JUNE 13, 1918 No. 5

CUT WEEDS AND HAY FEVER

If you would help suffering humanity, you will cut the weeds and grass in front of and on your premises. The pollen from these weeds and grass are the cause of Hay Fever, and it has been estimated by conservative medical men, who are in a position to know, that there are in New Orleans about three thousand cases of well developed hay fever, and each one of these cases has before them about three or four months of suffering which could almost entirely be relieved by the residents of our town and city living strictly up to the laws regarding the cutting of weeds in front of their premises and vacant lots. Last year, through the efforts of Mayor Behrman, a considerable number of extra men were placed on the city's street gang to help get rid of the weeds, but the cutting of only a part of the weeds and leaving the others stand is almost the same as not cutting any at all, except that there has been added cost of labor and material for cutting only a part, which will not bring about a proper result.

We are pleased to note that there is a bill at present pending before the Legislature giving municipalities the right to cut the grass upon private premises and charging the same to the property holders' tax bill, if he should fail to obey the order to cut grass or weeds within a certain specified time. This is really the only remedy. Last year in Algiers it was a common sight to see eight or ten residents along a square obey the law strictly by cutting all the grass and weeds from in front of their premises, when one or two in the block ignored the law entirely. This new law, however, will overcome all these objections and when a property holder fails to cut the weeds in front of his premises, the city, after four or five days' notice, will cut these weeds for him. The amount will be charged against the property holder, and if not paid within a specified time, it will be charged against his city or state taxes.

The sufferers from this provoking, lingering malady will be forever grateful to the lawmakers and our city officials who will help put this new legislation into effect to such an extent that actual relief will be given to these hay fever patients.

Do not wait until you are notified to cut your grass and weeds. This is a duty that you owe to your brother who is subject to this dreadful disease, and when you fail to cut down your weeds, remember, you are contributing to his misery. You should also remember that keeping your premises clean also adds beauty to your residence and the district in which you live. It is also a matter of pride that you should take this under consideration.

Cut your weeds today. Tell your neighbor to do so. If you see any one in the vicinity of your residence, who has perhaps forgotten, ask them to cut their weeds. Tell them about the new law and also tell them the pollen from these weeds and grass is the cause of hay fever.

PERSONAL

Several of the Jefferson Fathers will be at the Holy Name Rectory this week, after the closing of the college to-day.

Rev. Father Quinn, S. M., will be in Algiers for the summer, to replace Father Larkin, who will soon be leaving for the Educational Convention.

Rev. Justin Howe, an Algiers boy, will soon be ordained and will be here to celebrate his first Mass on Sunday, June 23. This will be a great day for Algiers and a memorable event in the life of the young man's family. A priest in a Catholic family is always a source of great joy and legitimate pride. Very Rev. Father Larkin, S. M., will preach the sermon; Rev. Father Bulin, S. M., professor of Oriental Languages at the Catholic University, will be the deacon, and other close friends of Father Howe will be the other ministers of the Mass.

SACRED HEART NOVENA.

This Novena was very well attended this year and the closing was especially interesting. The consecration of each family to the Sacred Heart was imposing and touching. The enrollment will go over 350, which is a very good start.

FLAG RAISING.

This patriotic event took place Monday evening under most auspicious circumstances. The speakers stood on the beautiful porch of the rectory, which was appropriately decorated with American flags. The audience, seated and standing, spread out on the beautiful lawn of the rectory. Fully 2,000 people were present.

His Grace, Archbishop Shaw, addressed the people in a few well-chosen words, expressing his great satisfaction at the patriotic spirit of the Holy Name congregation, which was able to send 254 of its members to work in some capacity for the victory of this great war. He was well pleased and left Algiers knowing that he had here one of the best parishes of the diocese.

Mayor Behrman made another one of his impressive speeches. He is always good. It is not so much his language, for it is plain and practical; it is not so much the lofty ideas that permeate his talks, but it is the heart, and the heart of a big man, that appeals to everybody in his speeches. He spoke on this occasion with great earnestness, and his voice vibrated from the deep sense of duty and sacrifice that will be demanded from every American family.

