was engaged. State Supreme Commander Bulger, who is still quite ill, was unable to attend. A delegation from Tulane Tent were guests at the supper. After dinner speeches were made by Commander N. Nolan, Chief J. Rapp of Gretna, Judge-Trauth of Gretna, J. Schumaker of Tulane Tent and several others. The guests all voted the local tent capital entertainers.

After the supper, the members of Martin Behrman Tent headed by the band, accompanied the Tulane Tent to the city.

STREET CAR COMPANY SUES WAGON DRIVER. Fred Luft, 22, 1207 Elmira avenue, was charged Thursday in an affidavit before Third Recorder Ben J. Tiller, with "reckless driving of a horse."

The charge was made by H. L. McLean of the Algiers Railway and Light Company.

Luft was recently injured in an accident at Teche and Lamarque streets, when a car of the railway company collided with a wagon he was driving. Luft was thrown to the ground and the wagon damaged considerably.

TWO HOUSES ROBBED. During the absence of the occupants, a thief entered the homes of Mrs. Paula Speria, 505 Seguin street, and Joseph Spatafora, 503 Seguin street, between 6 and 8 o'clock Wednesday, and stole jewelry valued at $190. Mrs. M. Keane, 168 Delaronde street, told the police that while passing the houses she saw a young white man coming out of Mrs. Speria's home.

REPAIRING LIBRARY. Our public library is undergoing extensive repairs, workmen having been busy there for the past ten or fifteen days. Most of the damage was the result of our storm in September last. When completed, which will be in a few days, there will be no evidence of it having ever been marred by the elements.
