HOLY NAME SOCIETY.

The regular meeting of this society will take place to-night. A large meeting is expected to arrange the details for the Sunday celebration.

A. O. H.

This worthy organization held a very important meeting last Tuesday. Officers for the coming year were nominated and much enthusiasm was manifested towards the work of the coming year.

H. N. G. C.

A committee was appointed to arrange special benefit nights at H. N. G. C. picture show. Many of the ladies of the parish have decided to organize into booster clubs to make the show a success. So many improvements are needed in the H. N. G. C. buildings that a large number of the people have understood that this enterprise affords them the means of making these improvements without any extra expenditures to themselves.

SERVICES SUNDAY.

Masses—5, 7, 9, 10:30. Baptisms—3-4. Closing of Forty Hours, 7:30.

Do We Need a Larger Navy?

The "Navy League of the United States," the society which seeks to insure the United States against the possibility of invasion, deserves the support of all those who wish to see eternal peace. This country can force peace upon its neighbors only when we are strong enough to protect the entire shore line of our country.

The Navy League holds that in view of these facts the only logical course for the United States to pursue to insure absolute freedom from attack and invasion is to take advantage of its wonderful position of strategic isolation and create a Navy sufficiently powerful to hold the sea against any possible opponent. Situated as we are, separated by more than three thousand miles of sea from the nearest powerful military nation, as long as our navy can hold command of our ocean approaches we can rest secure in peace and safety.

The Navy League does not recommend a powerful navy for aggression, but for defense. Battleships cannot conquer provinces or contend with armies, but they can surely and absolutely prevent any aggressively inclined nation from sending armies to pillage and desolate our own country, and if any such nation should force us into war, they can keep the savage business of killing far from our own homes and shores.

This organization is needed because at the present time there is more danger that the United States will be drawn into a great and disastrous foreign war than there has been at any other time within a generation, it is making great efforts to consolidate within its membership all friends of a powerful navy throughout the country so that it may exercise irresistible influence in securing the needed ships and men for the country's defense.

We believe that a full two-thirds of all Americans agree in the League's belief that a powerful Navy is necessary to the nation as an insurance against the possibility of war within the borders of the homeland and we seek to band them together in a powerful well organized association which shall have only one purpose—to see that whatever else politicians may do or leave undone, they do not fail to keep our navy in an efficient condition and powerful enough to hold command of the sea against the fleets of any possible opponent.

If you desire peace, support the Navy League when called upon.

Another Reduction In Cost Of Living

Last summer, when Commissioner Lafay insisted on lower rates for electric service in the city, the management of the Algiers Railway & Lighting Company voluntarily reduced their rates to a basis lower than any prevailing in or near New Orleans.

Now that the negotiations between the Commission Council and the lighting company in the city have been concluded so satisfactorily in the interests of the small consumers, the Algiers company has made good its promise to furnish electricity at rates acceptable to the city authorities.

In another column will be found a notice stating that the new low rates established by the Commission will be put into effect in Algiers on December 1.

The residents of our district will therefore enjoy the convenience of electric current at a price that will make this the best and cheapest of all light, within the means of everyone; while electric irons and fans will hereafter be looked upon more as a necessity and less of a luxury than was formerly the case.

The Herald Athletic Event

In this issue we print the final instructions, together with the names of the participants in The Herald Athletic Fete, which will take place on Thanksgiving afternoon in our town. Assisting the Herald are other public spirited men of our district who also are offering prizes to encourage athletics among the young men. In most cities the size of our town there are several events of this kind during each year, and this one should receive the same kind of encouragement here that is given at other places.

The development of the young man physically is as important as the development of his mental faculties, because one depends greatly upon the other. Besides this it encourages local entertainments which are necessary to both the old and the young.

Thanksgiving Day is a Nation wide holiday, and is usually observed by foot ball games, baseball games and other events of this nature, then why should not Algiers also have its own entertainments for this day and among ourselves?

