PERSONALS AND OTHERWISE

At a meeting of the President's Co-operative Club held last week, Mrs. A. J. Amadeo of the Belleville Kindergarten Club, was elected treasurer.

Ceremony to mark the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. William Yeager was held in their home Friday, Dec. 29. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Quinius.

Mr. and Mrs. Yeager received many presents. Among them was a silver service, given by Mr. Yeager's marine friends and presented by Capt. Harry McNeely. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. C. E. Dickey entertained the N. and T. Sewing Club Monday afternoon.

The annual meeting of the Silent Helpers' King's Daughters will be held to-night at the home of Mrs. Geo. Koppel, 324 Bermuda street.

Mrs. Frank Henning has the sympathy of her many friends in the loss of her sister, Miss Louise Strehle, whose death occurred Saturday in Gretna.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burmaster, of 537 Atlantic avenue, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl to their home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Gomez, of 345 Eliza street, was brightened by the arrival of a baby boy.

Mr. B. Cobb, of Myrtle Grove, La., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ose, Sunday.

Commander Jno. Schroder of Martin Behrman Tent of Maccabees, assisted State Supreme Commander Bulger in installing a new tent of Maccabees at Westwego Sunday. Mr. Schroder also delivered an address. Several members of the local tent were in attendance.

Miss Katie Schabel has returned to Bay St. Louis, Miss., to resume her studies at the Academy there.

Miss Georgina Herbert was one of the soloists at the recital given last week by the Choral Club at Holmes Hall.

The second annual moonlight ride of the St. John Social Club, given Thursday night, attracted a large crowd and the outing proved most enjoyable. J. Bodenger headed the committee in charge, assisted by John Schroder, P. Mangiaracina, secretary and other members.

The many friends of little Marcel Serpas will be glad to learn that he is improving. The little fellow was cut on his arm while at play at his home in Delaronde street last week with playmates.

Misses Daisy and Irma Daniels expect to leave Sunday for their home in Sea Shore Camp Grounds.

Mrs. Amelia Smith returned Sunday from a trip to Bogalusa, where she went to install the officers of the Woodmen Circle at that place. She was the recipient of a handsome cut glass fruit bowl.

Grand Guardian Amelia Smith returned Monday night from Lockport, La., where she went to install the officers of the Woodmen Circle Grove at Lockport.

Mrs. Amelia Smith, Grand Guardian of the Woodmen Circle of Louisiana, left for Covington on Monday for the purpose of installing the officers of the Southern Dry Dock and Ship Building Company, the owners contemplating the construction of smaller craft, as well as their docking and repairing, and the industry will be a valuable asset to the Fifth District.

NAVAL YARD SALARIES

That Representative Estopinal was successful in his opposition to the exclusion of the New Orleans Navy Yard from the pay increase being considered for the other yards was proven when the secretary of the navy announced an increase in exactly the same proportion as the increases allowed at other yards. The increases allowed at New Orleans are as follows: Boilermakers, $3.84 to $4.16; carpenters, $3.52 to $3.84; electricians, $3.84 to $4.24; machinists, $4 to $4.32; painters, $3.28 to $3.52; pattern makers, $4 to $4.08; riggers, $3.52 to $3.60; sheet metal workers, $3.60 to $4; ship fitters, $4 to $4.24; smiths, $4 to $4.16; wireman, $3.52 to $3.76; helpers, $2.16 to $2.24.

AGED MAN LEFT DESTITUTE BY SALE OF LAND HE GUARDED

Oster Dupuy, 86, Is Taken to Home for Homeless.

His home lost through the sale of property which he guarded many years, Oster Dupuy, 86, applied to Patrolman Anthony Sabier, of the eighth precinct station in Algiers, Thursday for shelter.

The property on which Dupuy lived so many years was sold recently. Thursday the purchasers came to take possession of a pasture he had guarded for years. Dupuy was taken to the "Home for Homeless Men," in New Orleans, through the efforts of Judge Goff, of the Third recorder's court, who, upon learning of the aged man's condition, communicated with the authorities.

FAMILY FLEES AS FIRE RUINS HOME, GROCERY

The grocery, barroom and residence of George Quartano, 1343 Teche street, was almost completely destroyed by fire, which originated from some unascertained cause in the grocery.

Quartano was awakened shortly after 1 o'clock by the smoke which came from a rear door of the grocery. He awakened his wife and children, who fled half-clad into the street. Patrolman Hyde, who heard the cry of fire by Quartano, turned in the alarm.

The loss is estimated at $3,350, including the contents, and is partly covered by insurance. The building was damaged $800. The saloon stock and fixtures at $2,500, and the furniture at $50.

MUNICIPALITIES ORGAN HONORS MAYOR BEHRMAN

The title page of the first edition of "The Modern City," organ of the League of American Municipalities, received here Friday by Mayor Behrman, is devoted to a biographical sketch of Mayor Behrman, who is president of the league.

AUTO LICENSE COLLECTOR HERE

Charles W. Panter, recently appointed to collect for automobile licenses in New Orleans, returned from Baton Rouge Saturday and began Tuesday morning issuing licenses. Mr. Panter will have his office in the basement of the city hall and will require that payments for licenses be either by check, money order or exchange, for convenience in remitting to Baton Rouge. Cash will not be received. Automobile owners have until February 1 to take out their 1917 licenses.

NEW DOCK BEING CONSTRUCTED

Several sections of the new dry dock to be operated by Doullut & Williams have arrived and are ready to be anchored in position off the head of Delaronde street. The dock is designed to raise the smaller craft in the harbor, and will make a specialty of handling tugs and vessels of like size. It will be operated under the name of the Southern Dry Dock and Ship Building Company, the owners contemplating the construction of smaller craft, as well as their docking and repairing, and the industry will be a valuable asset to the Fifth District.

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM

Workmen under Contractor G. M. Gest, have started excavating along Teche street preparatory to the installation of the new lighting system, which is designed to transform that thoroughfare into a white way. Opelousas avenue and Seguin street also are to be thus improved. The work is expected to require several weeks' time, the wires to be laid under the sidewalk.
