WAR CONDITIONS REFLECTED ON TELEPHONE SERVICE

Among the unforeseen conditions which the war has imposed upon us is the necessity of practically suspending the commercial development of our business.

Confronted with an unusual increase in the use of the telephone and a strong demand for new and additional service, we cannot accept or fill orders except subject to an indefinite delay.

This situation is due to the importance of conserving our supplies so that the Government's requirements may be promptly met by giving the War Department service anywhere and at any time the request is made.

ACT OF INCORPORATION OF PHOENIX DEVELOPMENT COMPANY INCORPORATED.
United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Orleans, City of New Orleans.

Be it known, that on this eighth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, before me, Oscar Schreiber, a notary public in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, duly commissioned and qualified, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared: The several persons whose names are hereinafter subscribed, of the full age of majority, who declared to me that availing themselves of the laws of this State relative to the organization of corporations, particularly Act No. 267 of 1914, page 521, of the Legislative acts of this State, they have agreed, and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree for themselves and their successors and assigns, to form themselves into a corporation, and body politic in law, to be known as the Phoenix Development Company, and to have the purposes and under the stipulations hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

Article I.—The name and title of the corporation shall be "Phoenix Development Company, Incorporated," and under such title it shall have and enjoy succession and perpetual existence for a period of ninety-nine years from date hereof. It shall have the power and authority to contract, sue and be sued, and make and use a corporate seal, the same to break and alter at pleasure; to hold, purchase, lease, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, or pledge, property, real, personal, or mixed, necessary, incidental or proper for the carrying on of its business, and to further mortgage all oil or mineral leases, grants or contracts held by it, together with all buildings, constructions and improvements thereon, and to erect and to be placed or erected thereon, as well as to issue bonds secured by such mortgages, such bonds to be issued in such amounts, at such rate of interest, and to run for such length of time, not exceeding the term of said leases, as said leases or guarantees may determine, to stockholders, or to any other company or companies that may assist this company in its objects and purposes; to make and issue notes and certificates of indebtedness, to name, elect and appoint managers, directors and clerks or other employees to properly conduct its corporate business, and to make and alter its by-laws, rules and regulations as may be found necessary, or desirable, for the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and to do every other act, matter or thing, necessary for the complete and proper carrying out of said business.

Article II.—The domicile of the corporation shall be in the City of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, where all its officers and agents shall be served upon the President, or, in his absence, upon the Vice-President.

Article III.—The objects and purpose for which this corporation is organized, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, and stated are declared to be as follows: First: To prospect, bore and drill for, and produce oil, gas, sulphur and other minerals, to purchase lands or otherwise acquire lands believed to contain oil, gas, sulphur and other minerals; to lease and maintain thereon drills, pumping stations, tanks, pipe lines, and other facilities and conveniences that may be necessary or required in and to the business; Second: To build, construct, lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire buildings, machinery and other apparatus for refining, smelting, manufacturing, or otherwise producing the products of mineral lands, either produced by this corporation, or other persons, and to refine, smelt, manufacture, or otherwise work up by-products of said minerals, and to operate the said plant and market the products or by-products manufactured by this corporation; Third: To carry on such other business pertaining to the aforesaid purposes as may be found necessary or desirable, or such as is generally engaged in by a corporation of this kind.

Article IV.—The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Thirty-five Thousand, One Hundred and Thirty-four ($35,134.00) dollars, divided into thirty-five hundred and ninety-four (3,594) shares, of par value of one dollar each, to be paid for in cash, or in equivalent in property. No certificate of stock shall be issued and delivered unless it is fully paid for, or for property purchased or leased, or stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the debts, contracts, or debts of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance of the shares of stock subscribed for by him; nor shall any mere informality in the organization have the effect of rendering the stockholder liable for the debts, contracts, or debts of this corporation, or for the payment of any liability whatsoever; nor shall the stock be subjected to assessment. The corporation may begin business at once, and may incur as soon as seven thousand five hundred and sixty-seven ($7,567.00) dollars of the capital stock shall have been subscribed and paid for.

Article V.—All of the corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors to be composed of three stockholders, which number may be increased by the stockholders at a general meeting for that purpose up to fifteen members, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Until the first Monday in May, 1918, the following named persons shall constitute the Board of Directors of this corporation: M. J. Epley, Albert M. Andrews and C. N. Wisner.

