BELLEVILLE CLUB MEETS.

The Belleville Social and Political Club met Saturday night, November 4, with seventy-five voters present. Rousing speeches were made for Wilson and the regular candidates and all voters were asked to vote the bond amendment and others of importance. Voters were instructed by Tim Allingham, president, to be careful to stamp their ballots and not to cross mark, to vote early and to vote the straight regular ticket.

Refreshments were served and a general good time indulged in. The officers of the club are: Tim Allingham, president; Louis F. Willis, vice-president; A. Besson, treasurer; Conrad Adams, recording secretary; Louis Kennedy, financial secretary; William Daul, grand marshal; poll tax committee: Wilson Measdale, Eli Guthreaux, F. Bennett, J. Hotard.

The club will move into its new quarters November 11, where a big rally will take place, and the members of the Sixth Precinct Carnival Club will combine with the Belleville club.
