booth at Chif was a decided success. Mrs. Amelia Smith, the chairlady, has quite a number of checks to turn over to the fund.

Mayor Behrman formally opened the South Louisiana Fair at Donaldsonville yesterday when he delivered the opening address.

Among those who donated to the Storm Sufferers' Fund was Andreas P. Abascal, of our town. Mr. Abascal's donation was $50.

At the meeting of the Commission Council Tuesday, Mayor Behrman re-appointed Jos. W. Lennox to serve on the Sewerage and Water Board from the Fifth District, the term being 12 years.

Last week Mrs. Frank C. Hymel and little daughter, Margaret returned after an extended trip through the West. They left here during July with the Elks and remained in Frisco for quite a while. Mrs. Hymel visited her sister, Mrs. Ruhlman, who resides in Frisco. Before returning to our town Mrs. Hymel and little Margaret visited Chicago, where Mrs. Hymel has another sister. They enjoyed their trip exceedingly.

It is indeed with pleasure that we announce that Wallace Christy, one of our most popular young men, is improving rapidly, after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. The operation was performed at the Hotel Dieu by Dr. A. C. King. His many friends hope to see him out soon.

DEATH OF LOUISE BORNE.

Early on Monday afternoon Miss Louise Borne, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Borne, Sr., departed this life after an illness of more than a year. She was born in St. John parish, nearly seventeen years ago but lived in our town for the past thirteen years. Miss Louise at one time attended the Belleville school but for nearly two years has been unable to attend any school. She was very popular with the younger set and had many staunch friends.

The funeral of this little sufferer had been set for Tuesday afternoon, but owing to the very heavy rainfall it could not take place and was postponed until yesterday morning. Services were held at the house, the church and St. Bartholomew Cemetery, where the remains of this cherished child have been laid to rest.

INSULT TO GIRL IS BLAMED IN ATTACK

Youth Denies Robbery Charge and Brings Fiancee in Nielson Attack Case.

Charged with attempting to commit robbery and kill Chris Nielson, tailor, of 636 Commercial Alley, Adam Knop, 19 years old, of 128 Morgan street, Algiers, brought the name of his former fiancee into the case Tuesday morning in an exclusive interview with The States.

Knop denies that he intended committing robbery, adding that he "gave Nielson a beating for insulting his sweetheart, to whom he was engaged." Nielson is in Charity Hospital suffering from a fractured skull.

Knop said that he had known Nielson a long time. Some time ago, he said, on his way to Nielson's shop to see about a suit, he met his sweetheart, 18 years old, and took her along.

He noticed while they were in the shop that Nielson was paying marked attention to the girl, he said. The following day he followed the girl to Nielson's shop. When he tried to open the door, he found it was locked. Later the girl came out. She admitted, according to Knop, that Nielson had induced her to visit his shop and that he had offered her money.

"I made up my mind then to give Nielson a beating," he continued. "I brought a woman to Nielson's place yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. I did so in order to get into the place. I left after taking the woman there and shortly afterwards the woman left. Nielson came out some time after and went towards Royal street. I then entered his place and concealed myself.

"I told him that I was going to beat him or he would beat me. It was his back that he took from a corner of the shop and tried to strike me with. I took the blackjack away from him and hit him on the head."

Nielson denies he induced the girl to come to his place or that he insulted her. Nielson wore, in his shirt, a diamond stud and had a diamond ring, in all valued at about $1,000.—Daily States.

SPANIARD ACCUSED OF ATTACK ON ALGIERS WOMAN.

Had it not been for the prompt arrival of William Graff, 708 Valence street, and Harold Heidemann, 2841 Constance street, Mrs. Amelia Keelen, 314 Newton street, might have been roughly handled at 9 o'clock Thursday morning shortly after she had stepped from a Prytania car at Jackson avenue on her way to the home of her aunt.

Mrs. Keelen's screams attracted the attention of Messrs. Heidemann and Graff, and they ran to her assistance. Ryles Pascal, a Spaniard of 436 Galinnie street, was captured by them after Pascal is said to have grabbed Mrs. Keelen and insulted her. The Spaniard was fined $20 and given twenty days with an additional sentence of nine days in default of payment of the fine. He was also charged in first city criminal court with assault and battery.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

"When I send your sign out yonder," said he to Uncle Jake, "Come in and get some coffee like your mother used to make," I thought of my old mother, and the Injiana farm,

And me a little kid again a' hanging on her arm.

In the wake of that awful, fear-inspiring storm stands the badly damaged abode of a lonely nonagenarian—the good widow Stickle. Poor old soul!

Tested by the force and fury of the hurricane, this structure bruted the storm itself, and only failed its occupants after the heavy timbers from the roof of the schoolhouse were hurled, like battering rams, atop and abeam of it.

In all fairness and equity the city should replace this damage—merge this in the public repairs.

Dear gentle reader, won't you help circulate and urge this suggestion? Do! And a loving Creator will smile His choicest blessing upon you, and your ears will ring with sounds even sweeter than the words "Hoosier Jim" Riley strings together. The owner, old and all alone, is one of a type that is disappearing all too soon. God-fearing, sympathetic, industrious, even in old age—Oh! how much she reminds you of your dear old mother—that is if you are one who sees things from the far side of fifty.

Respectfully,
SINNER.

BRISK BLAZE.

Fire at 11:30 o'clock Thursday night damaged the double frame dwelling, Nos. 815-17 Belleville street, owned and occupied by Mrs. Fred Heider, to the extent of $200, while the contents were damaged $100. The cause of the fire is not known. After the fire, a team of horses attached to the hose wagon of Engine Company No. 18 ran away, upsetting the wagon at Patterson and Seguin streets.