Hon. James O'Connor, who was to make the oration of the evening, was not able to appear on account of the sad accident to the city electric plant, which held up all traffic for many hours.

The flag was raised by dainty little Miss Harriet Muntz, daughter of Mr. Peter Muntz. The elements seemed to have the spirit of the occasion, for as it was raised a gentle breeze swelled it and waved it in graceful waves, to the admiration of all present. It behaved just as a real, true American flag should behave on such an occasion. The Marine band dispersed real music. It seemed so unusual not to hear rasping sounds of camouflage jazz bands.

The Red Cross Chapter served refreshments to the boys after the ceremonies. It was a tasty lunch, well enjoyed by the boys, but served under rather spooky circumstances, for instead of electric lights candles were used. These, with the white dresses of the men and women, from a distance made the crowd look like midnight visitors from the land of ghosts.

Mr. Peter Muntz deserves unstinted praise for his hard and efficient work in this flag raising. He was the whole committee, and did everything with good judgment and dispatch.

Henry E. Albrizzi also wrote from Camp Sheridan. He is quite well and ceremonies, and conducted everything with order and appropriateness.

As the flag went up the children of the parish sang "The Spar-Spanned Banner." It was a beautiful sight and a truly touching patriotic ceremony.

Father Larkin is proud of the showing of his parish on this occasion.

SERVICES.

Week Days—Masses on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 6, 6:30 and 7; Wednesdays and Saturdays, 6 and 6:45.

Sunday—Masses at 5, 7 and 9, Low Mass and Benediction at 10, baptisms from 3 to 4.

BAPTISMS.

Clement, son of Mr. Joseph Moscovia and Mary Jambala of Lower Coast Spans, Charles and May Jambala.

Mary Xavier, daughter of Archie Wilcox Thompson and Bella Boudreaux. Sponsors, Mary Irene Thompson and Chris Thompson (witness).

Leah Frances, daughter of Francis Leo Cazaubon and Leah Florance. Sponsors, Ralph H. Cazaubon and Angèle Florance.

Albert Joseph, son of Albert Joseph Aucouin and Estelle McMahon. Sponsors, Albert J. McMahon and Ida Chauvin (proxy, Mary C. Gaffney). Edna Louise, daughter of George Lacina and Gertrude Moor. Third and Diana. Sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mailhos.

Rev. C. C. Wier, Pastor; Residence, 253 Vallette Street; Phone, Algiers 128.

Last Sunday morning the superintendent of the Sunday School had requested an especial service for parents and children. The special sermon was prepared and the Junior Choir was up to their usual standard. But the congregation was humilatingly small.

At night there was a good attendance to hear the pastor's sermon, "The First Quarrel," as recorded in Gen. 4:1-15. The incident recorded the first murder, the first martyr for righteousness' sake and the first death on earth. The love of God to man throughout the whole transaction. Emphasis was placed upon how God personally plead with Cain to get his life right. Cain made an offering according to his own plans and ideas. Abel made an offering in faith according to God's own plan as revealed to them. Men should have faith according to God's plan and approach him in faith.

PERSONALS.

On Wednesday, June 5, 1918, Mr. Thomas J. Entwistle and Miss Rose I. Garland were united in marriage at 253 Vallette Street, Rev. C. C. Wier officiating. Mr. C. R. Entwistle and Miss M. M. Garland were attendants. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple hurried to the Louisville and Nashville train. Their honeymoon will be spent in Savannah, Ga.

Ensign Edward Pettigrove had only a short furlough, but it was long enough to have at least a hurried visit home. He has been "over yonder" for several months.

The friends of Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Brown will be glad to know that their little daughter, Miriam, who has had diphtheria, is now out of danger. Mrs. Brown herself has been sick, but is now convalescent.

News has come from various boys in the uniform during the week. Mr. H. H. Gibson has had a letter from Ansel, with the good news that the doctors have declared him free from tuberculosis and that he has regained 5 1/2 pounds of the 10 that he lost while sick.

Raymond Glaser has been in the hospital at Camp Pike, but is now well again.

