SURPRISE PARTY.

On Saturday, January 8th, Miss Victoria Giepert was agreeably surprised by a number of her friends, the occasion being the anniversary of her birthday.

The crowd met at Miss Carrie Wagner's home and then proceeded on to Miss Giepert's home. She was presented with a beautiful cameo pin by Mr. Henry Bureau in the name of all her friends present.

Plano selections were rendered by Misses May Feeney and Helen Abadie, and vocal selections by Miss Lelia Bureau. Refreshments were served and dancing indulged in until the wee hours of the morning.

Those present were: Misses Riette Gates, Anna Woodruff, Kate Green, Saddle McCord, May Feeney, Irene Sinclair, Monica Escouse, Irene Schwalb, Verona Stumpf, Hazel McNeely, Victoria Giepert, Helen Abadie, Laura Windstein, Mary Collins, Hazel Giepert, Carrie Wagner, Kate Gallinghouse, Zita Giepert, Inez Wattinney, Carmelita Giepert, Lelia Bureau and Eunice and Imelda Cunningham; Messrs. Gerald Forstall, John McDuff, Wm. Goldman, F. Swan, Edgar Perilou, Earl Gates, P. Levy, Henry Herbert, Henry Bureau, Chester Green, Wm. Giepert, Jr., Louis Juno, Chris. Stumpf, Lionel Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Giepert and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cunningham.

MISS EUDOLIE MARY VERNEUIL, NOW REV. SISTER ST. VITAL.

Last Friday Miss Eudolie Mary Verneuil, the daughter of Mr. Ovide Verneuil, of 211 Olivier street, took her first vows in the order of the Holy Cross Nuns.

It was a most touching ceremony one that will long remain in the minds of the young novice and also in the minds of the beloved and devoted parents of the young lady.

Miss Verneuil first studied at St. Vincent's Academy, St. Stephen's parish, New Orleans, and then at the Holy Name Convent, Algiers, La. Here she attracted the attention of the spiritual director and the sisters by her good behavior, her piety and her spirit of humility and retirement. It was soon evident that she had a higher calling than the world, and though she was employed for some time at the Cumberland Telephone Co. as a long distance operator, there came to her one day a call from a greater distance than ever and soon she gave up her position with the telephone company to answer the call to a religious vocation. Her time of probation, spent in happiness, confirmed her superiors that she had a real good strong vocation, and the result was that last Friday she pronounced her first vows, giving her the privilege of wearing the white veil. Fr. Casagne, an old friend of the family, preached the sermon and he was at his usual high standard. Reviewing in a few well chosen words the meaning of the religious life, he then congratulated his young friend on her choice, and encouraged her to perseverance and constancy in her course.

Mr. and Mrs. Verneuil are to be congratulated on the success of their daughter, for without doubt she will reflect credit on her family and the order she has chosen, for she seems to have all the qualities to make a good and devoted religious.

We, the president and auditor of the Reliance Homestead Association, do solemnly swear that the above statement of the condition of this association for the six month period ending December 31st, 1915, as above specified, is true and correct, to the best of our knowledge and belief. P. J. STUBBS, P. E. A., Auditor; A. J. NELSON, President. Sworn to and subscribed before me at the City of New Orleans, La., on this third day of January, 1916. WM. J. FORMENTO, Not. Pub.

Rocket Cameras. The military camera of a Saxon named Maul is carried by a rocket over the landscape to be photographed. The rocket, twenty feet long and weighing fifty pounds, is mounted on a special support, which is raised to the degree necessary and aimed by means of sights, and the electrically ignited powder charge carries the rocket to a height of about 2,000 feet. As it turns to fall, exposure is made by an electro-pneumatic shutter worked by a small battery. Directly afterward a parachute opens, holds the camera thirty feet above the rocket, and the whole apparatus falls gently to the ground. Very distinct pictures seven inches square are obtained.

THE BUSINESS OF LIFE.

Our business is to make the most of this great and beautiful experiment of living, to leave behind us flowers for beauty and fruit for use, to make our life a harmony, our ending a serenity and our awaking an eternal joy.—Hobbs.

Peculiarities of Russian Winters.

There is one curious thing about a Russian winter—in the latter part of October or the beginning of November the weather will be quite mild. Not a sign can be seen of an approaching change, when suddenly, without any apparent warning, a light haze will be seen in the northern sky, and in twenty-four hours the thermometer may fall 50 degrees. The change is so sudden and violent that travelers are frequently frozen to death before they can gain shelter. It has occurred that farmers out looking after their flocks have been caught in one of these blizzards and, missing their way home, have lost their lives, their bodies remaining under the snow until spring.

Hall Caine's Moonshine.

Authors and artists who have become well known by means of making the moon dance in the wrong houses of heaven are numerous, but we never expected Hall Caine to join the group. Yet in "The Scapgoat," chapter 23, on Israel's return from prison after the war, we find that "with a wave of his hand he was gone into the darkness. It was a wonderful night. The moon, which was in its first quarter, was still low in the east."

It was indeed a wonderful night. On no other night since the creation has the moon in its first quarter ever been seen dallying in the east.—London Telegraph.

Of Course.

"Struck a poor client today," said the lawyer. "All he had to offer by way of a fee was a watch without any works in it."

"I suppose you took the case?"—Judge.

New Type of Prodigal.

"The people in his home town said he never could or would amount to anything."

"And now he's rich. I presume he went back and paid off the mortgage on the home place or something of that sort."

"No. The old home place wasn't mortgaged. He went back and demoralized his good old parents by giving them a high power automobile. Now they are the worst spenders in town."—Birmingham Age-Herald.
