ALGIERS HAS ONE MEMBER

A letter received a few days ago from Charles H. Patterson, general secretary of the Charity Organization Society, addressed to Miss Georgina Herbert of our town, gives the information that Algiers has but one member of the Charity Organization Society.

The following letter to Miss Georgina Herbert is self-explanatory and says something of the facts regarding this matter.

New Orleans, La., September 13, 1917. Dear Miss Herbert: I do not believe we have a single member of the Charity Organization Society living in Algiers, except perhaps Mayor Sherman, and yet as you know we have to handle a good many cases over here, and furnish more or less material relief for people living in Algiers.

WHY AND WHY NOT.

Secretary of Agriculture Houston says that if every family in the United States wastes only an ounce of food it will amount to 1,300,000 pounds daily. The Department of Agriculture says: "One dog will eat kitchen scraps that will feed a dozen hens."

In pleading for the return of the old-fashioned mother, Billy Sunday says: "We need more manhood and less money, more virtue and less vanity, more love and less loathing, more smiles and less fears, more women who care for babies more than ball-rooms."

By Dr. Eaton of the Madison Avenue Baptist Church in New York says: "The most honorable place in this country is Wall Street. There a man holds up one finger to represent $1,000,000 and he lives up to it if he loses he pays his money and never squeals."

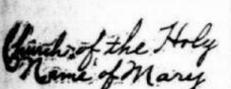

Motion picture theatres and department buildings in Chicago complain that they have been compelled to pay over half a million dollars during the last five years to a ring of so-called "business agents" of labor unions. The State's Attorney is investigating.

A reader of Leslie's sends us a clipping in reference to the proposed pocketless garments for men, with the suggestion that this may be the natural result of the war tax if Congress keeps on its course.

A Boston business man recently will $1,000,000 to 400 of his employees, with further provisions giving them 60 per cent of the income of $2,500,000, this sum also to be ultimately distributed among them.

The Government makes its conscriptions for the new American army on the lottery principle of drawing a blind number, but it forbids guessing contents in newspapers and periodicals as a violation of the lottery law.

Perhaps, the hardest thing to learn is to clear the enemy's trenches after a foothold has been gained in a portion of it. This is where the hand-to-hand fighting comes in and it is the work of the grenadiers, armed by the grenade bearers. They must advance from embrasure to embrasure.

PERSONALS.

Very Rev. T. J. Larkin, S. M., is recovering from a badly bruised knee, and though all danger of complications is passed he is still suffering and finds it very painful to sit around. However, the school and the hospital are not neglected.

Father Petit wishes to thank the kind people who thought of him and visited him during his recent illness. Through the visitors at the hospital very numerous and much appreciated. They would have been more numerous if some one, through some unknown means in science, had not discovered among the poor man, over and above his regular troubles, suffered from a very weak heart. The only trouble with Father Petit's heart is that it is aching to get back at somebody.

Lawrence Gerretts, R. McGhee, Harold Healy and Victor Olivier, four young men from Algiers, left for Washington, D. C., to continue their studies, for the Marist order at the Marist Seminary. After spending a part of their vacation at the beautiful Marist camp on the French coast, where Harper's Ferry, they were allowed to come home for a week. It was a great treat for their parents to see them again, and especially to see them so well and so delighted with their choice of life.

The parents have every reason to be proud of their young men, for they are doing well in every department of the school work. They give most encouraging prospects for the future. Three years of collegiate work are behind them, but time flies and they will realize it the time they have arrived to start their theoretical course, which will last for six years. A large number of friends saw them off and bade them success in their good work.

Very Rev. Father T. Canning, S. M., lately returned from the Marist College, Atlanta, Ga., where he spent through Wednesday night at Jefferson College to take the first year of the work of Rev. Father Canning. He is from the far West where he has been for some time. He made his studies at St. Hallows College, Salt Lake, Utah, and it was Father Larkin who advised him to become a Marist.

Very Rev. Father Canning, being a priest, will be in the department at the college and also the direction of the college.

Next Sunday will be the regular Communion Sunday.

Many of our workers have been out of the city during the months of July and August, and as some of them have now returned, we hope to see them at the hall on their appointed days. There is plenty of work to be turned out during the next few months, and therefore the Branch appeals to all interested members to report at the hall either to work or to take work home.

The war situation remains the same and we, as a nation, are beginning to feel that we are "in it," for many of the boys of our district have already left for training camps and each day newly drafted men are called to the colors. The pall of sorrow hangs over many once happy homes, and the hearts of mothers, wives and sweethearts are heavy because of the supreme sacrifices they have been called upon to make.

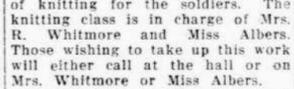

To these the work of the Red Cross offers solace and consolation, for busy hands and minds dispel gloomy thoughts. And so, we urge all our members to do "their bit" by devoting a little of their time each week to the great work we have undertaken.

On Thursday last the officers and members of our Branch had the pleasure of meeting the newly elected secretary of the New Orleans Chapter, Mr. Stier, who came over to visit our headquarters. On Friday afternoon a flashlight picture was taken of the ladies at work. This picture will be among many others that will illustrate a one-page article in next Sunday's Times-Picayune, on the work of the Louisiana Division of the American Red Cross.

