CHARGED WITH SELLING TO MINOR.

Theodore Loyalano, an Italian, was arrested at his saloon at 1011 Elmira avenue, Thursday afternoon by Patrolman Herbert Rhodes, of the Jevanille Court, and Special Officer John Hamill, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and charged with violating the Gay-Shartuck law relative to selling liquor to minors. It is alleged that Loyalano sold five cents worth of beer in a can to a seven-year-old boy named James Kennedy, of 918 Elmira avenue. This is the second time that Loyalano has been arrested on this charge, having pleaded guilty before Judge Wilson, September 22, 1915, when he was fined $50 or sixty days.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.

The Santa Maria Council 1724, Knights of Columbus, will celebrate our national day with flag raising ceremonies. The officers and members, together with their families, will parade, as an escort to the flag, to the Church of the Holy Name of Mary, and then return to the Knights of Columbus home, when the ceremonies will begin. Prominent orators will address the knights and their friends.

The committee looking after the details is as follows: L. W. Peterson, ex-officio; Frank Duffy, chairman; E. H. Killeen, Rev. J. P. Cassagne, A. W. Grimes, J. Ryan, P. Charleyville, G. Forrest, M. E. Donner, Prof. Herbert, E. J. McMahon, J. L. Hogan, H. Umbach, J. P. Skelly, W. S. Dwyer and L. A. Brauner.

A NEW GRADUATE MIDWIFE FOR ALGIERS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hotard, of 421 Diana street, having completed a very successful examination before the Louisiana State Board with a percentage of 98, has been recommended by two of Algiers' most prominent physicians; has assisted in a practical way Mrs. Duchien on numerous occasions. Being of a charming personality and an intelligent woman, she is well adapted to her present work. An Algiers product, Algiers should be justly proud of such undertakings, particularly at present when we hear so much of "preparedness." Being prepared to assist suffering humanity is indeed a great privilege. It is to be hoped Algiers will assist Mrs. Hotard in her present undertaking.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

The meeting held Thursday night at the parlors of the Alhambra Gymnastic Club by representatives of various organizations in the interest of the Child's Welfare Association benefit was well attended, although a much better crowd was expected in view of the worthy cause. It was decided to give a lawn party the night of Saturday, July 1st, and the committee in charge will endeavor to provide a program for the entertainment of the expected throng that undoubtedly will prove pleasing.

On Monday night the ladies met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Huckins and the committees were appointed. The ladies of Mt. Olivet Church and of the Woodmen Circle headed by Mrs. E. J. Hotard and Mrs. C. A. Borden have charge of the refreshments. The other committees are: Grab Bag—Misses Eola Abbott and Gladys Short and Mrs. M. L. Wilcox, Gate Committee—Mrs. J. E. Huckins, Mrs. Pollock and Mrs. Yalots, General Committee—Mesdames W. F. Short, L. De Laup, K. McCormack, S. Boylan, Albert Tufts, R. Nolan, A. J. Amuedo, M. O. Carey, Jos. Daniels, D. Gillman, L. F.