Many of our young men (as is evidenced by the entries) are taking part in these races and the results will be watched with great interest. The presentation of the medals will also be an interesting feature and this will take place on some night following the events, when Foto's Folly Theatre will be used for this occasion.

It is to be hoped that the people in our district will attend the races and encourage the young men to enter them. Those desiring to enter may do so by handing in their names either to The Herald office or to the Chairman, Mr. Wallace Christy, 511 Belleville street.

A LONG-LOST COUSIN.

An old Chinese scholar came for treatment to a hospital that was under the charge of a certain Doctor Woods. The doctor asked the new patient his honorable name. The old gentleman replied that his unworthy name was Ling, and added that he desired to know the doctor's exalted name. With a smile, the doctor said that his mean name was Ling (which is Chinese for Woods.)

"Why!" exclaimed the Chinaman with fervor. "The same name! Now I recall that in the Han dynasty (B. C. 200) there was a big famine, and a part of our clan left China and were said to have crossed over the great eastern sea. They were never heard of again, but now I see they reached America."

And greatly to the good doctor's amusement, he was greeted as one of the family, and cordially welcomed into the clan of Ling.

HOW TO IDENTIFY BRUNO.

The amusing letters from French-Canadians recently printed in The Youth's Companion have reminded a reader of the advertisement a French-Canadian inserted in a Vermont newspaper:

Mr. Paper Hyde Park

Dear Sir, Loos one black dogs him mos all white wid him tail cut clos on she body any body find it keep her I belong to him finder pies notify Felix Patno who live hind side Kongo church 3 block from hous up stair 3 story wid green painting good by yours truly Felix Patno.

P. S. Him name Bruno on shees color which him lost on big fox hunting last fall.

QUANTITY MOST IMPORTANT.

Said the landlady to the newly billeted soldier: "How do you like your eggs boiled?" "Two at a time, please," was the young fellow's prompt and illuminating reply.

Mount Olivet Church

On Sunday, at 4 p. m., James Percy, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Belcher, received holy baptism at Mt. Olivet Church. Sponsors: William Schurb and Mrs. Phillip Vaccaro. At the meeting of the Ladies' Guild on Tuesday night, Mrs. Jos. Koenig was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Geo. Randolph. We regret very much Mrs. Randolph's removal to the city, but will gladly keep her name on the Guild roll.

Services on Sunday next before Advent at the following hours: 7:30, 9:30, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Thanksgiving Day, holy communion and sermon at 7:30 a. m. On Wednesday, the 10th day of November, Frank A. Daniels entered into the Paradise of God. Mr. Daniels was a man of common sense and business knowledge. As a man of religion his religion was practical, one of vital force which dominated his whole life. As a Christian he lived his Christianity. Always deeply interested in the betterment of conditions everywhere, he rendered to his church and to the community most valuable service. Mt. Olivet desires to record in these brief notes her appreciation of his life and character and to express her profound sense of loss at his departure hence. "Grant unto him, O Lord, eternal rest and may light perpetual shine upon him."

Divine Evangelical Lutheran Church

Divine services are held on Thursday evening at 7:30 and Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. Sunday school at 9:15. Special Thanksgiving Day services will be held in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. In our congregational meeting of Friday last, we decided to celebrate Annual Mission Festival on Dec. 5th. Our church, being one of the two Lutheran churches which escaped nearly unscathed in the September storm, we decided to grant the use of our church for the annual sessions of the Louisiana District Conference of Pastors and Teachers. The sessions will be held Dec. 28-30th. Everyone is cordially invited to attend our services.

Methodist Church Notes

We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Siaward, who lost their little baby Sunday. The funeral service was held Monday at 3:30 p. m. at their home, corner of Elmira and Homer. The conference year has drawn to a close, conference now being in session at Mansfield. Bishop Atkins is presiding.