Our Branch has undertaken a new feature of national work, that of knitting for the soldiers. The knitting class is in charge of Mrs. R. Whitmore and Miss Albers. Those wishing to take up this work will either call at the hall or on Mrs. Whitmore or Miss Albers.

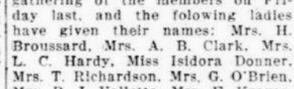

Another branch of Red Cross work will shortly be undertaken, that of making surgical dressings and bandages. It will be remembered that an attempt was made some time ago to organize a class, but proved unsuccessful because of the cost of tuition. Miss G. Herbert wishes to announce that the services of an instructor can now be obtained gratis. This fact was made known at a gathering of the members on Friday last, and the following ladies have given their names: Mrs. H. Broussard, Mrs. A. B. Clark, Mrs. L. C. Hardy, Miss Isidora Donner, Mrs. T. Richardson, Mrs. G. O'Brien, Mrs. R. J. Vallette, Mrs. F. Krauss, Miss N. Berthelot, and Miss Ailine Kevin. Other names were given Miss Herbert when she first tried to organize a class, but the list was either mislaid or destroyed. If those ladies will kindly communicate with Miss Herbert, she will be glad to add their names to the above list. Phone Algiers 288-W.

The Algiers Branch will meet Monday night at 7:30 at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Rev. C. C. Weir, 258 Vallette St. Pastor. Phone A-128.

At the morning hour the pastor's subject was John 15:19. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his Lord doeth; but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. The Junior choir sang for a voluntary "Rose of Sharon," and for an Offertory, "There is a Friend."

On Wednesday, September 12, at Mount Olivet rectory at 1 p. m. the rector united in holy matrimony Capt. Adolph F. Pusch, Quartermaster's Reserve Corps, and Edith A. Clark of Denver. CO. Witnesses, Emile H. Cayard, A. Spitzfaden, Jr., and John B. Kelley.

At the night service, the pastor's subject was Matt 7:24-27. Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock; and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not; for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell; and great was the fall of it.

The choir sang a beautiful anthem. Mrs. T. B. Bell rendered a violin solo that was greatly appreciated.

Services next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. At the night service, Miss Grace Lennox will sing a solo.

The Boy Scouts are working hard under Drill Master E. L. Bordelon. They received two new members Monday night. The boys are joining the other Scouts of the city in gathering up books and magazines for the soldier boys. If you have good reading matter, notify the Scouts and one of them will call for it.

The Leaguers held their regular monthly business meeting on Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock and a large number were present. Among matters of importance the one foremost was the election of officers for the coming year, which resulted as follows: President, Mr. Lester Dunn; vice president, Mrs. C. Zatarain; secretary, Mr. Streuby Drummond; treasurer, Miss Irva Daniels; Era agent, Mr. Walter Wells; librarian, Miss Mira Scott. It is hoped that the new officers will be benefited by the work and we are sure that they will serve faithfully. Anyone over fifteen years of age is especially urged to come out and join. The time is every Sunday at 6:45 p. m.

Just a word about the Sunday School. Were you there last Sunday? We want you, so come and join us. Four new members were brought in Sunday, two of which went on the Red side and the other two on the Blue. The Contest is almost three-fourths finished, but it is not too late to join, because the Blues are only one ahead of the Reds. The Halloween party is for the winning side, but, if a tie, both sides will get the party.

The superintendent's wish for the school girls and school boys is that this year will be the best of any; that they will succeed in accomplishing good results, and, when the year is over, that all will receive their reports, passing them to the next higher grade.

Sunday School meets every Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and anyone, from anywhere, at any time, is welcomed.

EDGAR E. CAYARD, Superintendent Methodist Sunday School.

CHANGES IN RULES. Children who do not live in Orleans parish will be rigidly excluded from the use of schools unless they pay tuition. Superintendent Gwinn said a number of Jefferson parish children had been using city schools without paying either in taxes or tuition. The tuition will be $1 a month for the lowest grades, $1.50 for the grammar grades, and $2.50 for the high schools. Children whose parents pay taxes on property owned in this city will be allowed credit on their tuition to an amount of school taxes equal to the tuition.

Changes in the rules regarding promotions will prevent a child being passed because he has a passing average though he is deficient in some subjects. Conditional passing will be allowed students with unsatisfactory marks; in some subjects on recommendation from the teacher or principal.

Mount Olivet Sunday School will begin the winter session on the first Sunday in October. The attendance during this past summer has been good, but not up to the record of last year. The rector and superintendent wish to urge the parents to send the children regularly and on time. This means every Sunday. Teachers must also realize that a good Sunday Church School must have good teachers. "Every good teacher desires to be a good teacher." This means, likewise, regularity, punctuality and lesson preparation. Pupils as well as teachers, don't forget—but remember these things.

TO TEACH IN RURAL SCHOOLS. Miss Eulalie Giblin of Pacific avenue has accepted a position as teacher in St. James Parish, and Miss Marion Morse in Pontchartroula, La.
