ALMOST A BAD BLUNDER.

The apartment house owner called up the apartment house dweller and asked him to come and see him. And the apartment house dweller obeyed, the summons with fear and trembling. When he arrived in the office, the owner said:

"I am sorry, sir, but we shall have to ask you to vacate your apartment at once. I was not aware when I leased the flat to you that you had children."

"But we have no children," protested the renter, in amazement. "What put that into your head?"

"Other residents of the building have complained that they were kept awake by a baby crying in your apartment."

"Nonsense! That was one of our dogs howling. He sounds just like a kid sometimes."

"In that case, I must apologize. A natural mistake—and you know one can't be too careful. Sorry to have disturbed you—good morning."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A SMALL OFFER

"A penny for your thoughts."
 "Of course! Just like a woman, always looking for bargains!"

If
 If every day were pay day,
 How fine a man I'd be.
 With every day a gay day
 How glad my wife would be!

Mean Comment.
 "What do you think Mr. Blunt said to Miss Oldgirl when she remarked she would prefer to be a spring bride?"
 "What did he say?"
 "That he advised her to select April 1 for any date of the kind, for it would be such a good joke on the man."

Forgotten.
 "I thought you said he was strictly honest!"
 "So he is."
 "But I loaned him $10 a month ago and he hasn't returned it."
 "That's all right. I still think he is honest. Perhaps I forgot to tell you that his chief trouble is that he has a poor memory."

CHEAP

The Fish—What are you looking so disgruntled about?
 The Crab—It's enough to make a crab crabbled. I hear we're only a nickel a copy on most of the lunch counters.

Wrap Tools in Cloth.
 It is an admirable idea to wrap good tools, such as drills, wrenches, etc., in oiled cloths before stowing them away in the tool compartment. The oiled cloths prevent the implements from becoming rusty, which is quite likely to happen in the course of a strenuous season's running.

Practically on Same Plane.
 "De man dat believes everything he hears," said Uncle Eben, "ain't much worse off dan de man dat won't believe nuffin 'ceptin' what pleases him."