The musical under the auspices of Mrs. Gibson's class was a classical success as well as otherwise. It was indeed kind of those from the "other side" to give their services to us. While all the numbers were good, we especially enjoyed those given by our Algiers girls, Misses Corbett and McNeely. We were glad to have Mr. H. J. Thompson with us again. It seemed like "old times."

The Gleaners felt "rejuvenated" on Nov. 9th to have Misses Daisy and Irma Daniels at the social. The place of the next meeting will be announced later.

The Sunday School appreciated having with them their former superintendent, Brother A. S. Daniels. He seems to belong here. We are glad to note the improvement of Mrs. McSwain, of 538 Belleville.

We have a new friend, Mrs. Bradley, at 405 Pelican avenue, who has recently moved here from Welhauken, N. J.

The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its limit last Sunday night by the large number of friends that gathered to pay fond tribute to the memory of that good man, Brother Frank Daniels. While only a half-dozen or so spoke his praise aloud, there was as deep an appreciation in each silent heart as the virtues and kind deeds, so modestly done, were recounted. His memory is as a sweet incense and we can never recall the old church and its history without unconsciously associating with it the life of one who loved it and labored for it from childhood until his name was transcribed from the church militant to the church triumphant.

A Heavy Watch. A watch carried by the Emperor Charles V. in 1530 weighed twenty-seven pounds.

DONNER-BROWNLEE WEDDING

Long will Bernard F. Donner and Florence Brownlee remember the event in which they were the principal characters on Wednesday, Nov. 17th. Pretty, indeed, was the picture of the bride and groom as they stood before the altar. The bride, dressed in white, was escorted by her father, Mr. C. H. Brownlee, after which she took their places in the sanctuary which was a regular bower of love and chrysanthemums. Very Rev. Father Larkin, S. M., assisted by Mr. Goff, received the solemn pledge of fidelity of the couple and transferred authority vested in him to the bride and groom. The happy couple in their happiest mood today.

Nuptial mass was then celebrated by Father Larkin. It was with pleasure that the Very Rev. Father officiated at this wedding, for it is an earnest desire of all pastors to see their people start off married life with all the means and help that make this state of life a success. A joy. Besides organ interludes, our old reliable friend, Prof. Beck, three beautiful solos were rendered by friends of the young couple.

Miss Georgina Herbert, with her clearness of expression, and her beautiful Ave Maria; Mr. Wm. Donner, with force and melody in Schubert's "O Salutaris," and Mr. Fox with artistic finish and style in No. 2 Ave Maria.

Bernard F. Donner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Donner, 129 Verret and Miss Florence Brownlee is charming and affectionate daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brownlee, of Delaronde street. Both families among the oldest and most respected families of Algiers.

After the wedding a tasty and joyable buffet breakfast was served at the home of Mr. W. P. Donner. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. Accompanied with the best wishes of their parents and numerous friends they left at 8 a. m. for their honeymoon, which will be spent in Tennessee, chiefly in Memphis and Chattanooga.

Mr. Ralph P. Nolan, son of our best citizen, J. P. Nolan, with grace and dignity acted as best man. Messrs. W. Donner and Bernard Brownlee acted as ushers.

Not Looking For Them. "With the salary and the other emoluments you ought to be pretty well," said the boss to the new porter.

"It's de salary an' de tips what I ests me," replied Rastus. "Ah think Ah'd caih much 'fo say 'boutments 'til aftuh Ahm dahn."

A Choice of Careers. The difficulties of early Western colonists had with their lives were curiously illustrated by the fact that in the colony of Massachusetts the experience was cheaper than in any other place. It was thought that the farmer was more likely to be attacked by wolves owing, it was thought, to wolves mistaking it for a deer.

He Is Self-Opinionated. Hokus—Fludub seems to have wonderful opinion of his own. Pokus—I should say he has. He has actually heard him argue with his son, who is in his first year at college. Kemoso.