Thereafter, the directors shall be elected annually on the first Monday of May of each year. All elections for directors shall be by ballot, and each stockholder shall be entitled to vote for as many directors as he owns shares of stock in the corporation, and this vote to be cast in person, or by proxy, and it shall require a majority of stock to elect the Board of Directors on the first Monday in May, or annually thereafter, shall not work the forfeiture of this charter, but the old Board of Directors shall remain until their successors are elected and qualified.

Article VI.—The Board of Directors shall hold regular meetings at such intervals as such times as shall be fixed in the by-laws of the corporation. These meetings shall be held at the domicile of the corporation, but the president may call special meetings of the Board of Directors at such times as he may deem advisable, and he shall be required to call such special meetings whenever requested to do so by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. Three days' notice of such special meetings shall be given in writing to the directors unless a waiver of notice is signed by the directors. Any vacancy occurring on the board, either from death, resignation, or inability to serve, shall be filled by the Board of Directors. The first Board of Directors of this corporation shall be required to draft a suitable set of by-laws for the government of this corporation, which may be amended or changed, as the exigencies of the same may require.

Article VII.—The officers of this corporation shall consist of a President, a Vice-President, and any additional number of Vice-Presidents as the board may see fit to specify in the by-laws, and a Secretary and

MORE MEATS.

Squabs and pigeons can take the place of much of our meat that is needed abroad. Rabbits and various game birds in season are also available. Squabs are young pigeons and may be broiled or served in casserole. Prepared as one does young broilers, they are delicious.

Pigeon en Compote.—Brown a half cupful of sweet fat with four pigeons, browning them all over, then remove them from the saucpan and replace with one-half a pound of salt pork cut into dice and one dozen white onions. When browned, remove most of the fat and add a tablespoonful of flour, stirring until well browned. Add a cupful of bouillon, stir until smooth, then add the pigeons with the rest of the fat, salt, pepper, a sprig of parsley and a bayleaf. Cover and cook one hour. Then add the browned onions, a few mushrooms, and cook thirty minutes longer. Serve with the gravy poured around the pigeons.

Pigeons With Green Peas.—Brown four pigeons in a half a cupful of sweet fat, add one-half cupful of soup stock, salt, pepper and small bunch of parsley and four green onions. Cover and cook for an hour and a half, then add a pint of shelled peas and cook thirty minutes longer. Cook until the peas are tender if it takes longer.

Potted Rabbit.—Cut the rabbit into five pieces after it has been carefully cleaned. Remove the saddle, make two pieces of the hind quarters and two of the fore quarters. Fry a quarter of a pound of bacon until the fat is well tried out. Put the rabbit in, turn it until brown, then dust with salt and pepper; cover with another pan and bake in a quick oven for an hour.

Roasted Rabbit.—Lard the hind quarters with pork and leave in deep dish covered with salt, pepper, bay leaf, thyme, sliced onion and cloves with a cupful each of water and vinegar. Turn over several times and leave for twenty-four hours. Then drain and bake basting with the spiced vinegar.

Pigeon en Compote.—Brown a half cupful of sweet fat with four pigeons, browning them all over, then remove them from the saucpan and replace with one-half a pound of salt pork cut into dice and one dozen white onions. When browned, remove most of the fat and add a tablespoonful of flour, stirring until well browned. Add a cupful of bouillon, stir until smooth, then add the pigeons with the rest of the fat, salt, pepper, a sprig of parsley and a bayleaf. Cover and cook one hour. Then add the browned onions, a few mushrooms, and cook thirty minutes longer. Serve with the gravy poured around the pigeons.

Pigeons With Green Peas.—Brown four pigeons in a half a cupful of sweet fat, add one-half cupful of soup stock, salt, pepper and small bunch of parsley and four green onions. Cover and cook for an hour and a half, then add a pint of shelled peas and cook thirty minutes longer. Cook until the peas are tender if it takes longer.

Potted Rabbit.—Cut the rabbit into five pieces after it has been carefully cleaned. Remove the saddle, make two pieces of the hind quarters and two of the fore quarters. Fry a quarter of a pound of bacon until the fat is well tried out. Put the rabbit in, turn it until brown, then dust with salt and pepper; cover with another pan and bake in a quick oven for an hour.

Roasted Rabbit.—Lard the hind quarters with pork and leave in deep dish covered with salt, pepper, bay leaf, thyme, sliced onion and cloves with a cupful each of water and vinegar. Turn over several times and leave for twenty-four hours. Then drain and bake basting with the spiced vinegar.
