NEW ORLEANS, OCTOBER 5, 1916.

Rev. Father McGrath, S. M., of Jefferson College, was at the Holy Name Rectory Sunday. He said Mass at St. Mary's (It) in the place of Father Ethier, who is yet on his vacation.

Very Rev. Father Smith, S. M., was in town Monday and Tuesday on business. More Algiers boys are on the list for Jefferson College. They will be leaving soon.

Reports from Masters Emmett Mahoney and Laughlin are most encouraging. They are both well pleased with the College and what is more important both are doing well in their studies.

Rev. Father Cassagne, S. M., the worthy assistant of the Holy Name Parish, is at St. Michaels Convent, La., where he preached the sermon on the occasion of the Feast of St. Michael. There is no doubt in the minds of his friends but that he made a deep impression on his hearers.

Services: Rosary Devotions, every weekday at 6 Mass, and on Sunday, Wednesday, and Friday, at Benediction, 3:15 Thursday, confessions children, 3:15.

Friday Masses, 5, 6, and 7. Sunday Masses, 5, 7, 9, and 10. Holy Hour, Rosary, Benediction, 3:15. Baptisms, 4 to 5.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY.

At a meeting of the Society Monday evening the following officers were elected for the coming Grand Rally: Parish Marshall, J. F. Matthews; aides to parish Marshall, Joe Bourgeois, J. E. Worrel, Gus Lyncker, S. F. Cafero, more will be selected by the Marshall; aides to the Grand Marshall: E. P. Foley, J. K. Kline, Ed Curran, Jr., the following committees were appointed:

Reception committee, J. L. Higgins, J. L. Hogan. Flag committee, J. L. Hogan. Music committee, A. de Monasterio. Badges committee, R. F. Younger. Carriages committee, J. F. Matthews. Ways and means, J. P. Selph and W. H. Cumiskey.

All members are requested to make arrangements so as to be able to take part in the parade, and make this event a great success numerically at least.

The officers for the year are: president, L. W. Peterson; vice-president, A. de Monasterio; secretary, R. T. Younger; treasurer, J. P. Selph; spiritual director, Rev. J. A. Petit, S. M.; organist, Prof. F. G. Herbert. These men have proven to be very efficient officers, and the society is proud of their good work. Some through force of circumstances will resign this year, this will indeed be the society's loss.

Quietly but surely the club is still moving on. Coach Dowling continues to instill athletic spirit in the boys. The latest effect of his words of encouragement is to have put new life in field sports. A track has been laid out and when lights have been installed scenes that will resemble Indian war dances will be in view, but there will be nothing dangerous about these demonstrations, more than to make the necessary preparations to take a few scalps on Thanksgiving Day. Some of the boys prefer the darkness to train; they do not fancy the regulation abbreviated costume, however, they are game and will do like the others. The most ardent men on track work just now are Pete Rainey, Dan Ford, Will Johnson, Fred Cayard. They have started training and they have started to diet themselves, tamales being passed up, smoking cut out, and Pete Rainey has attempted to eliminate jokes, but all in vain.

H. N. G. C. JRS.

The Juniors had their first experience in the art of drilling last Thursday, and it was well enjoyed, and at the same time it was a most successful experience. Two officers from the Marine Barracks were on hand and in a few minutes had the boys in squad and column formation, marching up and down the hall in a most soldierly manner. The Juniors had the time of their young lives last Monday night when

A HIGH SCHOOL FOR ALGIERS

At a time when the school board is almost bankrupt and are not able to pay the teachers for the full term it seems almost foolish to advocate a high school for our district. But unless a beginning is made and our wants and needs are heralded before the people we will not get our just share.

The school down the coast which we did not get has been a bitter disappointment to all those good citizens who live below the viaduct. It has been almost a year now since the last plans were advertised and accepted and from the present indication it looks that it will be another year or perhaps longer before those living down the coast will get a school. The last attempt to give Algiers a new school went so far as having the bids opened for the erection of the school building, but it was found there was not sufficient amount of money available to build the school. The architect's plan called for a school quite in excess of the amount of money on hand. So all bids were rejected and again we are without a school,—but back to the high school building. The number of high school students from our district has been steadily increasing each year and this year we sent the record number of students. Gretna has a high school and the attendance of that high school is not near so great as the number of high school students we sent to the city, considering that the high school in Gretna also takes care of the seventh and eighth grade. This arrangement could also take place here with the seventh and eighth grade incorporated with our high school, then there would be sufficient number of pupils to justify the employment of a corps of teachers for a new institution of this kind.

The cost of sending a child to the high school from Algiers is quite large when you take in consideration the cost of ferry and car fare alone, which amounts to twenty-one dollars and sixty cents per pupil during the nine month's term. This is almost prohibitive for poor people to send two or more children to the high school. This expense is not consistent with what is known as free public schools.

Facts, Fun and Folly.

LET THE PEOPLE RULE!

According to the Wall Street Journal, the wife of a well-known capitalist is paying the expenses of educating twenty young proteges in music, art and the stage, thus making them self-supporting.

In September last, the bids for building a standardized fire engine house in Chicago totaled $24,000. A month ago the bids on the same specifications totaled over $34,000, which represents the high cost of living and working.

Senator Taggart of Indiana, in advising his political associates to cultivate habits of thrift, said, "Just think what a fellow could make by merely saving his champagne corks in these days when they bring three dollars a thousand."

Gen. Sir William Robertson, who is expected to succeed Lord Kitchener as Secretary of State for War, started life as a stable boy and it took him ten years, studying night and day, to secure his first promotion in the army.

In New York recently, an American flag, with the emblems of other nations, was burned as part of the exercises connected with a general meeting of the Church of the Social Revolution, held on the eve of the trial of its leader.

The principal doorkeeper at the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis was Charley White, the noted prize-fight referee. One of the entertainments of the Tammany delegation was the turning loose of four negro pugilists in a prize ring with instructions to "keep things moving" as long as any of them could stand up.

And the PEOPLE rule!—Leslies.

SHAVING THE PIG.

Salmon P. Chase, Governor of Ohio, Senator of the United States, Secretary of the United States Treasury, and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, once had an encounter with a pig that is worth telling.

When a boy he attended a private boarding school kept by his uncle, the Episcopal Bishop of Ohio. He did the chores for his uncle during the school term, and worked on the farm during the summer. One day his uncle told him his nephew that he should kill and dress a pig at the close of the school that day.

With no little difficulty, the boy caught the pig and killed it. And now the question was how to get the bristles off. He had heard of farmers scalding hogs; so he soured the pig into a barrel of hot water. He either held the pig in the water too long, or did not have it hot enough, for in spite of all his scraping, the bristles would not come off. He then thought of his uncle's razors, and getting them, he shaved the pig from nose to tail.

When the bishop returned, he congratulated his nephew on the splendid appearance of the pork. But when he tried to shave the next day, he discovered that the razors would not "work." What he said and did we may imagine, but we do not know.

Chief Justice Chase was a very dignified man. His private secretary, Mr. Didier, says that he had little humor in his composition. President Lincoln once related the foregoing story at a meeting of the Cabinet, but Mr. Chase did not like it very well, and the President never referred to it again.

They played the Alhambra Juniors. They certainly outclassed their older brothers in the noise making and also in the scoring. It was indeed a most interesting sight to see these youngsters of both teams enjoying themselves. Such intense playing can be put up only by boys. Both sides put up a good article of ball, but Maurice Robichaux was too good, that's all. It is to be hoped that more games of the kind will be staged for they are interesting and enjoyable. The Juniors wish to hear from other teams.