The pastor received a nice note from Curtis G. Gren on the S. S. Maine. He is well and sends regards to Algiers friends.

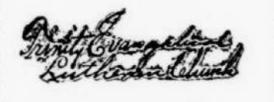

Henry E. Albrizzi also wrote from Camp Sheridan. He is quite well and and prayer, strong in the Lord and the power of His might. Let us say, "I trust in God and my own right arm. I can do all things through God who strengthens me. God and the right is my motto."

Services next Sunday at 7 a. m., 9:30 a. m. and 8 p. m.

From June 17 to June 30 the rector will be away on a few days' vacation.

Stars on the service flag: Harry Manson, Elmer Davidson, Edward Chapman, Warren Umbach, J. Kent Christy, Arthur T. Christy, G. Hartwood Koppel, George W. Harper, Irvin W. Tufts, S. Francis Meagher, William E. H. Eastwood Joseph W. Thorning, Dewey H. H. Thorning, Louis R. Arnolie, Paul Arnolie, Elmo E. Keenan, Louis A. Murphy, William Thompson, Thomas F. Zwickel, L. Schabel Burton, Emmet D. Hotard, Earl Sutherland Frank S. Edwards, Cleora M. Keenan, Antoinette M. Forrest, Martha Hart James Baer, John Hughes, Richard Hart and Joseph Menge.

The voting members of the congregation will meet on Friday night at the home of Mr. L. G. Webert at 7:30 o'clock.

On last Wednesday, at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Annie Brauminger and Mr. J. Imbom were married by Rev. A. Wismar. Immediately after a quiet home gathering of the family and a few friends, the young couple left for Roseland, La., where Mr. Imbom is in charge of Jahneke's large gravel pit at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Imbom have returned to Algiers, however, since Mr. Imbom suffered an injury to his hand two or three days later.

It is with much regret that we hear of the illness of Mrs. C. A. Sutherland in her Pacific Avenue home. We hope that it will be but a few days when we can hear of her recovery.

Services will be held on Thursday night, as usual, at 7:30 o'clock and on Sunday morning at 8. Rev. A. Wismar will deliver the sermon on Thursday and Rev. H. Meibom on Sunday, Sunday School at 9:30.

Karl L. Hofman returned home on Monday from Winfield, Kans., where he is pursuing the study of the ministry. The young people of our congregation, together with those of Salem Church, Gretna, and their friends gave an entertainment of welcome to Mr. Hofman. A pleasant evening was spent, the gathering being entertained with music, songs, recitations and games of various sort. Among those present were: Sergeant A. Green, Private D. Anderson, Misses Norma Weber, Emma Sutherland, Myrtle Sutherland, Anna Goetz, Thelma Clasen, Myrtle Clasen, Juanita Hoffstetter, Nora White, Lulu Thalheimer, Ruth Thalheimer, Myrtle Thalheimer, Marguerite Reagan, Anna Mae Gould, Irma Reagan, Viola Reagan, Carmen and Anna Vanderlinden, Gladys and Juanita Munstermann, Carrie Brauminger, Elbe Dietrich, Helena Hoch, Dora Essinger, Edith Gelbke, Marguerite Westman, Anna and Georgina Hofmann, Helen Manning, Messrs. Charles Reynolds, William Hoffstetter, Fred Strasser, William Barker, Emile Hofmann, Rheams Bleher, Charles Hantel, Joseph Hildebrand, S. Manning, F. J. Hebe, D. H. Lawrence, J. W. E. C. and H. G. Klempeter, O. Goeltz, J. Scheffer, A. Ripp, H. Thoele and W. R. White. The recently-wedded couple, Mr. and Mrs. Imbom, were also in our midst. Miss M. Reagan made the welcome address, presenting the host with a neat silver belt buckle.

Mrs. F. M. Webert, as all will be pleased to know, has recovered from her recent injuries.

The thirty-seventh anniversary of our Bethlehem Orphan Asylum will be celebrated on the asylum grounds, North Peters and Andy Streets, Sunday, July 7, 1918. The program will be published later. All interested in the asylum and its maintenance should come and inspect the home.
